essays in this book investigate their shared investments in formal innovation and experimentation and in playing with questions of the autobiographical the fantastic and the spaces in between Doucet is a Canadian underground cartoonist known for her autobiographical works such as Dirty Plotte and My New York Diary Meanwhile Bell is a British American cartoonist best known for her intensely introspective semiautobiographical comics and graphic memoirs such as the Lucky series and Cecil and Jordan in New York By pairing Doucet alongside Bell the book recognizes the significance of female networks and the social and cultural connections associations and conditions that shape every work of art In addition to original essays this volume republishes interviews with the artists By reading Doucet's and Bell's comics together in this volume housed in a series devoted to single creator studies the book shows how despite the importance of finding a place inside yourself to create this space seems always for better or worse a shared space culled from and subject to surrounding lives experiences and subjectivities
