Scotland, 1818 The Complete Works of Robert Burns Robert Burns and Allan Cunningham, 2012-02-01 This is a high quality book of the original classic edition It was previously published by other bona fide publishers and is now finally back in print This is a freshly published edition of this culturally important work which is now at last again available to you Enjoy this classic work These few paragraphs distill the contents and give you a quick look inside If I am unable to share in the hesitation expressed by one of them on the authorship of the stanzas on Pastoral Poetry I can at least share in the feelings with which they have intruded into the charmed circle of his poetry such compositions as Lines on the Ruins of Lincluden College Verses on the Destruction of the Woods of Drumlanrig Verses written on a Marble Slab in the Woods of Aberfeldy and those entitled The Tree of Liberty the composition of Shenstone and which is to be found in the church yard of Hales Owen as it is not included in every edition of that poet's acknowledged works Burns who was an admirer of his genius had it seems copied it with his own hand and hence my error When I have stated that I have arranged the Poems the Songs and the Letters of Burns as nearly as possible in the order in which they were written that I have omitted no piece of either verse or prose which bore the impress of his hand nor included any by which his high reputation would likely be impaired I have said all that seems necessary to be said save that the following letter came too late for insertion in its proper place it is characteristic and worth a place anywhere Most of the songs which he composed under the influences to which I have alluded are of the first order Bonnie Lesley Highland Mary Auld Rob Morris Duncan Gray Wandering Willie Meg o the Mill The poor and honest sodger Bonnie Jean Phillis the fair John Anderson my Jo Had I a cave on some wild distant shore Whistle and I'll come to you my lad Bruce's Address to his men at Bannockburn Auld Lang Syne Thine am I my faithful fair Wilt thou be my dearie O Chloris mark how green the groves Contented with little and cantie with mair Their groves of sweet myrtle Last May a braw wooer came down the long glen O Mally's meek Mally's sweet Hey for a lass with a tocher like Here's a health to ane I love dear and the Fairest maid on Devon banks I cannot give to my country this edition of one of its favourite poets without stating that I have deliberately omitted several pieces of verse ascribed to Burns by other editors who too hastily and I think on insufficient testimony admitted them among his works If I am unable to share in the hesitation expressed by one of them on the authorship of the stanzas on Pastoral Poetry I can as little share in the feelings with which they have intruded into the charmed circle of his poetry such compositions as Lines on the Ruins of Lincluden College Verses on the Destruction of the Woods of Drumlanrig Verses written on a Marble Slab in the Woods of Aberfeldy and those entitled The Tree of Liberty These productions with the exception of the last were never seen by any one even in the handwriting of Burns and are one and all wanting in that original vigour of language and manliness of sentiment which distinguish his poetry With respect to The Tree of Liberty in particular a subject dear to the heart of the Bard can any one conversant with his genius imagine that he welcomed its growth or celebrated its fruit with such capon craws as these Upo this tree there grows sic fruit Its virtues a can tell man It raises man aboon the brute It mak s him ken himsel man Gif ance the peasant taste a bit He s greater than a lord man An wi a beggar shares a mite O a he can afford man
