My Memoirs 1st Edition:

My Memoirs Judge Alphonso A. Christian, 2023-04-28 Many may think that 1917 and 2017 do not have much in common. Though times have changed, what is essential often stays the same. These memoirs are a thrilling narrative of Alphonso A. Christian, a barefoot boy in the most remote and undeveloped district of the United States Virgin Islands. He never had the opportunity to attend a university. He defied the odds to rise to be a judge, a commissioner, and an executive secretary of the Virgin Islands Legislature, one of the most influential United States Virgin Islands legislature positions. Alphonso A. Christian is one of the very few who served in all three branches of government. A Renaissance man, an autodidact, polymath, he taught himself three languages, never forgetting to stand grounded in family by caring for his wife and six children. Chapter after chapter allows Alphonso through his life experiences to tell a local story affected to its core by national and at times international life-changing events. He catches your attention. Judge Alphonso A. Christian's vignettes of his early childhood in Frederiksted, Saint Croix; his relocation to Charlotte Amalie, Saint Thomas; his job experiences; his family life; and his public life for seventy-five 75 of his almost ninety 90 years of existence on this earth is actual proof that every obstacle has an opportunity built in. Some walls do not need to be torn down. They need to be demolished to see the opening on the other side. Without the obstacles and the walls he encountered, he would not have realized the inner strength he so vividly describes and the determination to be true to himself. Regardless of age, race, nationality, socioeconomic status, or geographic location, every reader will be enlightened by Judge Christian's memoirs. It is a story, a testament that you should never give up on yourself, no matter what confronts you. End Memoirs, Journal and Correspondence. Edited and abridged from the first edition by ... Lord John Russell Thomas Moore, 1860 Collections & Recollections Donna Snethun, 2015-06-26 My raison d'être This is a book of my memoirs, but it is more than that. It goes back in time to include stories I have heard since childhood about my forefathers and mothers. I am grateful that the writing bug has been so strong in the Falla family. I look on whatever writing abilities I have as a gift. To me, it is more than a hobby; it's a passion. The histories that were written by Uncle Art Falla in the history books of Kinsella and District, Hoofprints and Homesteading, and of Sedgewick and District, Sedgewick Sentinel, were invaluable in my writing of this book. Picking the brains of family members—sisters, cousins, and Aunt Thordis Taylor—have been of enormous assistance. While our memories of any particular incident may not be exactly the same, the sharing and the jogging has made the memories I have come alive. In 2005, my original book Collections & Recollections 1st edition was printed. It is a book of memoirs. I have received wonderful feedback on that book and hope that you enjoy this book as much as did the readers of Collections & Recollections 1st edition. I have lived too interesting a life to not leave this legacy. It seemed only right to include stories about my children's paternal ancestors, the Snethuns and the Sathers. After having been married to Andy Snethun for fifty-five years, in many ways, these families seem like my family. I hope you enjoy following the unique lives of several generations of these pioneer families. I have really tried to write only stories that very few of my readers will be able to say That happened to me too Scattered throughout my memoirs you will find poetry all of which are my originals Sometimes I write poetry like I talk not knowing when to quit I write poetry as long as the thoughts keep coming I try to control myself when I talk so I don't do the same The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 Catalogue Maggs Bros, 1898 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1948 Suicide in the Entertainment Industry David K. Frasier, 2015-09-11 This work covers 840 intentional suicide cases initially reported in Daily Variety the entertainment industry's trade journal but also drawing attention from mainstream news media These cases are taken from the ranks of vaudeville film theatre dance music literature writers with direct connections to film and other allied fields in the entertainment industry from 1905 through 2000 Accidentally self-inflicted deaths are omitted except for a few controversial cases It includes the suicides of well-known personalities such as actress Peg Entwistle who is the only person to ever commit suicide by jumping from the top of the Hollywood Sign Marilyn Monroe and Dorothy Dandridge who are believed to have overdosed on drugs and Richard Farnsworth and Brian Keith who shot themselves to end the misery of terminal cancer Also mentioned but in less detail are the suicides of unknown and lesser-known members of the entertainment industry Arranged alphabetically each entry covers the person's personal and professional background method of suicide and in some instances includes actual statements taken from the suicide note Sale Catalogues American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm), inc American art association Anderson