Lemelle, Jr., 2010-04-26 This book is about how African American males experience masculinity politics and how U S sexism and racial ranking influences relationships between black and white males Lemelle argues that the only way to accommodate African American males is to eliminate sexism particularly as it appears in the organization of families

Politics, Paradigms, and Intelligence Failures Ofira Seliktar, 2015-05-20 Washington's failure to foresee the collapse of its superpower rival ranks high in the pantheon of predictive failures The question of who got what right or wrong has been intertwined with the deeper issue of who won the Cold War Like the disputes over who lost China and Iran this debate has been fought out along ideological and partisan lines with conservatives claiming credit for the Evil Empire's demise and liberals arguing that the causes were internal to the Soviet Union The intelligence community has come in for harsh criticism for overestimating Soviet strength and overlooking the symptoms of crisis the discipline of Sovietology has dissolved into acrimonious irrelevance Drawing on declassified documents interviews and careful analysis of contemporaneous literature this book offers the first systematic analysis of this predictive failure at the paradigmatic foreign policy and intelligence levels Although it is focused on the Soviet case it offers lessons that are both timely and necessary Sexual Politics in the Enlightenment Mary Seidman Trouille, 1997-08-28 Explores the way seven women writers of the eighteenth century responded to Rousseau and traces his crucial influence on their literary careers Dating for Woman (3 Books in 1).

Irish Modernism and the Politics of Sexual Health Lloyd (Meadhbh) Houston, 2023. Irish Modernism and the Politics of Sexual Health explores the politicized role of sexual health as a concept, discourse, and subject of debate within Irish literary culture from 1880 to 1960. Combining perspectives from Irish Studies, Modernist Studies, and the Social History of Medicine, it traces the ways in which authors, politicians, and activists in nineteenth and twentieth century Ireland harnessed debates over sexual hygiene, venereal disease, birth control, fertility, and eugenics to envisage competing models of Irish identity, culture, and political community. Analyzing the work of canonical authors Yeats, Synge, Shaw, Joyce, Beckett, Flann O'Brien, and less often discussed figures George Moore, Oliver Gogarty, Signe Toksvig, Kate O'Brien in conversation with medical, scientific, and legal writing on sexual health, it charts how the medicalization and politicization of sex informed the emergence and development of modernism in Ireland. At the same time, by reading this literary material alongside the polemical and journalistic writing of figures such as Arthur Griffith, Maud Gonne, and Hanna Sheehy Skeffington, it also reveals the ways in which key events in Irish cultural and political history—the Parnell Split, the Limerick Pogrom, the Playboy riots, the passage of the Censorship of Publications Act—were shaped by ongoing debates and dilemmas in the field of sexual health. This book will benefit students
