How to Get over the End of the World Hal Schriebe, 2023-10-10 Boldly weird cool and confident this YA novel of LGBTQ teen artists activists and telepathic visionaries offers hope against climate and community destruction From the National Book Award longlisted author of Out of Salem James Goldberg self-described neurotic goth gay transsexual stoner is a senior in high school and fully over it He mostly ignores his classes at Cow Pie High instead focusing on fundraising for the near bankrupt local LGBTQ youth support group Compton House and attending punk shows with his friend crush Ian and best friend Opal But when James falls in love with Orsino a homeschooled trans boy with telepathic powers and visions of the future he wonders if the scope of what he believes possible is too small Orsino meanwhile hopes that in James he has finally found someone who will be able to share the apocalyptic visions he has had to keep to himself and better understand the powers they hold How to Get over the End of the World confirms Hal Schrieve as a unique and to be celebrated voice in LGBTQ YA fiction with this multi voiced story about flawed people trying their hardest to make a better world about the beauty and craziness of hope about too big dreams and reality checks and about the ways in which human messiness egos jealousy insecurity and good faith can coexist It also about preserving the ties within a chosen family and maybe saving the world through love art and acts of resistance

Rooted Lyanda Lynn Haupt,2021-05-04 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Deepen your connection to the natural world with this inspiring meditation a path to the place where science and spirit meet Robin Wall Kimmerer In Rooted cutting edge science supports a truth that poets artists mystics and earth based cultures across the world have proclaimed over millennia life on this planet is radically interconnected Our bodies thoughts minds and spirits are affected by the whole of nature and they affect this whole in return In this time of crisis how can we best live upon our imperiled beloved earth Award winning writer Lyanda Lynn Haupt's highly personal new book is a brilliant invitation to live with the earth in both simple and profound ways from walking barefoot in the woods and reimagining our relationship with animals and trees to examining the very language we use to describe and think about nature. She invokes rootedness as a way of being in concert with the wilderness and wildness that sustains humans and all of life. In the tradition of Rachel Carson, Elizabeth Kolbert, and Mary Oliver, Haupt writes with urgency and grace, reminding us that at the crossroads of science, nature, and spirit, we find true hope. Each chapter provides tools for bringing our unique gifts to the fore and transforming our sense of belonging within the magic and wonder of the natural world.
