the core of this book A Question of Identity breaks new ground by drawing together eminent academics from a variety of disciplines including anthropology history law linguistics politics psychology and sociology to examine the way in which issues of identity have impacted on society and the way in which changes in society have resulted in a re evaluation of identity Topics covered include Britishness within the context of devolution language and identity religion gender and identity the political and legal problems of European citizenship elderly migrants and identity and German identity after reunification The book explores questions of identity in two sections British and global The main conclusion to be reached is that at any period of history the question of identity is complex composed of interacting facets which combine in larger or smaller proportions to create the whole be that individual group ethnic religious national or supranational This book sets out to identify some of the facets that contribute to the whole and by so doing answers some of the questions which are currently
