Deep Preaching J. Kent Edwards,2009-08-01 J Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming

A Stroll at Leisure with God John D. Talbert,2012-07 The word cancer is frightening What happens when a doctor tells you that you have cancer How do you deal with that What goes on in the immediate aftermath of that diagnosis What is chemotherapy like How will you feel These are only a few of the questions that proliferate when we face any uncertain turn in the road of life A Stroll at Leisure with God is a unique perspective of how to walk with the Lord through any crisis or life s daily challenges Through it all whatever comes our way we can learn what it truly means to have faith even in times of crisis
