New Jersey. Department of Conservation and Development, Alfred Gaskill, 1918 Shade Trees for North Carolina (Classic Reprint) William Willard Ashe, 2017-09-16 Excerpt from Shade Trees for North Carolina Shade trees should be regarded as a necessity on the streets of the cities and towns of North Carolina They lessen the heat and glare of the long hot summer days without checking the cooling southern breezes and filter from the air a large portion of the dust which rises from the streets and roads Nor must their aesthetic qualities be overlooked Towns fortunate enough to have shaded parks and streets bordered with neatly kept rows of trees possess an intrinsic asset Many towns in North Carolina derive a large portion of their income from summer or winter visitors and the street tree contributes not a little to producing the conditions most agreeable to these guests About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Shade-Trees in Towns and Cities William Solotaroff, 2015-07-03 Excerpt from Shade Trees in Towns and Cities Their Selection Planting and Care as Applied to the Art of Street Decoration Their Diseases and Remedies Their Municipal Control and Supervision During the last few years there has been a remarkable growth of interest in the planting of trees for ornament and shade In an editorial of February 10 1909 the Savannah News remarked The increasing interest in shade trees in practically all of the cities of the country is worthy of more than a passing notice This interest seems to be keeping abreast of the sanitary reforms that are being inaugurated While it isn't stated that there is a connection between tree planting and hygienic reforms there is no doubt that shade trees contribute to the healthfulness of a city The shade trees have a restful effect because making homes more attractive That which tends to give rest and pleasure must also contribute to healthfulness The awakening of interest in tree planting has been followed by the development of the movement for shade tree departments in towns and cities The Shade Tree Commission of East Orange N J organized in the spring of 1904 was the third in the State There are now thirty one towns and cities in New Jersey that have such departments The work of the Shade Tree Commissions of Newark and East Orange especially has proved very successful and during the last few years there have come to these departments hundreds of requests from different parts of the country for information regarding methods of work and forms of organization The cities of New Jersey may have inspired others About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may
