My Gold Storybook, 1981 Home, Uprooted Devika Chawla, 2014-06-27 The Indian Independence Act of 1947 granted India freedom from British rule signaling the formal end of the British Raj in the subcontinent This freedom though came at a price partition the division of the country into India and Pakistan and the communal riots that followed These riots resulted in the deaths of an estimated 1 million Hindus and Muslims and the displacement of about 20 million persons on both sides of the border This watershed socioeconomic geopolitical moment cast an enduring shadow on India's relationship with neighboring Pakistan Presenting a perspective of the middle class refugees who were forced from their homes jobs and lives with the withdrawal of British rule in India Home Uprooted delves into the lives of forty five Partition refugees and their descendants to show how this epochal event continues to shape their lives Exploring the oral histories of three generations of refugees from India's Partition ten Hindu and Sikh families in Delhi Home Uprooted melds oral histories with a fresh perspective on current literature to unravel the emergent conceptual nexus of home travel and identity in the stories of the participants Author Devika Chawla argues that the ways in which her participants imagine recollect memorialize or abandon home in their everyday narratives give us unique insights into how refugee identities are constituted These stories reveal how migrations are enacted and what home in its sense absence and presence can mean for displaced populations Written in an accessible and experimental style that blends biography autobiography essay and performative writing Home Uprooted folds in field narratives with Chawla's own family history which was also shaped by the Partition event and her self propelled migration to North America In contemplating and living their stories of home she attempts to show how her own ancestral legacies of Partition displacement bear relief Home how we experience it and what it says about the selves we come to occupy is a crucial question of our contemporary moment Home Uprooted delivers a unique and poignant perspective on this timely question This compilation of stories offers an iteration of how diasporic migrations might be enacted and what home means to displaced populations Miss M.'S Storybook Sandra Mendyk, 2009-07-15 Have you ever done something you later were embarrassed about like hiding under a highway in ankle high water at two o'clock in the morning Or getting locked in Paris Frances Notre Dame Cathedral bell tower Would you tell anyone about your family and friends especially a brother who loved pulling pranks like throwing lit matches from a cinema balcony Did you ever try to undertake something fun that no one would ever expect you to do like flying an airplane although you get airsick Have you ever encountered a ghost met a reincarnated spider or accompanied the FBI to look for a bomb How would you feel if you took your nephew to England at the invitation of the Prince of Wales and got embarrassed when he said something out loud enough that you wanted to crawl under the closest chair Do you feel brave or anxious enough to read some of these experiences mostly funny the same stories that many junior high school students enjoyed for years Many people have approached Miss M and asked how she had so many adventures and accomplished so much Miss M has taught seventh grade for twenty two years Many times the school day had some leftover time This was the perfect time for one of Miss M s storiesstories that were told over and over again to keep students riveted to the teacher in front of the room She never repeated the same story twice to the same class And all these stories are true This book has many of these stories Many stories are classified as comedy serious and some may be downright scary Many also have a moral This paperback book can be taken on the bus on trips and even read in the bathroom Characters in the book have initials in order to save some people embarrassment The family members know who they are All Miss M has to say now after compiling all her real life stories for others to read and share is Enjoy as all her former students did And if anyone doesnt enjoy the book well theres always that bathroom Storybook Tommy
