Radio Moments David Lloyd,2017-09-26 In the 1970s 80s and 90s Britain witnessed what many in the business saw as the second great age of radio It was a period when FM radio blossomed and local stations opened and broadcast across the land It was a step away from the output of the national broadcaster the BBC which had held a monopoly on the airways since its inception Broadcaster station manager and regulator for over forty years David Lloyd was very much a part of this revolution and is amongst his peers well placed to tell that story Lloyd describes the period as one of innovation his aim to create a timeline of radio of this era through to the present day to capture those heady days the characters the fun and heartache life on the air life off the air And to revisit those station launches company consolidations the successes and the failures Told with the insight of an insider with his characteristic wit and a huge dollop of nostalgia David Lloyd brings to life a unique age in broadcasting in this fascinating account David Lloyd has spent a lifetime in radio and has worked with some of the UK's biggest names An award winning broadcaster he was part of the first wave of commercial radio in the 1980s He later joined the Radio Authority where he was given responsibility for overseeing compliance across the commercial radio industry A Fellow of the Radio Academy he has been MD and Programme Director of LBC a programmer for Virgin Radio and a BBC manager and broadcaster He was until recently Group Editorial Director at Orion Media

How Animals Grieve Barbara J. King, 2013-03-28 A touching and provocative exploration of the latest research on animal minds and animal emotions from the renowned anthropologist and author The Washington Post Scientists have long cautioned against anthropomorphizing animals arguing that it limits our ability to truly comprehend the lives of other creatures Recently however things have begun to shift in the other direction and anthropologist Barbara J King is at the forefront of that movement arguing strenuously that we can and should attend to animal emotions With How Animals Grieve she draws our attention to the specific case of grief and relates story after story from fieldsites farms homes and more of animals mourning lost companions mates or friends King tells of elephants surrounding their matriarch as she weakens and dies and in the following days attending to her corpse as if holding a vigil A housecat loses her sister from whom she's never before been parted and spends weeks pacing the apartment wailing plaintively A baboon loses her daughter to a predator and sinks into grief In each case King uses her anthropological training to interpret and try to explain what we see to help us understand this animal grief properly as something neither the same as nor wholly different from the human experience of loss The resulting book is both daring and down to earth strikingly ambitious even as it's careful to acknowledge the limits of our understanding Through the moving stories she chronicles and analyzes so beautifully King brings us closer to the animals with whom we share a planet and helps us see our own experiences attachments and emotions as part of a larger web of life death love and loss
