Using Narrative Inquiry for Educational Research in the Asia Pacific Sheila Trahar, Wai Ming Yu, 2015-04-10 Narrative inquiry is being used more widely in the UK the USA Canada Australia New Zealand and Northern European countries to conduct research across a range of disciplines It is gaining popularity in Hong Kong Macao and Mainland China but research in these contexts continues to be dominated by quantitative and more traditional qualitative approaches Narrative inquirers in these areas can therefore find it problematic to have the value of their work acknowledged This book demonstrates creatively accessibly and rigorously the ways in which narrative inquiry as a methodological approach already more firmly established in Australia and New Zealand is gaining a foothold in other parts of the Asia Pacific region Contributors to the book write about their use of narrative inquiry in for example the Confucian heritage cultures CHC of Hong Kong Mainland China Singapore Macao and the Anglo Celtic cultures of Australia and New Zealand Chapters in the book include Creative Non Fiction Across Cultures in Asia Pacific Contexts Riding the Wave of Education Reform Using a Reflecting Team to Explore the Professional Identities of School Counsellors in Hong Kong Is the Silent Mode On Re searching Teachers Voices in Macao through Narrative Research Narrative Inquiry and the Exploration of Culture for Improving Teacher Education This book will appeal to researchers across all sectors of education in particular those who are exploring the use of qualitative research methods in their context Those interested in comparative education and cross cultural studies will also find this book valuable

Migration Stories Benjamin Gatling, 2025-09-09 Migrants and refugees stories have become an essential part of the public debate around immigration Benjamin Gatling edits interdisciplinary essays that bring together the distinct perspectives of researchers activists and policymakers to emphasize how these often siloed communities can use stories as social science data and advocacy tools Ranging from oral history projects to the asylum process to calls for decolonial justice the contributors analyses illuminate how migrants and refugees personal narratives influence both perceptions and policies Their merger of perspectives provides a nuanced understanding of migration and emphasizes the importance of how storytelling can foster empathy challenge stereotypes and drive social change At the same time the essays center migrants and refugees voices within public debates and in work done to humanize the reality they face Original and multifaceted Migration Stories provides a vital addition to how we study and frame immigration

On the Move: Home Is Where You Find It Michael Rosen, 2022-02-08 Some of Michael Rosen's relatives were lost before he was born in the Holocaust First he wondered about them And he wrote poems Next he searched for their stories And he wrote poems Then he found their stories And he wrote poems Now in a companion book to The Missing The True Story of My Family in World War II Michael Rosen has brought together forty nine of his most powerful poems exploring the themes of migration and displacement through the lens of his childhood in the shadow of World War II the lives of his relatives during that war and migration refugees and displacement today and tomorrow here there and everywhere Throughout atmospheric watercolors from master illustrator Quentin Blake evoke the hardship exhaustion isolation and companionship of being on the move Provided by publisher India Migration Report 2023 S Irudaya Rajan,2024-06-28 The India Migration Report 2023 Student Migration is one of the first books that attempts to comprehensively explore the various nuances of Indian international student migration factoring in multiple factors that influence the migration journey of Indian students It also looks into other migration stories including internal and international returnees various impacts of remittances and migration in the context of the pandemic This volume Inspects the factors driving the student migration from India accounting for both the historical and current happenings influencing these factors Following the pandemic the book highlights the challenges faced by Indian international students in accessing health care and other related services which goes on to push them into vulnerable situations Outlines the reasoning behind Indian students decision to emigrate and how families play an important role in influencing key migration decisions made by students and the different patterns of student migration observed in India Examines the employment challenges experienced particularly following the COVID 19 pandemic by the highly skilled Indian migrants and Indian international students Describes the role that recruitment and consultancy agencies play in international student mobility ISM and examines the intricate relationship between migrant agencies and migration facilitation Investigates the psychological economic and social challenges faced by Indian international students during their migration journey both during and after the completion of their course abroad Provides a critical overview of the conditions of both internal and international returnees to different parts of India Studies the impact of remittances on migrant households including their consumption patterns and human capital investment Analyses interstate migration networks through the prism of gender and critically assesses how gender migration patterns have altered throughout time Scholars students researchers academicians policymakers or anyone with an interest in migration migration politics economics social psychology migration policies development studies sociology social anthropology and gender studies will find this book on Indian student migration extremely informative The book is a comprehensive collection of various studies that look into the multiple aspects of student migration but also extend to other pertinent issues of Indian migration that are extremely relevant at this given point in time Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story Heather Ostman,Howard Tinberg,Danizete Martínez,2021-12-01 Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story explores the intersection between immigration and pedagogy via the narrative form Embedded in the contexts of both student writing and student reading of literature chapters by scholars from four year and two year colleges and universities across the country this book engages the topic of immigration within