Richard Cooper (Television writer)

Shadow Of The Noose:

Shadow of the Noose Richard Cooper (Television writer), 1989 Novel based on the historical crime case of Marie Hermann Great Britain 1894 and the life and career of her defense attorney Edward Marshall Hall Shadow of a Noose Wes Yancey, 197? Hitchcock, Second Edition William Rothman, 2012-08-20 First published in 1982 William Rothman's Hitchcock is a classic work of film criticism Written in an engaging style that is philosophically sophisticated yet free of jargon and using over nine hundred images from the films to illustrate and back up its critical claims the book follows six different Hitchcock films as they unfold moment by moment from first shot to last In addition to a thoughtful new preface and the original readings of The Lodger 1927 Murder 1930 The 39 Steps 1935 Shadow of a Doubt 1943 and Psycho 1960 this expanded edition includes a groundbreaking new chapter now the book's longest on Marnie 1964 Hitchcock's most heartfelt yet most controversial film Hitchcock never tired of quoting Oscar Wilde's line And all men kill the thing they love Dark moods therefore prevail in the five original chapters culminating in the reading of Psycho but in demonstrating how Marnie overcomes or transcends the murderous aspect of Hitchcock's art this new chapter balances the scales and gives an important new dimension to the book With exemplary precision Hitchcock Second Edition shows how Hitchcock films express cinematically serious thoughts about such matters as the nature and relationships of love murder sexuality marriage and theater and about their own medium In so doing it keeps faith with the idea that Hitchcock was a master perhaps the master of what he called the art of pure cinema However insofar as it investigates philosophically the conditions of authorship in the medium of film it is an auteurist study unlike any other By attending to the films themselves and to the ways we experience them rather than allowing some theory to dictate what to say about them the book proves the fruitfulness of an approach that is open and responsive to the ways serious films are capable of teaching us how to think seriously about them Shadow of the Noose Richard Cooper, 1989 Hitchcock's British Films Maurice Yacowar, 2010 In this traditional auteurist examination of Hitchcock's early work author Maurice Yacowar considers Hitchcock's British films in chronological order reading the composition of individual shots and scenes in each and paying special attention to the films' verbal effects The Arena, 1890 The Disappearing Christ Phil Maciak, 2019-08-27 At the turn of the twentieth century American popular culture was booming with opportunities to see Jesus Christ From the modernized eyewitness gospel of Ben Hur to the widely circulated passion play films of Edison Lumière and Path from D.W. Griffith's conjuration of a spectral white savior in Birth of a Nation to W.E.B. Du Bois's Black Christ story cycle Jesus was constantly and inventively visualized across media and especially in the new medium of film Why in an era traditionally defined by the triumph of secular ideologies and institutions were so many artists rushing to film Christ's miracles and use his story and image to contextualize their experiences of modernity In The Disappearing Christ Phillip Maciak examines filmic depictions of Jesus to argue that cinema developed as a model technology of secularism training viewers for belief in a secular age Negotiating between the magic trick and the documentary image the conflicting impulses of faith and skepticism the emerging aesthetic of film in this period visualized the fraught process of secularization Cinematic depictions of an appearing and disappearing Christ became a powerful vehicle for Americans to navigate a rapidly modernizing society Studying these films alongside a multimedia interdisciplinary archive of novels photographs illustrations and works of theology travel writing and historiography The Disappearing Christ offers a new narrative of American cultural history at the intersection of cinema studies and religious studies Missing Ian W.
