My folks allus belongs to the Cavins and wore their name till after mancipation Pa and ma was named Freeman and Amelia Cavin and Massa Dave fotches them to Texas from Alabama along with ma s mother what we called Maria The Cavins allus thunk lots of their niggers and Grandma Maria say Why shouldn t they it was their money She say there was plenty Indians here when they settled this country and they bought and traded with them without killin them if they could The Indians was poor folks jus pilfer and loaf round all the time The niggers was a heap sight better off than they was cause we had plenty to eat and a place to stay Young Massa Tom was my special massa and he still lives here Old Man Dave seemed to think more of his niggers than anybody and we thunk lots of our white folks My pa was leader on the farm and there wasn t no overseer or driver When pa whip a nigger he needn t go to Massa Dave but pa say Go you way you nigger Freeman didn t whip you for nothin Massa Dave allus believe pa cause he tells the truth One time a peddler come to our house and after supper he goes to see bout his pony Pa done feed that pony fifteen ears of corn The peddler tell massa his pony ain t been fed nothin and massa git mad and say Be on you way iffen you gwine cuse my niggers of lyin We had good quarters and plenty to eat I members when I s jus walkin round good pa come in from the field at night and taken me out of bed and dress me and feed me and then play with me for hours Him bein leader he s gone from fore day till after night The old heads got out early but us young scraps slep till eight or nine o clock and don t you think Massa Dave ain t comin round to see we is fed I members him like it was yest day comin to the quarters with his stick and askin us Had your breakfas We d say Yes suh Then he d ask if we had nough or wanted any more It look like he taken a pleasure in seein us eat At dinner when the field hands come in it am the same way He was sho that potlicker was fill as long as the niggers want to eat The hands worked from sun to sun Massa give them li l crops and let them work them on Saturday Then he bought the stuff and the niggers go to Jefferson and buy clothes and sech like Lots saved money and bought freedom fore the war was over We went to church and first the white preacher preached and then he larns our cullud preachers I seed him ordain a cullud preacher and he told him to allus be honest When the white preacher laid his hand on him all the niggers git to hollerin and shoutin and prayin and that nigger git scart mos to death From a Small Town to the Big World Norman Boehm, 2016-12-02 This is a story of a young lad who chose college far away from his small home town of Washington NJ He worked in the oil industry for 16 years in Saudi Arabia 4 years in London England and 3 years in Stavanger Norway 23 years of exposure to the world s diverse cultures and peoples gave him an unwavering respect and admiration for all citizens of the world This book is a recollection of the events thoughts and experiences of Boehm s transformative travels abroad It contains stories of classical piano lessons learning to fly a small single engine aircraft and meeting with his distant relative the world famous movie actress Ingrid Bergman This memoir honors the remarkable life of a man full of adventure and travel all over the world Blake, Politics, and History Jackie DiSalvo,G. A. Rosso,Christopher Z. Hobson,1998 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare s most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory Teaching World History as Mystery Jack Zevin,David Gerwin,2010-12-07 Offering a philosophy methodology and examples for history instruction that are active imaginative and provocative this text presents a fully developed pedagogy based on problem solving methods that promote reasoning and judgment and restore a sense of imagination and participation to classroom learning It is designed to draw readers into the detective process that characterizes the work of professional historians and social scientists sharing raw data defining terms building interpretations and testing competing theories An inquiry framework drives both the pedagogy and the choice of historical materials with selections favoring the unsolved controversial and fragmented rather than the neatly wrapped up analysis of past events Teaching World History as Mystery Provides a balanced combination of interestingly arranged historical content and clearly explained instructional strategies Features case studies of commonly and not so commonly taught topics within a typical world global history curriculum using combinations of primary and secondary documents Discusses ways of dealing with ethical and moral issues in world history classrooms drawing students into persisting questions of historical truth bias and judgment Discipline Problems Tadashi Dozono,2024-05-07 Angel a Black tenth grader at a New York City public school self identifies as a nerd and likes to learn But she s troubled that her history classes leave out events like the genocide and dispossession of Indigenous people in the Americas presenting a sugar coated image of the United States that is at odds with her everyday experience The history I learned in school is simpler she says The world I live in is a lot more complex Angel like every student interviewed in Discipline Problems has been identified by teachers as a troublemaker a student whose behavior disrupts classroom norms and interferes with instruction But her critiques of the curriculum she s taught speak to her curiosity and insight crucial foundations for understanding history Like many students who have been marginalized by systemic racism in American schools she exposes the shortcomings of her classrooms academic environments by challenging both the content and the methods of her education All too often these challenges are framed as troublemaking and the students are disciplined for acting out instead of being rewarded for their intellectual engagement Tadashi Dozono a professor of education and former high school social studies teacher takes seriously the often overlooked critiques that students of color who get labeled as troublemakers direct toward their high school history curriculum He reinterprets troublemaking usually cast as a behavioral deficit as an intellectual asset and form of reasoning that challenges the disciplining reason of classrooms where whiteness is valued over the histories and knowledge of people of color Dozono shows how what are traditionally framed as discipline problems can be seen through a different lens as responses to educational practices that marginalize non white students Discipline Problems reveals how students of color seek out alternate avenues for understanding their world and imagines a pedagogy that champions the curiosity intellect and knowledge of marginalized learners AP World History: Modern Premium, 2024: Comprehensive Review with 5 Practice Tests + an Online Timed Test Option John McCannon,2023-07-04 Provides chapter reviews of world history from prehistoric to modern times test taking strategies study tips five full length practice tests with answers and access to online resources
