My Footprints on the Sands of Time Bethwell A. Ogot, 2003 While Allan Ogot's circuits of influence have been very wide and while he has participated in conferences and forums around the world he has never yielded his intellectual and personal anchorage in Kenya though he has had numerous opportunities to accept distinguished chairs overseas Extraordinarily Allan Ogot has sustained his incredible level of service and scholarship through shifting and challenging conditions within Kenya and within Africa navigating changing economic and political circumstances His steady hand and persistent commitment to the highest ideals of scholarly engagement and community provide remarkable model for all who are dedicating themselves and will dedicate themselves to Africanist scholarship This autobiography provides a commentary on the history of Kenya as seen through Allan Ogot's life experiences Managing Heritage, Making Peace Annie E. Coombes, Lotte Hughes, Karega Munene, 2019-12-26 Kenya stands at a crossroads in its history and heritage as the nation celebrates its fiftieth anniversary of independence from Britain in 2013 At this important juncture what parts of its history including the Mau Mau uprising do citizens and state wish to remember and commemorate and what is best forgotten or occluded What does heritage mean to ordinary Kenyans and what role does it play in building nationhood and forging peace and reconciliation Focusing on the 1990s to the present Managing Heritage Making Peace is a timely exploration of the ways in which Kenyans are engaging with the past in the present including such local initiatives as the community peace museums movement local and national monuments and other notable commemorative actions The authors show how Kenya is facing a continuing crisis over nationhood heritage memory and identity which must be resolved to achieve social cohesion and peace Kenya Charles Hornsby, 2013-03-01 Since independence from Great Britain in 1963 Kenya has survived five decades as a functioning nation state holding regular elections its borders and political system intact and avoiding open war with its neighbours and military rule internally It has been a favoured site for Western aid trade investment and tourism and has remained a close security partner for Western governments However Kenya's successive governments have failed to achieve adequate living conditions for most of its citizens violence corruption and tribalism have been ever present and its politics have failed to transcend its history The decisions of the early years of independence and the acts of its leaders in the decades since have changed the country's path in unpredictable ways but key themes of conflicts remain over land money power economic policy national autonomy and the distribution of resources between classes and communities While the country's political institutions have remained stable the nation has changed its population increasing nearly five fold in five decades But the economic and political elite's struggle for state resources and the exploitation of ethnicity for political purposes still threaten the country's existence Today Kenyans are arguing over many of the issues that divided them 50 years ago The new constitution promulgated in 2010 provides an opportunity for national renewal but it must confront a heavy legacy of history This book reveals that history Comparing Cultures and Religions in a Postmodern World Basile Sede Noujio, 2021-03-22

Culture and religion are basic to every human society and the history of a people always sustains her cultural and religious values. We decided to use the African culture and religion as our departing point for the mere fact that Africa is generally considered as the cradle of civilization and it is a very historic and controversial continent. However, while examining some prominent world cultures and religions in a comparative manner, our major focus is on the Christian Thomistic culture/religion as illustrated by Jacques Maritain in comparison with the African culture/religion as expressed by Joseph Ki Zerbo. Both thinkers consider that in the midst of multiculturalism and globalization, authentic humanism or personalism that is based on the sacredness of the human person should be endorsed as a new civilization or culture. Only such a culture can make the future of humankind essentially meaningful and interesting. Shifting from all mediocre standards of culture which are based on relativism supported by postmodern thinkers, there is a need to get back to the original culture that is based on authentic and objective standards. The major difference that we noticed between the Thomistic Christian ideas and those of the Africans is that while Jacques Maritain appeals for Thomistic humanism to grow from the formal classrooms and the books into the streets and the fields, Ki Zerbo explains that African humanism has always existed in the streets and in the fields; it might never even have existed in the books and in the classrooms. The global reaction toward the killing of George Floyd in USA, defying all fears of the COVID 19, intensifies the argument that a culture which qualifies one race as being superior over another has to be reexamined and radically eradicated and replaced by authentic humanism.