writing and literature courses as the site for extending critiquing and challenging assumptions about justice and equity while deepening students sense of ethics and humanity Each of the chapters recognizes the prevalence of immigrant students in writing classrooms across the United States including foreign born first and second generation Americans and more and the myriad opportunities and challenges those students present to their instructors These contributors have seen the validity in the stories and experiences these students bring to the classroom evidence of their lifetimes of complex learning in both academic and nonacademic settings Like thousands of college level instructors in the United States they have immigrant stories of their own The immigrant narrative offers a unique framework for knowledge production in which students and teachers may learn from each other in which the ordinary power dynamic of teacher and students begins to shift to enable empathy to emerge and to provide space for an authentic kind of pedagogy By engaging writing and literature teachers within and outside the classroom Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story speaks to the immigrant narrative as a viable frame for teaching writing an opportunity for building and articulating knowledge through academic discourse The book creates a platform for immigration as a writing and literary theme a framework for critical thinking and a foundation for significant social change and advocacy Contributors Tuli Chatterji Katie Daily Bruckner Libby Garland Silvia Giagnoni Sibylle Gruber John Havard Timothy Henderson Brennan Herring Lilian Mina Rachel Pate Emily Schnee Elizabeth Stone Handbook on Home and Migration Paolo Boccagni, 2023-06-01 This dynamic Handbook unpacks the entanglements between the two notions of home and migration which illuminate the lived experiences of in voluntary mobilities and the contested terrain of inclusion and belonging Drawing on cross disciplinary contributions from leading international scholars it advances research on the social study of home in relation to migration refugee displacement and diaspora studies This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Cultural Complexes in Australia Thomas Singer, 2023-12-29 Cultural Complexes in Australia Placing Psyche is the first in a series of books that will explore the notion of cultural complexes in a variety of settings around the world The continent of Australia is the focus of this inaugural volume in which the contributors elucidate how the unique geography and peoples of Australia interact and interpenetrate to create the particular mindscapes of the Australian psyche While the cultural complexes of Australia are explored with a keen eye to the specificity of place history context and content at the same time it becomes obvious that these cultural complexes emerge out of an archetypal background that is not just Australian but global This volume shows how cultural complex theory itself mediates between the particularity of place and the universality of archetypal patterns The Sexual Politics of Asylum Calogero Giametta, 2017-03-27 Today within neoliberal democracies gender and sexuality provisions give people the opportunity of being granted social and legal protection But how does the asylum system intervene within claimants understandings of themselves and in what ways does this affect their livelihoods in the country of arrival The Sexual Politics of Asylum emerges from a 2 year long ethnography which explores the experiences of 60 gender and sexual minority refugees in the UK Bringing previously unheard stories to the forefront this enlightening volume challenges dominant notions about the construction of sexuality and gender as an instrument for claiming rights in a world shaped by postcolonial relations Giametta first examines why the migratory experience of the studied migrants is located within a set of humanitarian inflected discourses that privilege suffering and trauma This is then followed by an assessment of the respondents biographical accounts which consequently uncovers how being situated in liminal socio political and legal interstices produces precarious forms of life Whilst the topic of asylum for gender and sexual minorities has attracted wide media coverage over the past decade there persists a lack of academic attention to the complex experiences of these refugees As such this timely book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in human rights sociology anthropology migration sexuality gender and cultural studies as well as people working within the refugee granting process Congressional Record United States. Desperately Seeking Asylum Helen T. Boursier,2019-11-19 Told through heart wrenching testimonies photographs and artwork of refugees fleeing their homelands Desperately Seeking Asylum describes firsthand accounts of the harrowing and dangerous journey immigrants are willing to endure knowing that they might not even make it onto US soil Desperately Seeking Asylum prioritizes the testimonies of refugee families and unaccompanied children who are seeking asylum in the United States from Central America primarily Guatemala El Salvador and Honduras Their desperate and heart wrenching stories disclose why they fled their homelands their experiences along the treacherous overland journey and the harsh reality of how the United States treats these families and children upon arrival to the United States It critiques US complicity to the violence they are fleeing and discloses how national leadership shapes US immigration policies and practices including the blatant documented violations against asylum seekers at the US Mexico border Most notably it offers transparency on US immigration practices at the US Mexico border which violate existing US and international laws that are intended to protect asylum seekers including the current official practice of blocking bridges with turnbacks to prevent inadmissibles from applying for asylum in the United States It explains protections mandated by US law for unaccompanied children who are in US custody and discloses violations which keep these children detained excessive lengths of time in substandard for profit facilities which are overseen by the government and funded by taxpayers Boursier also deconstructs the complicated asylum process including examining the credible fear for asylum procedure showing how technical terms and language are used to justify injustice at the border Desperately Seeking Asylum offers hope for a new vision with alternative options and practical