Sexuality And War Literary Masks Of The Middle East:

Sexuality and War Evelyne Accad,1992-05 In this text the author explores what she argues is an indissoluble link between war and sexuality She explores the connections among sexuality war nationalism pacifism violence love and power as they relate to the body the partner the family political ideologies and religion Sexuality in the Arab World Samir Khalaf,John Gagnon,2014-05-13 Arab cultural discourse has been slow to respond to changing sexual behaviour The contributors to this collection pick up the slack ranging across such disciplines as literature history sociology and psychology Is Damascus the chastity capital of the Middle East where perceptions of wealth and class fuel female rivalries How do gay men cruise in Beirut How do young women in Tunis cope with both social pressures to become thin and family pressures to gain weight What do Lebanese creative writing students write about sexual practices versus public behaviour The fresh compelling research topics covered include masculinity and migration colonialism and sexual health fantasy and violence and domestic workers and sexual tensions Other people's sex lives have always been a source of fascination and nowhere more so than in the Middle East Ground breaking New Statesman Gender and Violence in the Middle East David Ghanim Ph.D.,2009-03-20 Gender and Violence in the Middle East argues that violence is fundamental to the functioning of the patriarchal gender structure that governs daily life in Middle Eastern societies Ghanim contends that the inherent violence of gender relations in the Middle East feeds the authoritarianism and political violence that plague public life in the region In this societal sense men as well as women may be said to be victims of the structural violence inherent in Middle Eastern gender relations The author shows that the varieties of physical violence against women for which the Middle East is notorious honor killings obligatory beatings female genital mutilation are merely eruptions of an ethos of psychological violence and the threat of physical violence that pervades gender relations in the Middle East Ghanim documents and analyzes the complementary roles of both sexes in sustaining the system of violence and oppressive control that regulates gender relations in Middle Eastern societies He reveals that women are not only victims of violence but welcome the opportunity to become perpetrators of violence in the married female life cycle of subordination followed by domination The mother in law plays a crucial role in supporting the structure of patriarchal control by stoking tensions with her daughter in law and provoking her son to commit sanctioned violence on his wife The author applies his deep analysis of gender and violence in the Middle East to illuminate the motivational profiles of male and female political suicidalists from the Middle East and the martyrological adulation that they are accorded in Middle Eastern societies Blackness and Disability Christopher M. Bell,2012-02-01 Disability Studies diverge from the medical model of disability which argues that disabled subjects can and should be fixed to view disability as socially constructed much in the same way other identities are The work of reading black and disabled bodies is not only recovery work but work that requires a willingness to deconstruct the systems that would keep those bodies in separate spheres This pivotal volume uncovers the misrepresentations of black disabled bodies and demonstrates how those bodies transform systems and culture Drawing on key themes in Disability Studies and African American Studies these collected essays complement one another in interesting and dynamic ways to forge connections across genres and chronotopes an invitation to keep blackness and disability in conversation With an analysis of disability as a result of war studies of cognitive impairment and slavery in fiction representations of slavery and violence in photography deconstructions of illness cancer and AIDS narratives comparative analyses of black and Latina o and black and African subjects analysis of treatments of disability in hip hop and commentary on disability blackness and war this volume shows that the historical lines of demarcation in this field are permeable and should be challenged
