Sexual Harassment A Debate:

Sexual Harassment Linda LeMoncheck, Mane Hajdin, 2000-01-01 The question of what constitutes sexual harassment from suggestive remarks to outright threats from off color jokes to lewd posters on office walls is contentious as is the question of how to address sexual harassment Do all instances of sexual harassment constitute sex discrimination Are some instances merely sexual attraction gone wrong Do social policies aimed at eliminating sexual harassment in the workplace violate freedom of expression or do they make working relationships possible between women and men In this uncompromising yet respectful debate two philosophers of widely divergent views present clear arguments and then respond directly to each other's reasoning LeMoncheck argues for a feminist perspective on sexual harassment that is sensitive to the politics of gender Hajdin contends that this perspective is both morally confusing and legally problematic and that sexual harassment can be better addressed by traditional moral and legal categories Sexual Harassment as an Ethical Issue in Academic Life Leslie Francis, 2001 Sexual harassment is a controversial and complicated issue on college campuses today Bringing both philosophical and legal training to the discussion Leslie Pickering Francis here provides the first full examination of sexual harassment as an ethical issue in education Francis examines the issues raised by the definition understanding and regulation of campus sexual harassment and addresses arguments that its regulation may conflict with academic freedom and choice in relationships Visit our website for sample chapters Sexual Harassment, the Abuse of Power and the Crisis of Leadership James K. Thinking About Sexual Harassment Margaret A. Crouch,2000-12-28 This illuminating work on one of today s most provocative issues provides all the necessary information for careful critical thinking about the concept of sexual harassment Consisting mainly of two parts it first traces the construction of the concept of sexual harassment from the original public uses of the term to its definitions in the law in legal cases and in empirical research It then analyzes philosophical definitions of sexual harassment and a number of issues that have arisen in the law including the reasonable woman standard and whether same sex harassment should be considered sex discrimination

Debating Sex Work Lori Watson,Jessica Flanigan,2020 Prostitution is often referred to as oldest profession Critics of this expression redescribe it as the oldest oppression Debates about how best to understand and regulate prostitution are bound up with difficult moral legal and political questions Indeed it can be approached from numerous angles is buying and selling sex fundamentally wrong How can it possibly be regulated How can sex workers be protected if they are allowed to work at all In this concise for and against volume ethicists Lori Watson and Jessica Flanigan engage with each other on the nature and consequences of sex work revealing new and profound ways in which to understand it The volume opens with a joint introduction before Lori Watson first argues for a sex equality approach to prostitution in which buyers are criminalized and sellers are decriminalized also known as the Nordic model Watson defends the Nordic Model on the grounds that prostitution is an exploitative and unequal practice that only entrenches existing patterns of gendered injustice Full decriminalization of prostitution only stymies existing occupational health and safety standards and securing worker autonomy and equality Further to Watson drawing a distinction between sex trafficking and prostitution is irrelevant for public policy what underpins them is demand which fuels the inequalities of both That is what needs to be addressed In a rebuttal Jessica Flanigan contends that sex work should be fully decriminalized because restrictions on the sale and purchase of sex violate the rights of sex workers and their clients She argues that decriminalization is preferable to policies that could expose sex workers and their clients to criminal penalties and leave them at the mercy of public officials Putting these two views on sex work into conversation with one another and opening up space for readers to weigh both approaches the book provides a thorough accessible exploration of the issues surrounding sex work written with both sympathy and philosophical rigor Speech and Debate as Civic Education J. Michael Hogan, Jessica A. Kurr, Michael J. Bergmaier, Jeremy D. Johnson, 2017-11-08 In an era increasingly marked by polarized and unproductive political debates this volume makes the case for a renewed emphasis on teaching speech and debate both in and outside of the classroom Speech and debate education leads students to better understand their First Amendment rights and the power of speaking It teaches them to work together collaboratively to solve problems and it encourages critical thinking reasoned and fact based argumentation and respect for differing viewpoints in our increasingly diverse and global society Highlighting the need for more emphasis on the ethics and skills of democratic deliberation the contributors to this volume leading scholars teachers and coaches in speech and debate programs around the country offer new ideas for reinvigorating curricular and co curricular speech and debate by recovering and reinventing their historical mission as civic education Combining historical case studies theoretical reflections and reports on programs that utilize rhetorical pedagogies to educate for citizenship Speech and Debate as Civic Education is a first of its kind collection of the best ideas for reinventing and revitalizing the civic mission of speech and debate for a new generation of students In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Jenn Anderson Michael D Bartanen Ann Crigler Sara A Mehlretter Drury David A Frank G Thomas Goodnight Ronald Walter Greene Taylor W Hahn Darrin Hicks Edward A Hinck Jin Huang Una Kimokeo Goes Rebecca A Kuehl Lorand Laskai Tim Lewis Robert S Littlefield Allan D Loudon Paul E Mabrey III Jamie McKown Gordon R Mitchell Catherine H Palczewski Angela G Ray Robert C Rowland Minhee Son Sarah Stone Watt Melissa Maxcy Wade David Weeks Carly S Woods and David Zarefsky Argument and Audience Kenneth T.
