My Life And Other Stories:

My Life and Other Stories Bob Elles, 2013-05-14 Intelligence comes from ignorance as wisdom comes from naiveté and there is nothing like gathering both from people who represent a diverse swath of nations throughout the world. As cultures require contact with each other in order to grow and remain viable and not succumb to atrophy, man too requires contact with men of different beliefs and practices. No one nation or culture or religion has a hold on logic or is immune to extremism. I feel blessed that I've had the opportunity to absorb and learn about aspects of life that I'm sure I wouldn't have learned otherwise. In fact, my whole belief system was changed over the past forty-five years through this contact. I began to do some research on my family and what I learned coupled with what I had experienced in my life literally brought me to tears in gratitude and admiration and hopefully in wisdom. If you like to sit down and listen to stories told by say an old friend, an uncle, or a person with wrinkles on his face, grey in his hair, and a sparkle of wisdom in his eyes coupled with a smile on his face, then you should so bother. If you don't, then stop right here and go pick up and read a book on vampires or loves lost or whatever turns your fancy. My life has been tragic and wondrous, and I have what I call life lessons that I believe you will find helpful in your life. I'll even go so far as to say that given even a fraction of introspection in you, your life will be significantly altered after you've read this book. I know that doesn't sound humble, but I also know this to be true: I have learned, forgot, and made up many a good story. Keep this in mind when you read these chapters: stories compiled within this book. Are they all true? Mostly, with only the most embarrassing events removed. An old retired Air Force fighter pilot once told me, "I have secrets only God and I know, and that's the way it will remain." The strangest journey of my life, and other stories, by F. Pigot Frederick Arnold, 1889

First Love and Other Stories Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 1999 Bringing together six of Turgenev's best-known stories in one volume, this collection includes First Love, Asya, Mumu, The Diary of a Superfluous Man, Song of Triumphant Love, and King Lear of the Steppes. Goodbye My Love and Other Stories Marcus A. Stockton, 2017-11-16 There are two ways that a person can walk in this life. You can either walk into your blessing or walk into your curse. How can you do that? You can do that by doing things that are natural for you to do. Success at anything is not by chance or by luck. It is seeing things you have already been doing brought to fruition. Therefore, successful people are not surprised by their success. They actually knew it would happen before it happened. The blessing is the reward for a life of integrity and commitment to achieving goals and setting standards. What is the curse? It is all the negatives that we curse our lives with: the negative friends, the negative conversations, the negative situations. An unsuccessful person who continues to put himself or herself in those situations, in those conversations, and around those people will bring a curse to their lives that they will never be able to shake. I am grateful for the friends and the relationships that I have been blessed with in my life. They have helped me to overcome all the obstacles of life. And that is what any man needs: incarcerated or free, people who believe in him when no one else in the world does. You Are My Heart and Other Stories Jay Neugeboren, 2011-05-17 Jay

Neugeboren's You Are My Heart is an object lesson in imaginative empathy and observational intelligence. His fiction for years now has had the courage to be quiet and careful and comprehensively humane but it's in no way slight. One of his great subjects has been the damage that even the most caring and thoughtful can inflict and though these stories take place all over the world they're at heart about the difference between the America to which we aspire and the America in which we live. Jim Shepard

Jay Neugeboren is an award-winning short story writer who has been applauded as one of the most distinguished writers of our time. With this his fourth collection of short stories he returns to the form that earned him the reputation as a master storyteller. From the secluded villages in the south of France to the cattle crawl in the Valley of a Thousand Hills in South Africa to the hard knock adolescent streets of Brooklyn, Neugeboren examines the great mysteries and complexities that unsettle and comprise human relationships. In works that are as memorable, engrossing and exciting as they are gorgeously crafted, Neugeboren delivers on his reputation as one of our pre-eminent American writers.

Jay Neugeboren is the author of seventeen books including two prize-winning novels The Stolen Jew and Before My Life Began, two award-winning books of nonfiction Imagining Robert and Transforming Madness, and three collections of award-winning stories. His stories have appeared in The Atlantic, Esquire, Virginia Quarterly Review, Best American Short Stories, The O. Henry Prize Stories, and Penguin Modern Stories. He is the only author to have won six consecutive Syndicated Fiction Prizes. He lives in New York City.

