Mierse, 2022-12-01 Artifacts from the Ancient Silk Road explores the interconnectivity of the Eurasian continent from 4000 BCE to 1000 CE It focuses on the role played by Central Asia through which passed the major trade routes the Silk Roads Artifacts from the Ancient Silk Road covers life along the Silk Road over 5000 years as it can be understood by considering objects In this first object based study to consider all of the peoples involved on the Silk Roads objects provide the vehicles for explorations of different aspects of life for the various peoples of the Silk Roads including the sedentary peoples who established urban life on the Silk Roads the steppe nomads who regularly interacted with the settled peoples and the peoples at either end of the Silk Roads who drove certain kinds of economic exchanges The book looks at Central Asia as an international zone during ancient times when multiple religious political and technological ideas found acceptance in the region and allows for a better understanding of how some ideas and forms developed in Central Asia while others passed through or were modified Lloyd's Register of Yachts 1960 Lloyd's Register Foundation,1960-01-01 The Lloyd s Register of Yachts was first issued in 1878 and was issued annually until 1980 except during the years 1916 18 and 1940 46 Two supplements containing additions and corrections were also issued annually The Register contains the names details and characters of Yachts classed by the Society together with the particulars of other Yachts which are considered to be of interest illustrates plates of the Flags of Yacht and Sailing Clubs together with a List of Club Officers an illustrated List of the Distinguishing Flags of Yachtsmen a List of the Names and Addresses of Yacht Owners and much other information For more information on the Lloyd s Register of Yachts please click here <https://www.lloydshandbook.com/> William Hunter's World Nick Pearce,2017-07-05 Despite William Hunter s stature as one of the most important collectors and men of science of the eighteenth century and the fact that his collection is the foundation of Scotland s oldest public museum The Hunterian until now there has been no comprehensive examination in a single volume of all his collections in their diversity This volume restores Hunter to a rightful position of prominence among the medical men whose research and amassing of specimens transformed our understanding of the natural world and man s position within it This volume comprises essays by international specialists and are as diverse as Hunter s collections themselves dealing as they do with material that ranges from medical and scientific specimens to painting prints books and manuscripts The first sections focus upon Hunter s own collection and his response to it while the final section contextualises Hunter within the wider sphere A special feature of the volume is the inclusion of references to the Hunterian s web pages and on line databases These enable searches for items from Hunter s collections both from his museum and library Locating Hunter s collecting within the broader context of his age and environment this book provides an original approach to a man and collection whose importance has yet to be comprehensively assessed The Social Functions of Avoidances and Taboos among the Zulu Otto F. Raum,2019-06-17 No detailed description available for The Social Functions of Avoidances and Taboos among the Zulu Male and Female in the Epic of Gilgamesh Tzvi Abusch,2014-04-27 The deeds and struggles of Gilgamesh legendary king of the city state Uruk in the land of Sumer have fascinated readers for millennia They are preserved primarily in the Epic of Gilgamesh one of the most well known pieces of Mesopotamian literature Studying the text draws us into an orbit that is engaging and thrilling for it is a work of fantasy and legend that addresses some of the very existential issues with which contemporary readers still grapple We experience the excitement of trying to penetrate the mind set of another civilization an ancient one in this instance a civilization that ultimately gave rise to our own The studies gathered here all demonstrate Tzvi Abusch s approach to ancient literature to make use of the tools of literary structural and critical analysis in service of exploring the personal and psychological dimensions of the narration The author focuses especially on the encounters between males and females in the story The essays are not only instructive for understanding the Epic of Gilgamesh they also serve as exemplary studies of ancient literature with a view to investigating streams of commonality between ancient times and ours Curiosities and

Texts Marjorie Swann,2010-11-24 A craze for collecting swept England during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Aristocrats and middling sort men alike crammed their homes full of a bewildering variety of physical objects antique coins scientific instruments minerals mummified corpses zoological specimens plants ethnographic objects from Asia and the Americas statues portraits Why were these bizarre jumbles of artifacts so popular In Curiosities and Texts Marjorie Swann demonstrates that collections of physical objects were central to early modern English literature and culture Swann examines the famous collection of rarities assembled by the Tradescant family the development of English natural history narrative catalogs of English landscape features that began to appear in the Tudor and Stuart periods the writings of Ben Jonson and Robert Herrick and the foundation of the British Museum Through this wide ranging series of case studies Swann addresses two important questions How was the collection which was understood as a form of cultural capital appropriated in early modern England to construct new social selves and modes of subjectivity And how did literary texts both as material objects and as vehicles of representation participate in the process of negotiating the cultural significance of collectors and collecting Crafting her unique argument with a balance of detail and insight Swann sheds new light on material culture s relationship to literature social authority and personal identity The Royal Hunter Prudence Oliver Harper,1978
