Sexuality In The Field Of Vision:

Sexuality in the Field of Vision Jacqueline Rose, 2005 Jacqueline Rose argues for the importance of sexual difference and fantasy as key concepts through which an interrogation of contemporary theory should be sustained Sexuality In The Field Of Vision Jacqueline Rose, 1988 Sex In The Head Linda R. Williams, 2016-07-01 In Sex in the Head Linda Ruth Williams uses psychoanalysis and recent feminist film theory to analyze a network of ideas which link looking with sexuality and difference in the work of a writer who disavowed yet covertly enjoyed the pleasures and power of vision The book is a departure from the long history of feminist readings of Lawrence in that it discusses his engagement with theories of the gaze and its cultural forms cinema photography painting and the visual dynamics and metaphors of literary texts as a way of thinking through gender It shows him arguing on the one hand against the evils of cinema and visual sex while relishing through the eyes of women the moving spectacle of those male bodies which populate the pages of his books It also questions what it is about the work of such an adamant cinephobe which has made it so thoroughly adaptable for film and television

Visual Culture: Histories, archaeologies and genealogies of visual culture Joanne Morra, Marquard Smith, 2006 These texts represent both the formation of visual culture and the ways in which it has transformed and continues to transform our understanding and experience of the world as a visual domain Art and Its Histories Steve Edwards, Professor and Head of Art History Steve Edwards, 1999-01-01 Published with six accompanying books in the series Art and its Histories Visual Politics of Psychoanalysis Griselda Pollock, 2013-10-08 In this innovative collection a distinguished group of international authors dare to think psychoanalytically about the legacies of political violence and suffering in relation to post traumatic cultures worldwide They build on maverick art historian Aby Warburg's project of combining social cultural anthropological and psychological analyses of the image in order to track the undercurrents of cultural violence in the representational repertoire of Western modernity Drawing on post colonial and feminist theory they analyze the image and the aesthetic in conditions of historical trauma from enslavement and colonization to the Irish Famine from Denmark's national trauma about migrants and cartoons to collective shock after 9 11 from individual traumas of loss registered in allegory to newsreels and documentaries on suicide bombing in Israel Palestine and from Kristeva's novels to Kathryn Bigelow's cinema Specters of Paul Benjamin H. Dunning, 2011-02-07 The first Christians operated with a hierarchical model of sexual difference common to the ancient Mediterranean with women considered to be lesser versions of men Yet sexual difference was not completely stable as a conceptual category across the spectrum of formative Christian thinking Rather early Christians found ways to exercise theological creativity and to think differently from one another as they probed the enigma of sexually differentiated bodies In Specters of Paul Benjamin H. Dunning explores this variety in second and third century Christian thought with particular attention to the ways the legacy of the apostle Paul fueled shaped and also constrained approaches to the issue Paul articulates his vision of what it means to be human primarily by situating human beings between two poles creation Adam and resurrection Christ But within this framework where does one place the figure of Eve and the difference that her female body represents Dunning demonstrates that this dilemma impacted a range of Christian thinkers in the centuries immediately following the apostle including Clement of Alexandria Irenaeus of Lyons Tertullian of Carthage and authors from the Nag Hammadi corpus While each of these thinkers attempts to give the difference of the feminine a coherent place within a Pauline typological framework Dunning shows that they all fail to deliver fully on the coherence that they promise Instead sexual difference haunts the Pauline discourse of identity and sameness as the difference that can be neither fully assimilated nor fully ejected a conclusion with important implications not only for early Christian history but also for feminist and queer philosophy and theology Faulkner in America Ann J. Abadie, 2001 Visuality in the Theatre

M. Bleeker, 2008-04-17 This book presents an exploration of the under explored terrain of visuality demonstrating the use of new theoretical insights into vision for the analysis of theatre and performance and simultaneously shows theatre and performance to be an excellent theoretical object for exploring the cultural historical and embodied character of visuality

Materialist Film Peter Gidal, 2013-12-13 A polemical introduction to the avant garde and experimental in film including making and viewing Materialist Film is a highly original thought provoking book Thirty seven short chapters work through a series of concepts which will enable the reader to deal imaginatively with the contradictory issues produced by experimental film Each concept is explored in conjunction with specific films by Andy Warhol Malcolm LeGrice Lis Rhodes Jean Luc Goddard Rose Lowder Kurt Kren and others Peter Gidal draws on important politico aesthetic writings and uses some of his own previously published essays from Undercut Screen October and Millennium Film Journal to undertake this concrete process of working through abstract concepts Originally published in 1989
