Hara's Hope Ms. Racquel O'Hara Odale Nembhard, 2014-04-04 Creation stood still for this solemn assembly The Great Meeting to unfold Heaven's redemption was about to begin My People Christ The King spoke You are about to enter the unfamiliar a world of hindrances darkness oppression and seemingly constant warfare Some will become lost and disheartened as you habitate this realm with The My ABC Book of Cancer, 1991-02 Ten year old Shannon Chamberlain describes in ABC format her bout with cancer Concludes with a discussion of childhood cancer suggested reading list glossary and resource guide

The Palgrave Handbook of Disabled Children's Childhood Studies Katherine Runswick-Cole, Tillie Curran, Kirsty Liddiard, 2017-11-05 Disabled children's lives have often been discussed through medical concepts of disability rather than concepts of childhood Western understandings of childhood have defined disabled children against child development norms and have provided the rationale for segregated or special welfare and education provision In contrast disabled children's childhood studies begins with the view that studies of children's impairment are not studies of their childhoods Disabled children's childhood studies demands ethical research practices that position disabled children and young people at the centre of the inquiry outside of the shadow of perceived norms The Palgrave Handbook of Disabled Children's Childhood Studies will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines as well as practitioners in health education social work and youth work

The Book of My Son Reuben David Cohen, 2023-06-23 I wish I had not had to write this book because then my lovely son Reuben would still be alive says David Cohen He was adorable formidably intelligent a loving son a loving brother He died far too young He had the bad luck to have two grandparents who had addictive personalities His efforts to resist the lure of drugs failed And so did I The Book of My Son Reuben is a personal account of how psychologist David Cohen coped and did not cope with the death of his son Reuben Offering a unique perspective on the experience of parental loss it offers a personal and analytical exploration of sorrow and guilt and of what research tells us about trauma and grief Illustrated throughout with David Cohen's personal insight into how he continues to navigate his loss this honest book provides a deeper understanding of loss for parents who have experienced it as well as those who support them The book remembers the many parents who have lost children throughout history and chapters weave personal perspectives with the latest research It examines the experience of sudden deaths the failures of society in preventing children from dying the role of social media how the loss of a child impacts fathers siblings and relationships and the usefulness or otherwise of bereavement therapies A tribute to Reuben's life this sensitive volume is for those who have experienced loss and want to gain better understanding of their experience as well as psychologists psychotherapists and counsellors working with families

200 Women Geoff Blackwell, Ruth Hobday, 2017-10-31 200 incredible women 126 hours of interviews 16 000 photographs 5 questions A snapshot of female life around the globe This book includes interviews with 200 women from a variety of backgrounds takes you on a journey that's heartbreaking and uplifting. Each woman shares her unique reply to the same five questions: What really matters to you? What brings you happiness? What do you regard as the lowest depth of misery? What would you change if you could? and Which single word do you most identify with? The variety of answers offers gifts of empowerment and strength, inviting us to bring positive change at a time when so many are fighting for basic freedom and equality. Interviewees include Jane Goodall, conservation and animal welfare activist; Margaret Atwood, author and winner of The Booker Prize; Roxane Gay, author and feminist; Renée Montagne, former host of NPR's Morning Edition; Alicia Garza, activist and co-founder of Black Lives Matter; Alfre Woodard, award-winning actor and activist; Marian Wright Edelman, head of the Children's Defense Fund; Lydia Ko, professional golfer and Olympian; Dolores Huerta, labor activist, community organizer, and co-founder of the National Farm Workers Association; Alice Waters, chef, author, and food rights advocate; Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, author and MacArthur Foundation fellow. Each interview is accompanied by a photographic portrait, resulting in a volume that is compelling in word and image and global in its scope and resonance. This landmark book is published to coincide with an interactive website building on this remarkable ever-evolving project. 200 Women reminds us that there are no ordinary women. Makes a wonderful birthday, graduation, going-away gift, or coffee-table gift for every woman to encourage personal growth. An empowering book for women, teen girls, or anyone looking for inspiration from luminaries across the world.

Lost Without My Children Lelia Alvarez, 2010-03 A grieving mother wanting to share her real-life experience about the mysterious and sudden deaths of her children. Dealing with the mysterious death of her healthy three-month-old baby girl and trying to find out the cause has been a mystery for over twenty-five years. Waking up on morning to find that her baby girl is dead was such a tremendous harrowing experience to deal with and to have her children witness the death was unbearable. After twelve years as a single mother, she finds the man of her dreams, having someone to stand by her side. Her dream was to become a grandmother; she was delighted with joy when her son became a father until her dream was shattered. She gets a call in the middle of the night that her son has died. Grief-stricken with tragedy for the second time, she can't understand why her wish was granted: being blessed with a precious grandson at a price of losing her son. After her son's death, she is faced with so many legal problems hitting her all at once; she is so distressed trying to survive without her son. She becomes so angry and bitter, fearing of losing her only child, sinking into a deep depression and refusing to give in. Grieving mother decides to write a book, being the most hardest and emotional job she's ever had, but she is determined to finish with a goal to share her experience with families that have lost their children. There is nothing no one can say that will ease our pain; only the ones that have experienced this horrible ordeal can relate to our pain. She will forever treasure the short time her children were in her life but will forever be lost without them.
