perspectives on Pop's heterogeneity. Featuring an array of rigorous chapters written by both acclaimed experts and emerging scholars, this anthology transcends the borders of individual and national contexts and suspends hierarchies, creating a space for the work of artists like Andy Warhol and the women of the Black Arts Movement to converse. It casts an inclusive look at the intersectional complexities of difference in Pop at a moment that gave rise to a plethora of radical social movements and identity politics. While this book introduces revelatory non-canonical artists into the Pop context or amplifies the careers of others, it is not limited to the confines of fine art. Chapters explore the intersecting variables of oppression and liberation in rituals of youth subcultures as well as practices across media with Pop sources and parallels ranging from Native American objects, Harlem advertisements and Cordell literature to stand-up comedy, music, fashion and design. Pop Art and Beyond thus widens the conversation about what Pop was and what it can be for current art in its struggle for social justice and critiques of power.

Word & Image in Colonial and Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures, 2009-01-01

Verbal imagery and visual images as well as the intricate relationships between verbal and visual representations have long shaped the imagination and the practice of intercultural relationships. The contributions to this volume take a fresh look at the ideology of form, especially the gendered and racial implications of the gaze and the voice in various media and intermedial transformations. Analyses of how culturally specific forms of visual and verbal expression are individually understood and manipulated complement reflections on the potential and limitations of representation. The juxtaposition of visual and verbal signifiers explores the gap between them as a space beyond cultural boundaries. Topics treated include Caliban, English satirical iconotexts, Oriental travel writing and illustration, expatriate description and picturesque illustration of Edinburgh, ethnographic film, African studio photography, South African cartoons, imagery, ekphrasis and race in South African art and fiction, face and visibility, representation and memory in Asian fiction, Bollywood, Asian historical film, Asian British pop music, Australian landscape in painting and fiction, indigenous children's fiction from Aotearoa, New Zealand, Canada and the USA, Canadian photography, Native Americans in film. Writers and artists discussed include Philip Kwame Apagya, the Asian Dub Foundation, Breyten Breytenbach, Richard Burton, Peter Carey, Gurinder Chadha, Daniel Chodowiecki, J. M. Travel & See Kobena Mercer, 2016-02-04

Over the years Kobena Mercer has critically illuminated the visual innovations of African American and black British artists. In Travel & See he presents a diasporic model of criticism that gives close attention to aesthetic strategies while tracing the shifting political and cultural contexts in which black visual art circulates. In eighteen essays which cover the period from 1992 to 2012 and discuss such leading artists as Isaac Julien, Renée

Green Kerry James Marshall and Yinka Shonibare Mercer provides nothing less than a counternarrative of global contemporary art that reveals how the dialogical principle of cross cultural interaction not only has transformed commonplace perceptions of blackness today but challenges us to rethink the entangled history of modernism as well
