

“Sex Without Love” by Sharon Olds

✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

In her poem “Sex without Love”, Sharon Olds, as might be argued, criticizes those who engage in loveless sex. Olds uses various stylistic devices, such as enjambment and repetition, to give the poem a certain pace; similes, metaphor and irony—to endow it with additional meaning. The poem becomes ambiguous; and though at first it seems the author is fascinated with this type of relations, it can be argued that she, in fact, expresses disapproval of it.

It appears at first that the author favors sex without love (Sutton par. 2-3). She uses rich metaphors to describe those partaking in such sex: they are compared to ice-skaters and beautiful dancers, great runners. Olds uses enjambment to quicken the pace of the poem, and employs repetition – both these stylistic devices are used to denote the rhythm of sex: “How do they come to the / come to the come to the God come to the / still waters” (Olds 8-10).

Here, the metaphor of God denotes orgasm (Sutton par. 9), and still water points to the state of calm relaxation that follows it. Sutton also points out that the lovers of this kind are, at first glance, depicted as those who show deeper understanding of things than those who love (par. 2); they are “the ones who will not / accept a false Messiah, love the / priest instead of the God” (Olds 14-16).

This religious metaphor might denote the ability to see the truth behind the appearance. The poetess also employs another stylistic device: she continuously asks questions, as if being surprised and fascinated by those participating in loveless sex: “How do they do it, the ones who make love / without love?” (Olds 1-2).

On the other hand, after closer examination, one notices that the author uses metaphors that associate with something negative, such as coldness, pain. Indeed, ice-skating might be a breathtaking art; but it is also associated with coldness. Loveless lovers are “gliding over each other like ice-skaters / over the ice” (Olds 3-4), which reminds of skates carving the ice with their blades; and though the skates “glide”, move smoothly and effortlessly, but still leave carvings on the surface of ice.

The words which follow the ice-skaters metaphor is the only hint at the connection between the lovers present in the poem: “fingers hooked / inside each other’s bodies”
