Sexual Sites Seminal Attitudes:

Sexual Sites, Seminal Attitudes Sanjay Srivastava, 2004-03-20 Discussions on sexuality in the South Asian context have tended to focus largely on men's preoccupations through notions such as semen anxiety. Another restrictive framework is the excessive importance ascribed to religion in everyday life. The result has been a rather narrow debate on sexuality. By providing accounts of a myriad sites and meanings of sexuality, this remarkable volume broadens the debate on sexuality in South Asia. It combines perspectives from history, anthropology, and cultural and literary studies to provide an interdisciplinary exploration of the cultures of and the multiple meanings and contestations that gather around masculinities and sexualities. The collection is unique in the breadth of its theoretical concerns, its focus on hitherto marginalized sexual identities, and its novel juxtapositions of analyses of colonial discourses with those of postcolonised modernity. Sexual Sites, Seminal Attitudes Sanjay Srivastava, 2004

Sex Work in Nepal Lisa Caviglia, 2017-09-05 This book explores sex work in Nepal as a social and analytical category. Narrating stories of those subsumed under such definition, it examines changes as well as continuities characterising socio-cultural norms and perceptions through an analysis of sexual consumption. It also highlights the ways in which the development sector, media, and local community discourses frame sex work as a distinct category. How does the work of development aid projects affect the understanding of the sex worker category? How are visual and media images employed to mark spaces of perdition in the Nepalese urban setting, and what forms of imagination do they trigger? How are intimate practices and relations transformed by imported notions of love, and how do standards of propriety related to such interactions shift? This book attempts to answer some of these questions. An in-depth and intimate ethnography, the book deconstructs the sex worker category against the backdrop of global influences within local urban surroundings and points to the contradictions therein. Furthermore, through thorough descriptions of the experiences, agency, decision-making processes, and lives of those labelled as sex workers, the book challenges concepts such as deviance and victimhood. It proposes a counternarrative by rethinking ideas of gender, objectification, marginality, symbolic violence, and discrimination. This book will greatly interest researchers and scholars in women and gender studies, sociology, and social anthropology, South Asian studies, and social sciences, as well as NGOs and those involved in the development sector.

Medicine and Colonial Engagements in India and Sub-Saharan Africa Poonam Bala, 2018-06-11 This volume examines the various modalities of imperial engagements with the colonized peoples in the former British colonies of India and in sub-Saharan Africa. Articulated through race, gender, and medicine, these modalities also became colonial sites of desire, addressing colonial anxieties ensuing from concerted engagements. Focussing on colonial India, South Africa, Kenya, Uganda, Swaziland, and Zimbabwe, this volume brings together essays from eminent scholars to examine the dynamics of colonial engagements and their implications in understanding their role in the dominant discourses of the empire. Given its transnational perspective in addressing colonial India and Sub-Saharan Africa, the book will appeal to historians, sociologists, and anthropologists and to scholars and students in colonial studies cultural studies history of medicine and world history

Passionate Modernity Sanjay Srivastava, 2020-11-29 Combining historical and ethnographic analysis this book deals with the making of the heterosexual imagination from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present in the Indian context This unique book uses methods from anthropology cultural studies and history to explore the making of modern cultures of sexuality in India It provides an analysis of the sexual and domestic politics of the period by focusing on the vast corpus of publications and journals on sexology from the 1920s to the 1940s and links Indian activities with those in other parts of the world The author analyzes material that has thus far been outside the purview of scholarly studies namely footpath pornography magazines such as Sexology Mirror in Hindi women s magazines dealing explicitly with sex and sexuality

Urban Utopias Tereza Kuldova, Mathew A. Varghese, 2017-03-09 This book brings anthropologists and critical theorists together in order to investigate utopian visions of the future in the neoliberal cities of India and Sri Lanka Arguing for the priority of materiality in any analysis of contemporary ideology the authors explore urban construction projects special economic zones fashion ramps films archaeological excavations and various queer spaces In the process they reveal how diverse co existing utopian visions are entangled with local politics and global capital and show how these utopian visions are at once driven by visions of excess and by increasing expulsions It s a dystopia already in the making one marred by land grabs and forced evictions rising inequality and the loss of urbanity and civility

HIV/AIDS in India Sunita Manian, 2017-06-14 India ranks third in the number of people living with HIV AIDS globally The country has high levels of poverty and inequality poor healthcare infrastructure especially away from the metropolitan areas and a legacy of colonialism that bequeathed laws criminalizing non heteronormative sexualities These factors mean that many minority groups do not receive adequate access to preventative and treatment programs This book explores the HIV AIDS epidemic in India Based on research in Tamil Nadu it presents experiences of those marginalized by their sexuality and or gender their struggles and their triumphs Based on interviews with male and female sex workers men who have sex with men aravanis male to female transgenders and HIV positive women groups usually not included in the policy making by Indian government agencies international donors and international NGOs the author uses an interdisciplinary approach The approach highlights the historical and cultural context while providing contemporary narratives The book thus presents a deeper multi dimensional understanding of the context of the disease and comprehends the roots of the stigma and discrimination that exacerbate the epidemic An important study of the global HIV AIDS epidemic this book will be of interest to researchers in the field of South Asian Studies Sexuality and Gender Studies Health Sciences and Public Health

This book is based on long term ethnographic research with hijras the emblematic figure of South Asian sexual and gender difference in Dhaka Bangladesh It proposes the hijra as a counter cultural formation that embodies not only a direct contrast to hegemonic patterns of masculinity but also as an alternative subculture offering the possibility of varied forms of erotic pleasures and practices otherwise forbidden in mainstream society While most studies view hijras as an asexual emasculated third sex gender this book calls into question the phallogocentric logic that obscures alternative sites and sources of bodily power and pleasure emphasizing how hijras craft their own subject position Ethnographically rich and theoretically engaged this book will cause a new global re examination of both hijras in particular and the wider range of male femininities in general Cinema in Muslim Societies Ali Ahmad, 2017-10-02

This book collates a comprehensive range of fascinating essays by leading authors on film from across the Muslim world Responding to political and theoretical misconceptions about Islam and Muslim culture it covers North African Arab and Asian cinemas in a rich series of industry histories single film studies and detailed analyses of celebrated directors Cinema in Muslim Societies is innovative and timely in its explicit engagement with vexing questions of Islamic aesthetics political activism socialism and the role of women in Muslim contexts The authors explore a wide variety of topics from cinematic art and poetry to religious identity and pornography Debated extensively at a programme of public talks and screenings at the Institute of Contemporary Arts in London in 2011 this volume remains supremely relevant in a world of polarising identities and political violence engulfing Muslim societies and the West This book was originally published as a special issue of Third Text
