My Many Coated Man:

A Many Coated Man Owen Marshall, 2014-10-31 What happens when an ordinary man becomes a messiah A witty prescient and eloquent satire by one of New Zealand's finest writers Far into the twenty first century Albous Slaven's life is spectacularly and irrevocably altered after he hangs for an instant from a power line While recuperating he senses a new found gift the gift of oratory Driven to hold rallies throughout New Zealand Slaven astounds and alarms the ruling politicians He too is astounded and often bemused by the response of the tens of thousands who flock to hear him But what is his message Is he a Messiah a political saviour or an idealist who conjures up forces he can neither understand nor control Shortlisted for the Montana Book Award for Fiction and described by Vincent O Sullivan as Delightfully sardonic philosophically mischievous this novel deftly and disconcertingly explores its characters lives in this lyrical picture of New Zealand

The Life and Loves of Laurie Lee Valerie Grove, 2014-06-19 Millions of readers know and love him for his lyrical portraits of his life from the moving and nostalgic tales of childhood and innocence found in the pages of Cider with Rosie to the nomadic wanderings through Spain retold in As I Walked Out One Midsummer Morning to his dramatic experiences fighting Franco's forces in A Moment of War As a poet playwright broadcaster and writer Laurie Lee created a legend around himself that would see him safely secured in the literary canon even within his own lifetime Yet though he wrote exclusively about his own life Lee never told the whole story His readers know him as a man devoted to two women his wife and his daughter the firstborn Among the pages of his published works there is little trace of the girls he left behind He never identified in print the girl who inspired him to go to Spain or the woman who supported him there He never named the beautiful mistress he came home to who was the great love of his young life and who led him into literary London bore his child and broke his heart In The Life and Loves of Laurie Lee acclaimed biographer Valerie Grove delves into the letters and diaries he kept hidden from the world building on her magisterial study of the charismatic poet to capture the essence of this romantic elusive enigma and bring him to life once more

Terranglia Joseph Jones, 1966 The Poetry of the Forties A. Trevor Tolley, 1985 Encyclopedia of British Writers Christine L. Krueger, 2014-07 This concise encyclopedic reference profiles more than 800 British poets The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors

National Union Catalog , 1970 Includes entries for maps and atlases , BWB Texts: Writers' Lives Martin Edmond, Maurice Gee, Kirsty Gunn, Owen Marshall, 2014-12-12 Award winning New Zealand writers Martin Edmond Maurice Gee Kirsty Gunn and Owen Marshall explore life and memory in this bundle of BWB Texts These four works are combined into one easy to read e book available direct and DRM free from our website or from international e book retailers Martin Edmond's Barefoot Years is a memoir in which the author attempts to re inhabit the lost domain of childhood Widely regarded as one of New Zealand's greatest fiction writers Maurice Gee has written virtually no non-fiction. The exceptions are the two exquisite childhood reminiscences combined in a mini memoir Creeks and Kitchens. In this exquisitely written notebook My Katherine Mansfield Project Kirsty Gunn explores the meaning of home in Thorndon. Owen Marshall reflects at length on his writing career and the forces that have shaped him as a writer in Tunes for Bears to Dance To. BWB Texts are short books on big subjects by great New Zealand writers. Commissioned as short digital first works, BWB Texts unlock diverse stories, insights, and analysis from the best of our past, present, and future New Zealand writing.

Tunes for Bears to Dance To Owen Marshall, 2014-12-04 I became aware of the fallibility of the real that the splendidly detailed objective world of sound and colours, shapes and textures was not completely opaque and that beneath it could be glimpsed the shimmer of things of great horror and ineffable joy. He is one of New Zealand's finest regional writers and a master of the short story, but despite his many accolades Owen Marshall continues to write under an assumed name. In this BWB Text Marshall reflects at length on his writing career, on the forces that have shaped him as a writer, on his intense admiration for Janet Frame, and on his decision to concentrate on the short story form.

