Sex We Want Straight Talking From 90s Women:

The Sex We Want J. K. Collins,1996 A racy and informed look at the sexual habits hang ups anxieties and desires of contemporary heterosexual women from the agony aunt of For Women One for the Girls! Clarissa Smith,2007 Against the claims of the increasing sexualization of culture one truism is constantly rehearsed that women have little taste for pornography One for the Girls offers a new basis for understanding women s pleasures in sexually explicit materials focusing on the production and consumption of For Women magazine This thought provoking book argues that theories of harm and women s subordination have deflected attention away from the lived experiences and practices of pornography By focusing on an individual publication this book illuminates the ways in which pornography is a social product and subject to a range of institutional practices which influence its styles and presentations The investigation is complemented by a study of For Women readers offering a multi dimensional understanding of their relationships with this soft core magazine P 4 of cover
