New York 17 October 2002 6 January 2003      Anime Intersections Dani Cavallaro, 2007-07-03 This text examines the artistic development of anime from its origins as a subset of the Japanese film industry to its modern day status as one of the most popular forms of animation worldwide Chapter One provides a discussion of the history of anime and the separate phases of the artistic process involved in creating a traditional anime film The main body of the text comprises nine chapters each of which is devoted to a detailed analysis of a chosen production and explores the technical and thematic developments pioneered in works such as Ninja Scroll Perfect Blue and Howl's Moving Castle The final chapter examines the impact of the medium within Western contexts focusing on changing perceptions of anime and on the medium's frequent appearances within Western pop culture and the fine arts A complete bibliography and filmography are included      Animation Chris Pallant, 2021-01-01 Animation Critical and Primary Sources is a major multi-volume work of reference that brings together seminal writings on animation studies Gathering historical and contemporary texts from a wide-ranging number of sources the volumes provide a key resource in understanding and studying the past and future directions of animation studies The four volumes thematically trace animation studies from its many definitions or a lack thereof to the institutional nature of animation production to establishing greater space within animation discourse for the consideration of broadcast and interactive animation and finally giving greater contextual understanding of the field of animation studies by focusing on Authorship Genre Identity Politics and Spectatorship thus enabling readers to engage more deeply with the ideas discussed in the final volume Ordering the collection in this way avoids imposing an overly simplistic chronological framework thereby allowing debates that have developed over years and even decades to stand side by side Each volume is separately introduced and the essays structured into coherent sections on specific themes      Traditional Monster Imagery in Manga, Anime and Japanese Cinema Zília Papp, 2010-10-29 Traditional Monster Imagery in Manga Anime and Japanese Cinema builds on the earlier volume Anime and its Roots in Early Japanese Monster Art that aimed to position contemporary Japanese animation within a wider art historical context by tracing the development of monster representations in Edo and Meiji period art works and post-war visual media While the previous volume concentrated on modern media representations this work focuses on how Western art historical concepts and methodology might be adapted when considering non-Western works introducing traditional monster art in more detail while also maintaining its links to post-war animation sequential art and Japanese cinema The book aims at a general readership interested in Japanese art and media as well as graduate students who might be searching for a research model within the fields of Animation Studies Media Studies or Visual Communication Design      Comic Abstraction Roxana Marcoci, 2007 Foreword by Glenn D Lowry Text by Roxana Marcoci      Socioaesthetics Anders Michelsen, Frederik Tygstrup, 2015-10-05 Aesthetics is no longer the preserve of art historians and philosophers of art Changes in society culture economy urban dynamics and everyday life push us towards considering the aesthetic components of traditionally non-aesthetic domains Today it is not only legitimate but necessary to query the relationship between the social as a cohesive and encompassing form of community and human institutions and the aesthetic that is the sensual sensory or perhaps better the sensible Increasingly the social seems to emerge from the sensible and sentient meaning of objects The volume SocioAesthetics Ambience Imaginary collects scholars from social science aesthetics arts and cultural studies in case driven debate ranging from biometrics to luxury commodities on how a new alignment of aesthetics and the social is possible and what the possible prospects of this may be Newsletter, East Asian Art & Archaeology, 2002

Extremes G. M. Thomas, 2004 This book captures the extraordinary experiences of living and travelling across Japan and is intended to change the way we view Japan's modern society It reveals the two Japans that exist alongside one another one familiar the other hidden and almost invisible to most foreigners It moves from the gentle rhythms of the Inland Sea and the grave of a long dead British naval officer to the sins and abasements in the heart of Tokyo where any fetish is on tap The Japanese define their relations with society based on tatemae their external obligations to society and honne their inner and hidden aspirations This applies not only to the way people conduct their lives but also to many aspects of Japan s contemporary society Much is sanitised for everyday external consumption The other world is hidden only seen occasionally if at all by the visiting foreigner This is not though a book of ancient versus modern or rural versus urban The puzzle is more complex and in attempting to unravel it conventional wisdom is challenged The author found a people who whilst sharing much in common living in an amorphous middle class society actually live life experiencing significant and contradictory modes of behaviour modes that they find increasingly unsettling Their voices and fears are in the book as they strive to make sense of their own life in the twenty first century