How I Taught My Grandmother to Read and other Stories Sudha Murty, 2015-02-06 These are just some of the questions you will find answered in this delightful collection of stories recounting real-life incidents from the life of Sudha Murty, teacher, social worker, and bestselling writer. There is the engaging story about one of her students who frequently played truant from school. The account of how her mother's advice to save money came in handy when she wanted to help her husband start a software company and the heart-warming tale of the promise she made and fulfilled to her grandfather to ensure that her little village library would always be well supplied with books. Funny, spirited and inspiring, each of these stories teaches a valuable lesson about the importance of doing what you believe is right and having the courage to realize your dreams.

Short Stories by Russian Authors Rochelle S. Townsend, 1924 The Getaway, and Other Stories Dorothy Thomas, 2002-01-01 Hard-hitting and humorous, these twelve short stories challenge convention and stereotypes about country folk living in Western Nebraska. Original.

The Kreutzer Sonata and Other Stories Leo Tolstoy,Louise Maude,1998 To love him was not enough for me after the happiness I had felt in falling in love I wanted movement and not a calm course of existence I wanted excitement and danger and the chance to sacrifice myself for my love Leo Tolstoy known to the world for his famous novels also created throughout his sixty year career as a writer a significant body of works of shorter fiction These fictions like his novels tend toward a uniqueness in form even as they explore a set of themes common in the longer works The four novellas selected here stand closest to the novels and represent Tolstoy at his creative best exploring in a specific and focused way his characteristic themes life understood as a journey of the discovery of identity and vocation the meaning of one's life in the face of death and the redemptive role of suffering and compassion Family Happiness 1859 traces the psychology of failed married love yet is written against the tradition of the novel of romance marriage and adultery The Kreutzer Sonata 1889 recounts a husband's addictions jealousy sinister guilt and subsequent isolation while The Cossacks 1863 focuses on the experiences of a young Russian on in the Caucasus whose quest for romantic love becomes one for the love of the whole of God's world Finally the superbly crafted Hadji Murad 1905 juxtaposes the military and civilian worlds and relates a tale of the human violation of the natural through a series of parallel episodes Written over a period of almost fifty years these works display Tolstoy's changing views on art and sexuality women and marriage nationalism and ethnicity war and empire All four novellas develop each in its own unique way the central Tolstoyan theme of love This edition which updates a classic translation has explanatory notes and a substantial introduction based on the most recent scholarship in the field

The Picture Frame, and Other Stories Robert Drake, 2000 In this book of stories most never before published Robert Drake has written his most poignant collection thus far With the theme of the picture frame Drake has included people places and events of a most recent past Crowded in the picture are unforgettable images of memory and grace love and remorse But more than the characters and the subjects of the story the draw of this collection is once again Drake's use of language The language is the language of the South It is the language of humanity While the stories look back they do so without regret They were great times but so is the present From the town of Woodville to St Mark's Square in Venice Drake's powerful language draws the reader not only into the book but also into the photographs

A marriage settlement. Modeste Mignon, and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1901

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Other Stories Robert Louis Stevenson, 2008-10-30 How thin is the line between good and evil Discover the classic tale of gothic horror Dr Jekyll has been experimenting with his identity He has developed a drug which separates the two sides of his nature and allows him occasionally to abandon himself to his most corrupt inclinations as the monstrous Mr Hyde But gradually he begins to find that the journey back to goodness becomes more and more difficult and the risk that Mr Hyde will break free entirely from Dr Jekyll's control puts all of London in grave peril

Stars In My Pocket and Other Stories Julie Khristie, 2022-12-01 This heartwarming book that speaks about hope and healing comes in a collection of short stories that deal with love and loss death and deliverance We journey through life carrying with us the stories that we do not readily share to others And so we live endure and patiently go through the humdrum routine of this world But it is in the mundane things that change often happens for deliverance always comes to hearts who hold on to hope Sometimes deliverance comes through mere acceptance Sometimes it comes through a person a place a circumstance or sometimes it comes solely through the welcoming of hope And often it comes garbed not in an extravagant declaration but in a simple and quiet realization Begin again dream again live again These are the stars we carry in our pockets A Moment of Madness and Other Stories Florence Marryat, 1883
