Sexy Europe:

Theatre and Performance in Eastern Europe Dennis Barnett, Arthur Skelton, 2008 The fall of communism throughout Eastern Europe brought about major socio political changes towards the end of the 20th century Dennis Barnett and Arthur Skelton explore the effects these changes had on theatre and performance in Russia the former Czechoslovakia Poland Hungary Romania Bulgaria and the former Yugoslavia while drawing clear parallels with theatre globally This fascinating collection of articles describes the various factors contributing to the changes in theatrical performance including the important move from government control to a capitalist market driven environment The idea of art as business and a consumer product vs art as a social prerogative or means for national dialogue is a common thread throughout the articles many of which also look at the role of censorship during the communist era This collection includes updated reports on vital cultural institutions such as the Moscow Art Theatre the Bolshoi Ballet the Sarajevo International Theatre Festival MESS and the Hungarian National Theatre Festival at Pcs Also a number of important theatre practitioners directors and playwrights such as Boris Eifman Du an Kovacevic Slobodan najder Arpad Goncz and Yordan Radichkov are introduced to the Western reader Organized according to country the book presents both an inclusive and general overview of the subject as well as specific in depth examinations of the situations in each country and includes a broad variety of perspectives from native scholars to outside researchers from personal memoirs to academic inquiries The volume concludes with a bibliography an index and five informative appendixes listing works of some of the artists and companies discussed

Europe on a G-String L. A. Florrie, 2021-03-23 When three friends decide to throw caution to the wind quit their full time jobs and travel through Europe for six months they visualised an adventure they would never forget And they weren t wrong More than three decades later they were still gas bagging about the absurd situations they found themselves in From Brisbane to London via the Greek Islands and other intoxicating European countries to boot their looming escapade would become the topic of conversation for the rest of their lives Chained to their dreary office desks since school Brooke Claire and Lucy had finally had enough of the corporate world Existing like caged birds Monday to Friday was no longer an option It was time for them to spread their dormant wings and take flight Two Geminis and a Capricorn made an interesting travel combination but when you re friends till the end it doesn t matter what star sign you are unless of course you re a Capricorn with Cancer rising and decide to give it all away in Venice because you fear for your life The road to Utopia was never meant to be easy but when you re filled with hopes and dreams who cares if you meet some oddballs along the way From Greek Gods to Italian models From a repulsive sex crazed Yugoslavian taxi driver to an irresistible Serbian ex con From brushes with the Police in Venice to French thieves on the Metro in Paris not to mention more than a few shady characters in between this would certainly be a trip they would never forget So if you re looking for fun under the European sun not to mention some unabashed sex and romance to spice up your every day life grab your passport book a ticket and join us on our trip of a lifetime The European Union and Party Politics in Central and Eastern Europe P. Lewis,Z. Mansfeldová,2006-10-30 This book examines the influence of the EU on party politics in the ten new EU countries from a variety of perspectives and using a range of empirical sources The book thus makes an original and distinctive contribution both to contemporary EU studies and to the literature on CE party systems and party development *Catalog of Copyright Entries. The Hidden Europe Francis Tapon,2012 For many Westerners Eastern Europe is about as appealing as a deodorant free French armpit That didn t scare Francis Tapon because not only did he learn how to rough it by walking across America four times but he is also half French so he kind of smells too Francis spent nearly 3 years travelling and backpacking in 25 Eastern European countries It started with a 5 month trip in 2004 He returned in 2008 to spend 3 years exploring all the countries again The Hidden Europe is Book Two of the WanderLearn Series At Europe's Edge Cetta Mainwaring,2019-09-05 The Mediterranean Sea is now the deadliest region in the world for migrants Although the death toll has been rising for many years the EU response remains fragmented and short sighted Politicians frame these migration flows as an unprecedented crisis and emphasize migration control at the EU s external boundaries In this context At Europe s Edge investigates why the EU prioritizes the fortification of its external borders why migrants nevertheless continue to cross the Mediterranean and to die at sea and how EU member states on the southern periphery respond to their new role as migration gatekeepers The book addresses these questions by examining the relationship between the EU and Malta a small state with an outsized role in migration politics as EU policies place it at the crosshairs of migration flows and controls The chapters combine ethnographic methods with macro level analyses to weave together policymaker practitioner and migrant experiences and demonstrate how the Mediterranean is an important space for the contested construction of Europe This book provides rich insight into the unexpected level of influence Malta exerts on EU migration governance as well as the critical role migrants and their clandestine journeys play in animating EU and Maltese migration policies driving international relations and producing Malta's political power. By centring on the margins the book pushes the boundaries of our knowledge of the global politics of migration, asylum and border security.

Multilingual Encounters in Europe's Institutional Spaces Johann W. Unger, Michal Krzyzanowski, Ruth Wodak, 2014-02-27

Multilingual encounters have been commonplace in many types of institutions and have become an essential part of supranational institutions such as the EU since their inception. This volume explores and discusses different ways of researching the discursive dimension of these encounters and critically examines their relevance to policy, politics and society as a whole. This includes institutions at the local, regional and supranational level. Multilingualism in institutions is currently often seen as an obstacle rather than an opportunity at least with respect to European public and private spheres. The volume asks exactly how is multilingualism conceptualized and talked about in different institutions, how do different institutions deal with multilingualism both internally and externally, what are the policy making rules and challenges for the future for various institutions with respect to multilingualism.
