Bah, 2019 At the beginning of the Civil War Federal troops secured Alexandria as Union territory Former slaves called contrabands poured in to obtain protection from their former masters Due to overcrowding mortality rates were high Authorities seized an undeveloped parcel of land on South Washington Street and by March 1864 it had been opened as a cemetery for African Americans Between 1864 and 1868 more than 1 700 contrabands and freedmen were buried there For nearly eighty years the cemetery lay undisturbed and was eventually forgotten Rediscovered in 1996 it has now been preserved as a monument to the courage and sacrifice of those buried within Author and researcher Char McCargo Bah recounts the stories of those men and women and the search for their descendants back cover The Struggles of a Black Woman Brenda Hood, 2012-10-09 Three Months in Florence Mary Carter, 2013-08-01 Lena Wallace was supposed to go to Italy on her honeymoon That was sixteen years ago Instead she settles for cooking Spaghetti Bolognese for her two children while her husband Alex is on yet another business trip to Florence without her Lena deals with his absences in the same stoic way she deals with all her responsibilities And then comes the call that changes everything the one from Alex's Italian mistress Stunned and heartsick Lena flies to Florence to confront Alex The city is every bit as beautiful as she imagined from its glittering fountains and cafés to the golden sunsets over rolling hills But the further she goes to salvage her marriage the less Lena recognizes herself or the husband she's trying to win back Instead she's catching glimpses of the person she once hoped to be and the life and family she truly wants Most of all she's wondering if the real journey is only just beginning In a novel as warm and vibrant as its rich Italian setting author Mary Carter explores the intricacies of marriage the ways love can both liberate and confine and the journey to happiness that begins with one surprising step Praise for Mary

Robert E. Lee and Me Ty Seidule, 2021-01-26 Ty Seidule scorches us with the truth and rivets us with his fierce sense of moral urgency Ron Chernow In a forceful but humane narrative former soldier and head of the West Point history department Ty Seidule's Robert E Lee and Me challenges the myths and lies of the Confederate legacy and explores why some of this country's oldest wounds have never healed Ty Seidule grew up revering Robert E Lee From his southern childhood to his service in the U S Army every part of his life reinforced the Lost Cause myth that Lee was the greatest man who ever lived and that the Confederates were underdogs who lost the Civil War with honor Now as a retired brigadier general and Professor Emeritus of History at West Point his view has radically changed From a soldier a scholar and a southerner Ty Seidule believes that American history demands a reckoning In a unique blend of history and reflection Seidule deconstructs the truth about the Confederacy that its undisputed primary goal was the subjugation and enslavement of Black Americans and directly challenges the idea of honoring those who labored to preserve that system and committed treason in their failed attempt to achieve it Through the arc of Seidule's own life as well as the culture that formed him he seeks a path to understanding why the facts of the Civil War have remained buried beneath layers of myth and even outright lies and how they embody a cultural gulf that separates millions of Americans to this day Part history lecture part meditation on the Civil War and its fallout and part memoir Robert E Lee and Me challenges the deeply held legends and myths of the Confederacy and provides a surprising interpretation of essential truths that our country still has a difficult time articulating and accepting Immortal Reborn - Alexandria's Choice Natalie D Wilson, 2013-02-09 Alexandria Grace Groaban finally has an answer to the question that plagued her throughout her childhood and young adult life Why is she different than anyone else she knows After coming home to Oxford for Christmas and suffering a near fatal attack at the hands of Bertrand she has come to learn that she contains within her the soul of the oldest and most powerful of the Lord's Nephilim And her journey to Aeferth Hall and Elysium has only just scratched the surface for what is to come Alex must now push herself past the bounds of what they all think her mortal body can withstand to find the answer that the Nephilim have wanted as well How did Arianna perish In order to protect her loved ones both mortal and immortal she will need every detail she can gather to save them all in time And she must face the warning Ganymede gave her after the last attack on Aeferth that her time as a mortal is rapidly running short Together with Gaius Jack and the other Nephilim Alexandria will embark on an exciting quest for answers concerning Kronis And together they will journey far away from England to help her learn if an immortal life is the correct choice for her in this thrilling second volume in the Children of Angels series Immortal Reborn Alexandria s Choice House documents ,1893 Alexandria's Hinterland Mohamed Kenawi,2014-11-17 This volume contains detailed information about 63 sites and shows amongst other things that the viticulture of the western delta was significant in Ptolemaic and Roman periods as well as a network of interlocking sites which connected with the rest of Egypt Alexandria North Africa and the Eastern Mediterranean and Aegean The War of the Rebellion United States. gender ethnicity and class she refutes the view that these writers representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anticolonial The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on Cavafy Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers engagement with the canonical triumvirate Halim orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations It's You That I Love, Promise!