galleries, 1929 Fragments of My Life Rita Braun, 2013 Growing up in Poland in the 1930s Rita Braun had many hopes and dreams for the future When she was nine years old however World War II touched her once idyllic life transforming paradise on earth into an indescribable hell In Fragments of my Life Braun tells her story from her birth in 1930 to living in Brazil today where she works to ensure no one forgets the more than six million Jewish people who lost their lives during the Holocaust Including many photos Fragments of my Life provides firsthand insight into the horrors of the war As a nine-year-old on her school vacation Braun watched as military aircraft streaked across the skies above her parents' farm She never imagined they would leave behind much more than a trail of smoke This memoir details what she experienced as a Jewish girl trying to stay alive during World War II Braun describes watching the selection process and deportation of friends and family living under both Russian and German rule using a fake identity surviving in a gated and guarded ghetto escaping and hiding for her life and witnessing the many tragedies of war Candid and detailed Fragments of my Life chronicles one survivor's experiences from a woman of the final generation who can say I lived through the Holocaust English Literature of the 19th & 20th Centuries Maggs Bros, 1927 Waldie's Select Circulating Library, 1836 Catalogue W. Heffer & Sons, 1928 Nationalism, Education and Migrant Identities Sumita Mukherjee, 2009-12-16 This book examines the role western education and social standing played in the development of Indian nationalism in the early twentieth century It highlights the influences that education abroad had on a significant proportion of the Indian population A large number of Indian students including key figures such as Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi Mohammad Ali Jinnah and Jawaharlal Nehru took up prominent positions in government service industry or political movements after having spent their student years in Britain before the Second World War Having reaped the benefits of the British educational system they spearheaded movements in India that sought to gain independence from British rule The author analyses the long term impact of this short term migration on Britain South Asia and Empire and deals with issues of migrant identities and the ways in which travel shaped ideas about the Self and Home Through this study of the England Returned attention is drawn to contemporary concerns about the politicisation of foreign students and the antecedents of the growing South Asian student population in the USA and Europe today as well as of Britain s growing South Asian diaspora British Books ,1907 Publishers' Circular ,1922 A Memoir Finding My Voice Giovanna Ambrusco,2017-10-30 In this memoir Giovanna Finding My Voice Giovanna the oldest of five girls and the fourth child of eleven children tells the story one that is both familiar and extraordinary in the events it encompasses and engaging in the courage and candor of its telling In her own words we follow her experiences as a young naive woman who leaves her small town in Italy for a new life in America She goes on to endure difficult and challenging times turning them into a life long series of successful achievements Although her earliest hopes and dreams went unheard she was determined to find her voice and did so as she learned to speak a new language nurture a family build a clan establish businesses and follow her passions to experience a fuller life Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1894 British Autobiography in the Seventeenth Century Paul Delany,2015-08-14 Originally published in 1969 In the seventeenth century neither the literary genre nor the term autobiography existed but we see in seventeenth century literature many kinds of autobiographical writings to which their authors gave such titles as Journal of the Life of Me Confessions etc This work is a study of nearly two hundred of these published and unpublished which together represent a very varied group of writings The book begins with an examination of the rise of autobiography as a genre during the Renaissance It discusses seventeenth century autobiographical writings under two main headings religious where the autobiographies are grouped according to the denomination of their writer and secular where a wide variety of writings is examined including accounts of travel and of military and political life as well as more personal accounts Autobiographies by women are treated separately and the author shows that they in general have a deeper revelation of sentiments and more subtle self analyses than is found in comparable works by men Sources and influences are recorded and also the essential historical details of each work This book gives a critical analysis of the autobiographies as literary works and suggests relationships between them and the culture and society of their time Review of the original publication a contribution to cultural history which is of quite exceptional merit Its subject is of great intrinsic interest and manifest importance and Professor Delany has treated it with exemplary thoroughness lucidity and intelligence Lionel Trilling The Library of John Quinn John Quinn,1924 Memoir of sir James Dalrymple, first viscount Stair Æneas James G. Mackay,1873