actions which assist migrants through humanitarian aid on both sides of the border The witness for compassionate and responsible response by people of conscious becomes an antidote to injustice against asylum seekers Instead of the current administration manipulating US laws to support its ulterior motives and political agenda Boursier asks readers to hold US elected officials accountable to the same Rule of Law that the United States demands of refugees Ultimately Boursier suggests a spectrum of options for practical ways to make the political personal through public witness and civic engagement to transform the broken immigration process for refugees who are desperately seeking asylum Migrants of Identity Andrew Dawson,Nigel Rapport,2021-01-07 Global movement is commonly characterized as one of the quintessential experiences of our age Market forces territorial conflicts and environmental changes uproot an increasing number of people while mass communication travel tourism and a global market of commodities texts tastes fashions and ideologies place individuals more than ever in a global arena As traditional conceptions of individuals as members of stationary fixed and separate societies and cultures no longer convince to what extent does movement become central to individuals self conceptions How do people cultivate negotiate nurture and maintain an identity To what extent do individuals become migrants of identity whose home is movement Defining home as where one best knows oneself this pioneering book explores the various ways in which people perceive themselves to be at home in today s world Through a series of case studies authors show that for a world of travellers labour migrants exiles and commuters home comes to be found in behavioural routines and techniques in styles of dress and address in memories myths and stories in jokes and opinions In short people who live their lives in movement make sense of their lives as movement

Art Practices in the Migration Society Ivana Pilic, Anne Wiederhold-Daryanavard, Anne Wiederhold, 2021-03-15 The established cultural sector is facing a paradigm shift At the center of this change is the demand to do justice to the diversity of the population The handbook opens up strategies for implementing art practices that are critical of discrimination and for reaching new dialogue groups Successes in partnerships with unequal cultural institutions are analyzed and concrete strategies for action are shown on the basis of eleven documented productions Starting point are the insights from the artistic practice in Brunnenpassage Vienna founded in 2007 The handbook sets practice relevant impulses for cultural workers artists and cultural policy makers

Forced Migration and Sport Ramón Spaaij, Carla Luguetti, Nicola De Martini Ugolotti, 2023-10-17 This book aims to extend and deepen conversations among scholars policymakers and practitioners about the role of sport in relation to contexts and issues of forced migration The chapters in this volume critically analyse and interrogate the implications of existing approaches practices and research around sport and forced migration across five themes 1 participatory methodologies power voice and ethics 2 emotions and embodiment 3 gendered socio ecological and intersectional perspectives 4 critical perspectives on integration and intercultural communication and 5 fandom and media representations of forced migrants in elite sport It does so by engaging with complex yet necessary dialogues and perspectives that cross disciplinary boundaries and by not shying away from conceptual and ethical tensions that interrogate concepts methodologies policies and forms of representation regarding forced migrants experiences and contributions to global sporting cultures The book provides key contributions to advance critical scholarly analyses and inform applied interventions on the ground and will be beneficial to researchers and advanced students of Sports Sociology and Politics This book was originally published as a special issue of Sport in Society International Migration, Transnational Politics and Conflict Anastasia Bermudez, 2017-03-22 This book makes a timely contribution to debates surrounding transnational political participation the relationship between diasporas and conflict and the gendered experiences of migrants It fills a significant lacuna in research by analysing how migrants relate to and become involved in the politics of their home and host countries and how transnational political fields emerge and function The author achieves this by focusing on the little known but instructive case of Colombian migration to Europe and the connections between these flows and the armed conflict and efforts for peace in Colombia Shedding light on different types of migration and the rising complexity of international population movements this innovative work will appeal to students and scholars of migration and diaspora studies gender political participation conflict and peace studies and Latin American studies It will also interest policy makers and community development workers engaged in these areas Conflict and Forced Migration Gil Richard Musolf, 2019-10-21 This timely collection brings together a wide variety of contributors from scholars and a psychiatric social worker to former refugees who were resettled in the United States and a mural artist to explore the current face of migration conflict Refugees and Forced Migration in the Horn and Eastern Africa Johannes Dragsbaek Schmidt, Leah Kimathi, Michael Omondi Owiso, 2019-05-13 This volume sheds new light on the refugees and forced migration at the Horn of Africa and East Africa Adopting a multidisciplinary perspective it traces historical structural and geopolitical factors to reveal the often brutal uprooting of people in a region that hosts more than three million refugees and almost six million internally displaced persons IDPs By doing so it enriches our understanding of the socio economic geopolitical and humanitarian causes and implications of migration and population displacement The book is divided into five parts focusing on different drivers of involuntary displacement and people s uprooting The first part covers geopolitical conflicts rooted partly in the colonial and Cold War geographies The second part then focuses on security aspects and conflicts while the third looks at encampment and refugee policies as well as refugee agencies Part four highlights issues of forced repatriation and human trafficking Lastly part five analyzes the dynamics of refugee camps Interstate Migration United States.
