Charlotte Perkins Gilman's "The Yellow Wall-paper" and the History of Its Publication and Reception Julie Bates Dock, 1998-02-27 Since its publication in 1892 Charlotte Perkins Gilman's The Yellow Wall paper has always been recognized as a powerful statement about the victimization of a woman whose neurasthenic condition is completely misdiagnosed mistreated and misunderstood leaving her to face insanity alone as a prisoner in her own bedroom Never before however has the story itself been portrayed as victimized In this first critical edition of Gilman's The Yellow Wall paper accompanied by contemporary reviews and previously unpublished letters Julie Bates Dock examines the various myth frames that have been used to legitimize Gilman's story The editor discusses how modern feminist critics readings and misreadings of the available documents uphold a set of legends that originated with

Gilman herself and that promulgate an almost saintly view of the pioneering feminist author The documents made available in the collection enable scholars and students to evaluate firsthand Gilman's claims regarding the story's impact on its first audiences Dock presents an authoritative text of The Yellow Wall paper for the first time since its initial publication Included are a textual commentary full descriptions of all relevant texts lists of editorial emendations and pre copy text substantive variants a complete historical collation that documents all the variants found in important editions after 1892 and a listing of textual sources for more than one hundred reprintings of the story in anthologies and textbooks Other documents in the casebook that illuminate the story's publication and reception histories include Gilman's successive and varying accounts of the story's history her diary and manuscript log entries and letters pertaining to the story W D Howells's correspondence with Gilman and Horace Scudder editor of The Atlantic Monthly and his remarks on the story when he reprinted it in Great American Short Stories and more than two dozen reviews of the story by Gilman's contemporaries Taken together the criticism text documents and annotations constitute a rich and valuable contribution to Gilman scholarship calling into question the feminist literary criticism that has helped to shape interpretations of a literary masterpiece

Murphy,2015-08-20 Persuasive Aesthetic Ecocritical Praxis continues Patrick D Murphy s focus on transversal

ecocritical praxis by considering literature and cinema in terms of the persuasive force of aesthetic activity and whether or not artistic production and its criticism can be considered forms of activism Murphy argues that literature and other forms of aesthetic production hold out the promise of being able to move some individuals deeply through both affective and intellectual engagement in ways that facilitate ideological reflection To analyze aesthetic production ecocritically requires a transversal orientation in order to work continuously at accommodating a vast array of often seemingly disparate perspectives disciplines and contextual information as well as the ever changing thematic plot setting and contextual elements of the aesthetic works under consideration and the responses of changing audiences through time and across cultures Murphy demonstrates this approach through presenting theories of transversality and applying them with attention to issues of propaganda agitation and persuasion both in terms of artistic production and the criticism of such production He also brings an ecofeminist orientation to the fore with particular attention to the gendered economic aspects of environmental issues in an age of land grabs and plantation economies Along the way he treats a wide range of literary works films and miniseries In American literature he discusses realist and science fiction works from Susan Fenimore Cooper's Rural Hours to Paolo Bacigalupi's The Windup Girl Barbara Kingsolver's Flight Behavior to Kim Stanley Robinson's 2312 and Ana Castillo's So Far from God to Leslie Marmon Silko's Gardens in the Dunes In international literature he analyzes Mo Yan's The Garlic Ballads Jiang Rong's Wolf Totem Michiko Ishimure's The Lake of Heaven Miyuki Miyabe's All She Was Worth and other novels The book concludes with a reading of Ernest Callenbach's Ecotopia and Ecotopia Emerging an Afterword recommending further directions for transversal ecocritical research an and interview that discusses Murphy's previous book Transversal Ecocritical Praxis and provides some personal background on the author
