Sexual Subversions Three French Feminists:

Sexual Subversions Elizabeth Grosz, 2020-09-02 Sexual Subversions introduces the works of three well known if not well read French feminists Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Michele Le Doeuff It provides a map of an area where there are few detailed discussion of the achievements of these difficult yet immensely rewarding writers In doing so this overview raises issues of general relevance to feminist research it participates in debates around the nature of feminist theory the relations feminist intellectuals have to male dominated knowledges and the strategies appropriate for developing non patriarchal autonomous or woman centred knowledges No book in French feminists would be complete without including the contributions of Kristeva and Irigaray The inclusion of Le Doeuff's work which brings a different perspective to bear on the question of sexual difference provides a counterbalance to literary appropriations of French feminism by Anglo American readerships Kristeva Irigaray and Le Doeuff are the focal points of this study precisely because each highlights the differences of the others revealing the frameworks to which the others are committed Nevertheless while these writers do not present a common political or theoretical position or form a school each addresses the question of women's autonomy from male definition affirms the sexual specificity of women seeks out a femininity women can use to question the patriarchal norms and ideals of femininity and rejects the preordained positions patriarchy allots to women

Sexual Subversions

Elizabeth A. Grosz, 1989 Introduction to the work of Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray Michele Le Doeuff

Sexual Subversions

Elisabeth Grosz, 1989 French Feminists on Religion Morny Joy, Kathleen O'Grady, Judith L. Poxon, 2002 French Feminists on Religion A Reader offers the first representative selection of important writings by French feminist thinkers on the topic of religion including the most influential and provocative texts on the subject from Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Helene Cixous Monique Wittig and Catherine Clement Each thinker is introduced by a bibliographical preface while individual essays are preceded by an editorial commentary explaining the context and significance of each piece for the study of religion The collected texts cover a broad range of religious practices and discourses focusing primarily on Jewish and Christian concerns but including elements of ancient Goddess traditions Witchcraft Hinduism and Buddhism Critically examined themes include Jewish and Christian notions of sin defilement purity and redemption the relationship between subjectivity and divinity as conceived in the feminine the feminist re imaging of the Virgin Mary and of Catholic theologies of love the repression of the maternal in Judeo Christian culture Brought together for the first time in French Feminist on Religion A Reader these essays demonstrate the central importance of French feminism for the study of religion and at the same time make evident the significance of religious themes figures and concepts to the world of French feminists

French Feminist Theory

Dani Cavallaro, 2004-03-01 French Feminist Theory offers an introduction to the key concepts and themes in French feminist thought both the materialist and the linguistic psychoanalytic traditions These are explored through the work of a wide range of theorists Simone de Beauvoir Chantal Chawaf Helene Cixous Catherine Clement Christine Delphy Marguerite Duras

Colette Guillaumin Madeleine Gagnon Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Nicole Claude Mathieu Michele Montreley Monique Plaza Paola Tabet and Monique Wittig The book outlines the philosophical and political diversity of French feminism setting developments in the field in the particular cultural and social contexts in which they have emerged and unfolded Face to Face Carol Adlam, Rachel Falconer, Vitalii Makhlin, Leslie Pinfield, 1997-06-01 So far in the West the dissemination of Bakhtinian thought has proceeded with little or no awareness of contemporary approaches to Bakhtin in his homeland This collection offers unprecedented access to leading Russian research in juxtaposition with important Western scholarship on Bakhtin Taking its cue from Bakhtin as founder of dialogical criticism Face to Face aims to stimulate dialogue across disciplines and national boundaries Forever fluid Hanneke Canters, Grace M. Jantzen, 2018-02-28 Forever Fluid is a rich feast of literary and philosophical insight It provides the first English commentary on Luce Irigaray's poetic text Elemental Passions setting it within its context within continental thought It explores Irigaray's images and intentions developing the gender drama that takes place within her book and draws the reader into the conversation in the text between I woman and you man But the book is also much more than this as it uses the exploration of sexual difference as a means to challenge the system of binary logic which has pervaded western thought since Aristotle It develops the exciting idea of a fluid logic which can move beyond oppositions to multiple subjects and creativity of thought and action While challenging Irigaray's refusal to move beyond sexual difference the book shows how her representation of sexual difference enables appreciation of difference of all kinds Rethinking Culture, Organization and Management Robert McMurray, Alison Pullen, 2020-03-11 The purpose of this book is to reimagine the concept of culture both as an analytical category and disciplinary practice of dominance marginalization and exclusion For decades culture has been perceived as a hot topic It has been written about and deployed as part of a search for excellence as a tool through which to categorise rank motivate and mould individuals as a part of an attempt to align individual and corporate goals as a driver of organizational change and as a servant of profit maximisation The women writers presented in this book offer a different take on culture they offer useful disruptions to mainstream conceptions of culture Joanne Martin and Mary Douglas provide multi dimensional holistic accounts of social relations that point up similarity and difference Rather than offering totalising or prescriptive models each author considers the complex polyphonic and processual nature of culture's while challenging us to acknowledge and work with ambiguity fluidity and disruption In this spirit writings of Judi Marshall Arlie Hochschild Kathy Ferguson Luce Irigaray and Donna Haraway are employed to disrupt extant management cultures that lionise the masculine and marginalise the concerns perspectives and contributions of women and the diversity of women These writers bring bodies emotions difference resistance and politics back to the centre stage of organizational theory and practice They open us up to the possibility of cultures suffused with multifarious potentiality rather than homogeneity and faux certainty As such they offer new ways of understanding and performing culture in management and organization This book will be relevant to students and researchers across business and management organizational studies critical management studies gender studies and sociology French Feminisms Gill Allwood, 2012-09-10 In this text Gill Allwood explores theories of masculinity emerging from French feminist theories of gender and from French feminist practice concerning violence towards women highlighting both the commonalities and the specificities of the French case She discusses the particular concern of French theorists with seduction their rejection of the term gender and the centrality of the difference debate In the first part of the book Allwood separately examines feminist theories of gender and sexual difference and the problem of male violence She goes on to consider the developments which are taking place on the borderline between the two examining the way in which these developments have contributed to an understanding of masculinity Readdressing problems and debates that will be familiar to English speaking readers the text exposes cultural differences and similarities in the ways in which these problems are approached and it provides a detailed account of the changes in both feminist action and theory in France in recent years This analysis of feminism in France should be of interest to student and scholars in French studies European studies gender studies and cultural studies The A to Z of Feminist Philosophy Catherine Villanueva Gardner, 2009 Having emerged only in the past few decades feminist philosophy is rapidly reevaluating and reshaping most fields of philosophy from ethics to logic and Marxism to environmentalism It draws not only on feminist philosophers but criticizes approves or appropriates the work of the leading philosophers throughout history The introduction of The A to Z of Feminist Philosophy provides a useful overview of the subject while the chronology runs the gamut from ancient Greek to contemporary feminist philosophers Dictionary entries cover both the central figures and ideas from the historical tradition of philosophy as well as ideas and theories from contemporary feminist philosophy such as epistemology and topics like abortion and sexuality In addition to including entries on Aristotle Plato Descartes Kant Wollstonecraft Beauvoir and Daly relevant aspects of other fields of philosophy the major concepts and prevailing interpretations and conjectures are also covered A comprehensive bibliography allows for further reading Book Jacket
