In the background, there are several domed buildings, possibly a temple or a palace, surrounded by trees. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall style is soft and painterly.

MY STORY OF THE WAR MARY A. LIVERMORE,1892 St Petersburg Solomon Volkov,2010-06-15 The definitive cultural biography of the Venice of the North and its transcendent artistic and spiritual legacy written by Russian emerge and acclaimed cultural historian Solomon Volkov Long considered to be the mad dream of an imperious autocrat the Venice of the North conceived in a setting of malarial swamps St Petersburg was built in 1703 by Peter the Great as Russia s gateway to the West For almost 300 years this splendid city has survived the most extreme attempts of man and nature to extinguish it from flood famine and disease to civil war Stalinist purges and the epic 900 day siege by Hitler's armies It has even been renamed twice and became St Petersburg again only in 1991 Yet not only has it retained its special almost mystical identity as the schizophrenic soul of modern Russia but it remains one of the most beautiful and alluring cities in the world Now Solomon Volkov a Russian emigre and acclaimed cultural historian has written the definitive cultural biography of this city and its transcendent artistic and spiritual legacy For Pushkin Gogol and Dostoyevsky Petersburg was a spectral city that symbolized the near apocalyptic conflicts of imperial Russia As the monarchy declined allowing intellectuals and artists to flourish Petersburg became a center of avant garde experiment and flamboyant bohemian challenge to the dominating power of the state first czarist and then communist The names of the Russian modern masters who found expression in St Petersburg still resonate powerfully in every field of art in music Stravinsky Prokofiev and Shostakovich in literature Akhmatova Blok Mandelstam Nabokov and Brodsky in dance Diaghilev Nijinsky and Balanchine in theater Meyerhold in painting Chagall and Malevich and many others whose works are now part of the permanent fabric of Western civilization Yet no comprehensive portrait of this thriving distinctive and highly influential cosmopolitan culture and the city that inspired it has previously been attempted An Autobiography Mohandas K. Gandhi, 2017-09-12 The remarkable life and inspiring beliefs of a legendary peacemaker and liberator of India in his own words Remember that all through history there have been tyrants and murderers and for a time they seem invincible But in the end they always fall Always In the story of his life from early childhood through 1921 Mohandas K Gandhi candidly reveals his young investigations into sin and seeking atonement the philosophy art and literature that influenced his thoughts and ideas and his first experiences with politics and protest which would provide the foundation for his nonviolent struggle for justice equality and Indian independence from the British Empire Gandhi's intention in setting down an account of his formative years was to clarify the spiritual principles by which he lived and to inspire individuals and movements in their quests for personal and political freedom The timeless lessons to be derived from the autobiography of this dedicated seeker of truth and brilliant leader continue to resonate wherever freedom is challenged by tyranny This ebook has been professionally proofread to ensure accuracy and readability on all devices

Autobiography Mohandas Gandhi, 2012-04-18 Gandhi's simply narrated account of his boyhood legal studies purification and the growth of the Satyagraha nonviolent protest movement Critical inspiring work of the man responsible for the freedom of India