My Autobiography and Reminiscences William Powell Frith, 1889      My autobiography and reminiscences Wm. Powell Frith, 1887      History through Narratives of Education in Africa, 2024-04-15

Who were the actors involved in colonial and post-independence education in Africa? This book on the history of education in Africa gives a special attention to narratives of marginalized voices. With this original approach and cases from ten countries involving four colonial powers, it constitutes a dynamic and rich contribution to the field. The authors have searched for narratives of education from below through oral interviews, autobiographies, films, and undiscovered archival sources. Throughout the book, educational settings are approached as social spaces where both contact and separation between colonisers and colonised are constructed through social interaction, negotiations, and struggles. Contributors include Ant nia Barreto, Lars Folke Berge, Clara Carvalho, Charlotte Courreye, Pierre ric Fageol, Fr d ric Garan, Esther Ginestet, Pedro Goulart, Pierre Guidi, Lydia Hadj Ahmed, Kalpana Hiralal, Mamaye Idriss, Mihary Jaofeno, Rehana Thembeke, Odendaal, Roland Rakotovo, Maria da Luz Ramos, Ellen Ve, Rosnes, Caterina Scalvedi, Eva Van de Velde, Pieter Verstraete.

An Autobiography, from My Youth Up Margaret Elizabeth Sangster, 1909      Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo, 2016

Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature. He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re-imagination in post-colonial Africa. Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing, this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga, Ngugi wa

Thiong'o Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot The analysis dwells on self representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works Thus the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir the forms and styles it takes the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 63 Subject African Studies Literary Criticism My Footprints on the Sands of Time Bethwell A. Secularism and Africa Jim Harries, 2015-04-15 Secular assumptions underlie much formal communication between the West and Africa and even intra Africa Secularism is dualistic by nature but thinking in Africa is mostly monistic This book suggests that it is better to be rooted in faith in Christ than in so called secularism The great respect given to the Bible in much of Africa verifies this idea Communication of and through Christ is a bridge that can enable indigenous sustainable development The same gospel is the bridge over which the West itself passes Maintaining supposedly secular presuppositions may be denying sub Saharan African people the means for self initiated sustainable progress This book draws on anthropology linguistics and theology as well as the author's experience of living in Africa Harries shares an autobiographical account of personal long term grassroots ministry and proposes a revision of widely held understandings of linguistics pertaining especially to the relationship between the West and Africa He also looks at Bible teaching ministry in light of contemporary African contexts

African Literatures as World Literature Alexander Fyfe, Madhu Krishnan, 2022-11-03 The enormous success of writers such as Teju Cole and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie demonstrates that African literatures are now an international phenomenon But the apparent global legibility of a small number of mostly Anglophone writers in the diaspora raises the question of how literary producers from the continent both past and present have situated their work in relation to the world and the kinds of material networks to which this corresponds This collection shows how literatures from across the African continent engage with conceptualizations of the world in relation to local social and political issues Focusing on a wide variety of geographic historical and linguistic contexts the essays in this volume seek answers to the following questions What are the topographies of the world in different literary texts and traditions What are that world's limits boundaries and possibilities How do literary modes and forms such as realism narrative poetry or the political essay affect the presentation of worldliness What are the material networks of circulation that allow African literatures to become world literature African literatures it emerges do important theoretical work that speaks to the very core of world literary studies today

Beyond Federation Emma Hunter, Daniel Branch, Ismay Milford, Gerard McCann, 2025-08-18 In the period of mid twentieth century decolonization when nationalism and globalism were hotly contested East Africans nurtured regionalism in their intellectual and creative work This book looks beyond political projects of federation to recover ideas and practices of regionalism their remarkable longevity and their significance for understanding possibilities of radical change In doing so it tells a different story about the fate of the category of East Africa building on a body of scholarship about the imagined political communities of decolonizing Africa and rejecting narratives

Autobiography of Dr. Thomas H. Barton, the Self-made Physician of Syracuse, Ohio Thomas H. Barton, 1890

Obama and Kenya Matthew Carotenuto, Katherine Luongo, 2016-07-29 Barack Obama's political ascendancy has focused considerable global attention on the history of Kenya generally and the history of the Luo community particularly From politicians populating the blogosphere and bookshelves in the U S and Kenya to tourists traipsing through Obama's ancestral home a variety of groups have mobilized new readings of Kenya's past in service of their own ends Through narratives placing Obama into a simplified sweeping narrative of anticolonial barbarism and postcolonial tribal violence the story of the United States president's nuanced relationship to Kenya has been lost amid stereotypical portrayals of Africa At the same time Kenyan state officials have aimed to weave Obama into the contested narrative of Kenyan nationhood Matthew Carotenuto and Katherine Luongo argue that efforts to cast Obama as a son of the soil of the Lake Victoria basin invite insights into the politicized uses of Kenya's past Ideal for classroom use and directed at a general readership interested in global affairs Obama and Kenya offers an important counterpoint to the many popular but inaccurate texts about Kenya's history and Obama's place in it as well as focused thematic analyses of contemporary debates about ethnic politics tribal identities postcolonial governance and U S African relations
