Antarctica in British Children's Literature Sinead Moriarty,2020-11-29 For over a century British authors have been writing about the Antarctic for child readers yet this body of literature has never been explored in detail Antarctica in British Children's Literature examines this field for the first time identifying the dominant genres and recurrent themes and tropes while interrogating how this landscape has been constructed as a wilderness within British literature for children The text is divided into two sections Part I focuses on the stories of early twentieth century explorers such as Robert F Scott and Ernest Shackleton Antarctica in British Children's Literature highlights the impact of children's literature on the expedition writings of Robert Scott including the influence of Scott's close friend author J M Barrie The text also reveals the important role of children's literature in the contemporary resurgence of interest in Scott's long term rival Ernest Shackleton Part II focuses on fictional narratives set in the Antarctic including early twentieth century whaling literature adventure and fantasy texts contemporary animal stories and environmental texts for children Together these two sections provide an insight into how depictions of this unique continent have changed over the past century reflecting transformations in attitudes towards wilderness and wild landscapes

Ernest Shackleton Virginia Loh-Hagan,2018-01-01 Could you survive being stranded in the Antarctic Ernest Shackleton Survival in the Antarctic in the True Survival series explores Shackleton's shocking survival story The book is written with a high interest level and lower level of complexity to serve more mature students reading at lower levels Clear visuals colorful photographs including images of the survivors and considerate text help with comprehension and wild facts hold the readers interest from the first page to the last A table of contents glossary and index all enhance comprehension and vocabulary

Ice Trap! Meredith Hooper,M. P. Robertson,2000 Sir Ernest Shackleton's ship Endurance has been crushed by the ice Shackleton wanted to be the first to walk across the Antarctic continent Now he and his 27 men are stranded on the ice floes in the middle of the frozen ocean Courageously they begin planning their escape No one can rescue them They will have to save themselves
