My Peoples Waltz Stories:

MY PEOPLES WALTZ PB Dale R. Phillips, 2000-10-24 A collection of interlocking stories from a central figure in contemporary Southern American fiction centers on the figure of Richard a winningly ambiguous pilgrim through modern life and his chaotic background and environment as he seeks some redemption A first collection Reprint My People's Waltz

Dale Ray Phillips, 1999-03-17 These award winning stories introduce a heartbreaking and hilarious new voice in Southern American fiction Stories I Lived to Tell Gary Carden, 2024-08-20 Stories I Lived to Tell is more than a selection of stories from revered mountain storyteller Gary Carden it is a testimony of a distinguished culture sense of place and spirit of community that connects the Appalachian past to its present This memoir in stories invites the reader to move beyond stereotypes to experience the scenes characters and community of the author s childhood and formative years intersecting with the regional folktales and mythologies that fired his imagination It is not only a fascinating window into an Appalachian community in the middle of the twentieth century but also an insightful reminder of who that community is today in spite of the external changes Featuring an introduction by documentarian Neal Hutcheson this book is a moving often funny collection by a talented storyteller who cuts through cliché and sanctimony with his powerful words Short Story Index, 1999

Vale of Humility George Hovis, 2007 This is an inviting look at the influence of the yeoman s small farm on six modern southern writers In a deft analysis of works by Doris Betts Reynolds Price Fred Chappell Lee Smith Clyde Edgerton and Randall Kenan Vale of Humility explores the lives of the plain folk white and black who populate the worlds of contemporary North Carolina fiction Hovis explains that a wealthy planter elite was significantly less prominent in North Carolina than in neighboring regions and as such the state s plain folk did not develop a class identity based as deeply in relation to a superior planter class Instead the identification of the yeoman s small farm rather than the plantation as necessary to the ideal life has been a distinguishing feature of the state s literature In this first full length study of North Carolina s contemporary fiction Hovis examines the work of six representative writers from the state s three geographic regions Lee Smith and Fred Chappell from the mountains Doris Betts and Clyde Edgerton from the Piedmont and Reynolds Price and Randall Kenan from the coastal plain The work of these six writers is explored within the broader southern literary tradition with attention to how they have revised such modes as pastoral family saga and southwestern humor in order to portray their own regional experiences Although these writers celebrate the egalitarianism at the heart of the yeoman ideal they also expose the forms of racism sexism and classism that have also marked the state s history American Short Story Cycle Jennifer J. Simultaneous My Own Affairs Louise, Princess of Belgium, 2013 My Own Affairs As the eldest daughter of a great man and a great King whose magnificent intelligence has enriched his people I owe nothing but misfortune to my royal origin Ever since I was born I have suffered and been deceived I have idealized Life too much In the evening of my days I do not wish to remain under the cloud of the false impression which is now prevalent concerning me Without desiring to allude too much to the past and to retrace the road of my Calvary I should like at least to borrow a few pages from my memories and reflections inspired by events which have destroyed thrones in whose proximity I once lived The Emperor of Austria the German Emperor the Tsar of Bulgaria were all familiar figures to me Driven to Munich by the War then to Budapest taken prisoner for a brief space by Hungarian Bolsheviks I have survived the European tempest and I have seen all those who disowned and crushed me beaten and punished And I trembled every day for my poor Belgium so strong in her courage and her travail but so unjust to me oh no not the people the good people are naturally heroic and indefatigable I refer to certain of their leaders who have been misled on my account and who are also perhaps too fond of money Unjust themselves they all equally violated justice by illicit interests which had the appearance of legality as well as by the false attitude which appeared merely to be forgetfulness but which was actually ingratitude My father has not yet had a monument erected to him in the country which he esteemed so highly his Government has remembered the follies of his old age rather than its privileges and his memory has suffered accordingly But what is past is past My memory remains faithfully and affectionately attached to my native land my sole thought is to love and honour her It is of Belgium that I wish to speak before passing on to the Courts of Vienna Berlin Munich and Sofia and to the many doings which these names recall certain of which deserve better knowledge and consideration My Soul is Full of Music Augustus D. Fillmore,1853 Mirabella ,1998 New Madrid Murray State University, New Madrid Journal,2007
