Sexual Textual Politics Feminist Literar:

Sexual/textual Politics Toril Moi, 2002 This book examines the strengths and limitations of the two main strands in feminist criticism the Anglo American and the French paying particular attention to the works of Cixous Irigaray and Kristeva What are the political implications of a feminist critical practice How do the problems of the literary text relate to the priorities and perspectives of feminist politics as a whole Sexual Textual Politics addresses these fundamental questions and examines the strengths and limitations of the two main strands in feminist criticism the Anglo American and the French It pays particular attention to the works of Cixous Irigaray and Kristeva and since publication this book has rightly attained the status of a classic Although written for readers with little knowledge of the subject Sexual Textual Politics makes its own intervention into key debates arguing provocatively for committedly political and theoretical criticism rather than a textual or apolitical approach With a new afterword in this edition Sexual Textual Politics is a brilliantly accessible must read for all those interested in feminist literary theory Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima

Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture Encyclopedia of

Feminist Literary Theory Elizabeth Kowaleski-Wallace, 2009-03-23 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Cambridge Introduction to Virginia Woolf Jane Goldman, 2006-09-14 For students of modern literature the works of Virginia Woolf are essential reading In her novels short stories essays polemical pamphlets and in her private letters she explored questioned and refashioned everything about modern life cinema sexuality shopping education feminism politics and war Her elegant and startlingly original sentences became a model of modernist prose This is a clear and informative introduction to Woolf s life works and cultural and critical contexts explaining the importance of the Bloomsbury group in the development of her work It covers the major works in detail including To the Lighthouse Mrs Dalloway The Waves and the key short stories As well as providing students with the essential information needed to study Woolf Jane Goldman suggests further reading to allow students to find their way through the most important critical works All students of Woolf will find this a useful and illuminating overview of the field Men and Women in

Qing China Edwards,2021-09-13 Men and Women in Qing China is an analysis of Chinese prescriptions of gender as represented in Cao Xueqin's famous eighteenth century Chinese novel of manners The Red Chamber Dream or The Story of the Stone Drawing on feminist literary critical methods it examines Qing notions of masculinity and femininity including themes such as bisexuality motherhood virginity and purity and gender and power Its central aim is to challenge the common assumption that the novel represents some form of early Chinese feminism by examining the text in conjunction with historical data The book will be especially important to those interested in issues of gender in China the history of Chinese literary criticism and the application of feminist theory to the Asian text Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory

Michael Groden,Martin Kreiswirth,Imre Szeman,2012-11-01 This helpful guide serves as an introduction to contemporary literary theory Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory The Johns Hopkins Guide is a clear accessible and detailed overview of the most important thinkers and topics in the field Written by specialists from across disciplines its entries cover contemporary theory from Adorno to i ek providing an informative and reliable introduction to a vast challenging area of inquiry Materials include newly commissioned articles along with essays drawn from The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism known as the definitive resource for students and scholars of literary theory and for philosophical reflection on literature and culture Metafiction and Metahistory in Contemporary Women's Writing A.

Heilmann,M. Llewellyn,2007-04-11 This collection examines the dynamic experimentation of contemporary women writers from North America Australia and the UK Blurring the dichotomies of the popular and the literary the fictional and the factual the essays assembled here offer new approaches to reading contemporary women fiction writers reconfigurations of history Literature Politics & Theory Francis Barker,Peter Hulme,Margaret Iversen,Diana Loxley,2013-10-08 First

Published in 2002 Modes and categories inherited from the past no longer seem to fit the reality experienced by a new generation New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change to stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study The present selection of papers made from nearly two hundred published represents in some measure the diversity of the work at the eight Essex Sociology of Literature Conferences Queer

Literature in the Sinosphere Hongwei Bao,Yahia Zhengtang Ma,2024-11-14 Queer Literature in the Sinosphere is the most up to date English language study of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ themed literature and culture in the Chinese speaking world From classical homoerotic texts to contemporary boys love fan fiction this book showcases the richness and diversity of queer Chinese literature across the full spectrum of genres styles topics and cultural politics The book features authors and literary works from mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan Singapore and the global Chinese diaspora Featuring chapters by leading scholars from around the world this book rewrites literature history and culture from a queer lens in China and globally Authorship's Wake Philip Sayers,2020-12-10 Authorship s Wake examines the aftermath of the 1960s critique of the author epitomized by Roland Barthes s essay The Death of the Author This critique has given rise to a body of writing that confounds generic distinctions separating the literary and the theoretical Its archive consists of texts by writers who either directly participated in this critique as Barthes did or whose intellectual formation took place in its immediate aftermath These writers include some who are known primarily as theorists Judith Butler others known primarily as novelists Zadie Smith David Foster Wallace and yet others whose texts are difficult to categorize the autofiction of Chris Kraus Sheila Heti and Ben Lerner the autotheory of Maggie Nelson These writers share not only a central motivating question how to move beyond the critique of the author subject but also a way of answering it by writing texts that merge theoretical concerns with literary discourse Authorship s Wake traces the responses their work offers in relation to four themes communication intention agency and labor
