in the US media Howard Friel and Richard Falk reveal the persistent ways the New York Times has ignored principles of international law in order to shield its readers from Israel's lawlessness While the Times publishes dozens of front page stories and extensive commentary on the killings of Israelis it publishes very few such stories on the killings of Palestinians and mostly ignores the extensive documentation of massive violations of Palestinian human rights by the government of Israel Furthermore the Times regularly ignores or under reports a multitude of critical legal issues pertaining to Israel's policies including Israel's expropriation and settlement of Palestinian land the two tier system of laws based on national origin evocative of South Africa's apartheid regime the demolition of Palestinian homes and use of deadly force against Palestinians These journalistic practices have not only shielded the extent of Israel's transgressions from the American electorate which is Israel's main source of financial and military support it has severely diminished our understanding of the Middle East and of US foreign policy in general
