My Stories:

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless. He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him. This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church: pastors, homilists, catechetical leaders, catechists, and teachers, parish ministers and families, as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories. Two Minutes for God Peter B. Panagore, 2016-11-08 Heartfelt and humorous stories about work, family, loss, and love bring God into everyday life in this unique and quirky devotional. You don't have to pray for hours a day; all God asks is that you keep the Holy Spirit in your heart. In three hundred words or less, Peter B. Panagore can help you build a strong relationship with God while reminding you of what is truly important in life. From childhood pet ducks to fixing a house foundation, Two Minutes for God features anecdotes from Reverend Panagore's own life as well as those of the people and world around him to illustrate how pieces of the sacred live within everyday events. Encompassing many cultures and a wide variety of religions, Panagore does not exclude anyone from his perspectives on spirituality, prayer, and God's relationship to the world around us. Covering contemporary but timeless topics such as love, loss, healing, work, bullying, mythology, celebration, and family, Two Minutes for God provides a daily infusion of faith that will last all year long. Engaging in Narrative Inquiry D. Jean

Clandinin, 2016-06-16 Narrative inquiry examines human lives through the lens of a narrative honoring lived experience as a source of important knowledge and understanding. In this concise volume, D. Jean Clandinin, one of the pioneers in using narrative as research, updates her classic formulation on narrative inquiry with F. Michael Connelly, clarifying, extending, and refining the method based on an additional decade of work. A valuable feature is the inclusion of several exemplary cases with the author's critique and analysis of the work. The rise of interest in narrative inquiry in recent years makes this an essential guide for researchers and an excellent text for graduate courses in qualitative inquiry. ANNANG WISDOM: TOOLS FOR POSTMODERN LIVING Ezekiel Umo Ette, Ph.D., 2009-06-30 Prof. Ette is a graduate of Methodist Secondary School Nto Ndong Ikot Ekpene and the College of Education Uyo in Nigeria. Uncovering Race Amy Alexander,2015-06-16 From an award winning black journalist a tough minded look at the treatment of ethnic minorities both in newsrooms and in the reporting that comes out of them within the changing media landscape From the Rodney King riots to the racial inequities of the new digital media Amy Alexander has chronicled the biggest race and class stories of the modern era in American journalism Beginning in the bare knuckled newsrooms of 1980s San Francisco her career spans a period of industry wide economic collapse and tremendous national demographic changes Despite reporting in some of the country s most diverse cities including San Francisco Boston and Miami Alexander consistently encountered a stubbornly white male press corps and a surprising lack of news concerning the ethnic communities in these multicultural metropolises Driven to shed light on the race and class struggles taking place in the United States Alexander embarked on a rollercoaster career marked by cultural conflicts within newsrooms Along the way her identity as a black woman journalist changed dramatically an evolution that coincided with sweeping changes in the media industry and the advent of the Internet Armed with census data and news industry demographic research Alexander explains how the so called New Media is reenacting Old Media s biases She argues that the idea of newsroom diversity at best an afterthought in good economic times has all but fallen off the table as the industry fights for its economic life a dynamic that will ultimately speed the demise of venerable news outlets Moreover for the shrinking number of journalists of color who currently work at big news organizations the lingering ethos of having to be twice as good as their white counterparts continues it is a reality that threatens to stifle another generation of practitioners from non traditional backgrounds In this hard hitting account Alexander evaluates her own career in the context of the continually evolving story of America s growing ethnic populations and the homogenous newsrooms producing our nation s too often monochromatic coverage This veteran journalist examines the major news stories that were entrenched in the great race debate of the past three decades stories like those of Eli n Gonz lez Janet Cooke Jayson Blair Tavis Smiley the tragedy of Hurricane Katrina and the election of Barack Obama Uncovering Race offers sharp analysis of how race gender and class come to bear on newsrooms and takes aim at mainstream media s failure to successfully cover a browner younger nation a failure that Alexander argues is speeding news organizations demise faster than the Internet
