My Little Christmas Story Box:

Buckley's Story Ingrid King, 2009-09-28 Buckley's Story is the story of how one small cat changed the author's life in ways she never could have imagined. In this warm-hearted memoir, Ingrid King shares the story of Buckley, a joyful, enthusiastic, and affectionate tortoiseshell cat she meets while managing a veterinary hospital. When Ingrid leaves her job at the veterinary hospital to start her own business, Buckley comes home to live with her and Amber, another tortoiseshell cat who had adopted the author several years earlier. Buckley is diagnosed with heart disease after only two years of living with Ingrid, and caring for Buckley through her illness only deepens the bond between cat and human. Interspersed with well-researched information about cat health in general and heart disease in particular, the author describes the challenges and rewards of managing illness in a feline companion and ultimately helping her through the final transition. Ingrid shares both the day-to-day joys of living with a special cat as well as the profound grief that comes with losing a beloved animal companion. Buckley's Story is a celebration of the soul connection between animals and humans, a connection that is eternal and transcends the physical dimension. PRAISE FOR Buckley's Story Buckley's Story is a true celebration of the bond between pets and their humans. This story of a gimpy little tortoiseshell cat with a huge heart who changed her human's life in unexpected ways shows us how pets teach us universal lessons about living a joyful life, how caring for a terminally ill pet can deepen this special bond, and how to navigate the devastating grief that comes with losing a beloved animal companion. Dr. Marty Becker, America's Veterinarian and author of The Healing Power of Pets: Harnessing the Amazing Ability of Pets To Make and Keep People Happy and Healthy. Ingrid King loves animals, and in Buckley's Story she leads us through how these precious creatures, in particular one gimpy tortie named Buckley, can teach us how to open our hearts to the world. Clea Simon, author of The Feline Mystique: On the Mysterious Connection Between Women and Cats. For those of us who think or rather know that cats have a thing or two to teach us in this life, you'll appreciate Ingrid King's story about her cat Buckley. Megan McMorris, Editor, Cat Women: Female Writers on their Feline Friends. Have Yourself a Hamster Little Christmas Sarah Shell Teague, 2015-08-17 What makes a Christmas tree attractive? Where do Himalayan Persians, beagles, and hamsters fit into the Christmas scheme? How do pleasant, well-intentioned seasonal gestures such as decorating the house, baking cookies, sending Christmas cards, purchasing gifts, giving parties, and going to events become stress-inducing obligations? In Have Yourself a Hamster Little Christmas, author Sarah Shell Teague presents a collection of essays that describes the ups and downs of what can be a most hectic holiday season. From the activity at Grand Central Station in Manhattan to the solitude of the Grand Teton National Forest, and most of all, at her home in South Arkansas, Teague describes familiar yet comical aspects of the Christmas season. In her holiday mishaps, Teague relates how she nearly comes to blows with a Christmas tree farmer, an imaginary mountain lion, and a crowd intent on reveling at the annual parade. With humor, sensitivity, and faith, the stories in Have Yourself a Hamster Little Christmas provide the antidote for too much Christmas.

Slowing Time Barbara Mahany, 2014-10-07 Barbara Mahany believes the sacred is all around within finger's reach here to be gathered culled collected through the simple yet complex art of paying attention of savoring the moment of cultivating stillness Making room for the God and illuminating the Godly specks in the everyday Noticing the seen revealing the unseen and pinpointing the divine in both The book sifts through the terrain of three particular landscapes where the author most often encounters the stirrings of the Divine under heaven's dome on the front lines of the homefront and in the unspooling of the seasons The most essential prayer often is the life closely examined held up to the light By probing deeply the nooks and crannies of the home front the author points out that the reader need not venture far to find what matters most And the questions stirred will linger long after the page is turned