English Literature Made Easy Dr. Prakash B. Teggihalli, 2021-08-14 Art is basically a creation which is the product of both the man and nature. Nature creates beautiful fleeting visitations like sunset, snowfall, gorgeous waterfalls, and strange creatures etc. So also man creates art in imitation of Nature in the form of fine arts. Literature is rather later growth compared to painting and music in the history of mankind. Literature is an art of writing by means of words. It has a direct link with life and its realities. Literature is nothing but the reflection of life. It deals with human hopes, aspirations, joys, sorrows, and conflicts. Nothing in the world comes so close to life as literature. In short, it holds a mirror up to life and society. Men of literature constantly in touch with social movements and strive hard to reform and correct the social mistakes and failures. So literature acquires human significance as Homer, Ovid, Cicero, Shakespeare, Milton, Carlyle, Tagore, Tolstoy, Rousseau, and Voltaire did in the previous generations to solve the problems of their contemporary society. English literature has its unique identity in World's literature. It has acquired more significance during the colonial world. It has become the major discipline of the study at both graduate and post-graduate level in almost all the Universities of the Globe. Millions of students and teachers constantly read and teach History of English literature in Higher education all over the world. Here an attempt has been made to simplify the History of English Literature keeping in mind the receptive and conceptual ability of the students. There is a critical analysis and a microscopic observation of each writer and their contextual relevance of the text. The Book sheds a light on the developments of each genre from Chaucer to T. S. Eliot. The stress is laid on major literary movements like Romanticism, Classicism, and Realism from the beginning to the end and simplified the concepts. So the content of the book is prepared to appeal the critical ability of the students and their urge to understand it for aesthetic pleasure as well as for competitive examinations. No doubt the book will satisfy the quest of students in gaining the better understanding of the subject clearly at ease. In writing this book I have leaned more or less heavily on almost all the existed literary sources and I acknowledge all these writers and publishers for their explicit reference in the body of the text Women Poets, Male Publishers Lise Jaillant, 2025-03-17 We are often told that the women's movement of the 1960s and 1970s led to the rediscovery of forgotten women writers Without feminist presses such as Virago these women would have sunk into obscurity Thanks to Carmen Callil and other trailblazing feminist publishers a canon of women's literature emerged and living writers managed to survive and sometimes thrive in a literary marketplace that had so far been dominated by men Although obstacles remained the story is one of the triumphs over a misogynistic publishing industry a sector that had once sought to erase women writers of the past marginalise living authors and close the doors to any future legacy There are two problems with this oft repeated story First it focuses mainly on fiction rather than poetry founded in 1973 Virago did not start publishing poetry until the early 1980s Second it neglects the major role that conservative male publishers played in re-discovering women poets in post 1960s Britain With the growing influence of the Women's Liberation movement these publishers realised that there was a growing market for poetry by women At the same time the Arts Council of Great Britain started pushing for more diversity nudging its clients to make more room for women and ethnic minorities Drawing on extensive archival work and oral history interviews this open access book pushes the boundaries of a scholarship that has focused mainly on women's poetry in relation to women's presses Archival documents show the influence of the Arts Council and the market in pushing conservative publishers towards more diversity This evolution has had long term consequences on the canon of women's poetry a canon that was largely shaped by conservative publishing houses rather than radical feminist presses My Many-coated Man Laurie Lee, 1976 The Author's Cut Owen Marshall, 2021-06-16 Chosen by the author from his thirteen previous collections this latest selection of stories includes Coming Home in the Dark the inspiration for a new feature film Owen Marshall is regarded as one of our finest living writers His stories capture the imagination and refuse to let go From dark to funny acerbic to warm they probe our national psyche with clear-eyed insight This selection from a long career ranges across New Zealand and ventures overseas the pieces explore both cruelty and love they look back to childhood and also capture the world we live in today Full of unexpected turns lyrical writing wry observations and intriguing plots this sampling offers a provocative take on New Zealand I very much envy his ability to lay things down in such a way that each one has its natural weight and place without any straining and heaving Maurice Gee Sport Owen Marshall has established himself as one of the masters of the short story Livres Hebdo Paris Musical Settings of Late Victorian and Modern British Literature Bryan N. S. Gooch, David S. Thatcher, Odean Long, 1976 Sylph's Demon A. R.
