M. Willard, 1924 THE RETURN Anthony M. Corelli, 2025-03-04 Pastor Anthony Corelli has been struggling with feelings of impending doom The last several months of his life have been tragic to say the least He has witnessed evil that would cause most people to lose their sanity Deliverance ministry has always taken a toll on him but this is different He can't help but feel like Satan and his demons have been stepping up their game He knows that God has called him to this line of work but deep down inside he is hoping God will call him to a different ministry Just when Anthony is starting to feel like himself he is visited by a demon warning him to stay away from his hometown of Pueblo Colorado The warning shakes him to the core Right then he receives a call from a childhood friend asking for help with a possible possession Deep down inside Anthony knows that this has the potential to be his most dangerous case to date When Anthony and his team arrive it is clear that this is a legitimate case of possession Unfortunately it doesn't take long for things to get complicated Each time that he tries to exorcise the demon a neighborhood tragedy gets in the way The demon seems content in making Anthony relive his childhood pain as he gets closer to the truth A murderer on the loose a series of mysterious deaths and a complicated demonic scheme keep him from helping the Clementi family Anthony's strong faith and his desire to help the lost keep him from giving up when the task seems insurmountable The demons and their well orchestrated plan seem unstoppable Without God there is no hope Just like The Struggle and The Sacrifice The Return is full of countless twists and turns that will force you to rethink your theories and theology on God demons and the paranormal The ending will blindside you as well as have you sleeping with the lights on The love and grace of God will overcome but not without a cost A new group of skeptics will become believers Believers will be forced to stop riding the fence An entire town will be touched by an ancient evil that wants nothing more than to kill steal and destroy The love of Jesus comes to seek and save the lost in this terrifying tale of good versus evil Everyone involved will know the cost of living in The Struggle The Storyteller's Shadows Bill Reed, 2018-03-03 In a volume containing 14 original plays including three shadow play adaptations of Gogol Morton and
