My Life As A Leyland Brother:

My Life as a Leyland Brother Mike Leyland, 2003-01-01 Autobiographical account of author's part in the Leyland Brothers World venture Discusses modest beginnings as children of British migrants the success and popularity of the Leyland Brothers documentary series the ultimate collapse of this venture and a family divided Includes colour photos Author has previously co authored titles with his brother based on their television programs He continues to make documentaries for the Seven network     Still Travelling Mal Leyland, 2015-03-24 At a time when the outback was still a forbidding remote frontier the Leyland brothers brought it into people's homes through their many documentaries and successful television series In doing so they persuaded thousands of Aussies out on to the road starting the four wheel drive revolution and contributing to a huge recreational industry Neil McDonald Herald Sun Mike and Mal Leyland's first step towards becoming beloved Aussie icons came with the screening of their hazardous trip down the length of the Darling River in a five metre aluminium dinghy They went on to have numerous adventures culminating in their ground breaking TV series Ask the Leyland Brothers in which they travelled to unusual or far flung places around Australia at viewers requests In this revealing memoir Mal Leyland takes us through his eventful life from his ten pound Pom immigrant childhood adventuring with Mike through outback Australia the brothers sometimes stormy relationship their dramatic rise to success as filmmakers their devastating financial losses Mal's triumph over cancer to his ongoing travels with his beloved wife of 45 years Laraine Ever the adventurer Mal Leyland has continued to explore our beautiful and dangerous country Still Travelling is his compelling account of a life lived to the full     A Window Seat to My Life April Bourne, 2020-12-21 I have combined my travels with stories that happened during my life as so often when you see or hear something you instantly recall a situation from previous times I have been as honest as I can be from my perspective and have pulled no punches in these reflections If you read this and can relate in a positive way then I am happy     Back on Track Bernie Shakeshaft, James Knight, 2019-07-09 As a kid Bernie Shakeshaft's mischievous and reckless behaviour led him to become known as the wild one of his devout Catholic family It isn't surprising that his path led him to the Northern Territory a place where people often go to either lose themselves or find themselves Bernie a searcher for his purpose in life found himself He had many jobs firstly as a ringer on a cattle station owned by the Packer family and later as a dingo trapper for the Parks and Wildlife Service Throughout it all he drank he swore he fought and took chances with his own well being But crucially he also developed deep connections with the Indigenous people and it was these connections that helped lay the foundations for what was to come He worked for youth welfare organisations and all the while he built up his knowledge about helping wayward youths particularly those from Indigenous communities Years later Bernie was living in Armidale He'd been visiting too many kids in prison and going to too many funerals The usual methods weren't working so that reckless mischievous kid inside him decided he could do better He started a youth program called BackTrack with three aims To keep them alive out of jail and chasing their hopes and dreams For most this was their last chance Combining life skills education job preparedness with rural work Bernie threw in one other factor dogs And it works With the help of these working dogs the lost boys and girls find their way back on track These days Backtrack youth tour the country competing in dog jumping trials Bernie and the BackTrack team are now supporting other communities in Lake Cargelligo Broken Hill Dubbo and Grafton and have forged a new beginning for over 1000 young people This one man is making a huge difference In Back on Track bestselling author James Knight tells Bernie s story and the stories of those whose lives he has saved It is a powerful reminder that we should never give up on our kids This fella Bernie he s a good fella a bit of a genius really What a great story Russell Crowe     Your Story Matters Leslie Leyland Fields,2020-04-07 Your story is bigger than you know From its tiniest details to its most dramatic events your story is a sacred gift worthy of attention But how do you find and tell that story In this practical liberating guide based on her thirty years of writing and teaching Leslie Leyland Fields will lead you step by step in exploring your past and shaping your memories into vivid compelling stories With writing exercises to help you dive deeper into your story you ll discover new spiritual truths reclaim the past share hope and pass on your own extraordinary legacy Understanding God s work in our stories is a vital part of our faith Not just a book for writers this practical and inspiring book teaches us how to sift through our experiences to find the places we have witnessed God in our journey the mysterious the tragic the miraculous and the ordinary Find even more inspiration and guidance with Your Story for His Glory a companion video curriculum available online or in DVD format Leslie was not only my first writing mentor she continues to mentor me with the way she lives her life and shapes it into an unforgettable story that gives hope and gives God the glory Ann Voskamp New York Times bestselling author Leslie has a deep commitment to writing life giving words This book promises to prompt the best out of storytellers and creatives Max Lucado New York Times bestselling author Personal and profound inspirational and practical God focused and with its feet firmly placed on the ground this is a necessary and beautiful book for anyone and everyone Brett Lott New York Times bestselling author director of MFA program at the College of Charleston     The Cinema of Me Alisa Lebow,2012 When a filmmaker makes a film with herself as a subject she is already divided as both the subject matter of the film and the subject making the film The two senses of the word are immediately in play the matter and the maker thus the two ways of being subjectified as both subject and object Subjectivity finds its filmic expression not surprisingly in very personal ways yet it is nonetheless shaped by and in relation to collective expressions of identity that can transform the cinema of me into the cinema of we Leading scholars and practitioners of first person film are brought together in this groundbreaking collection to consider the theoretical ideological and aesthetic challenges wrought by this form of filmmaking in its diverse cultural geographical and political contexts     My Life, My Times, My Poems John Anthony Banfield,2009-01-29 John s life started at the beginning of World War Two when he was evacuated from London as a baby to various homes in the South of England Some were very good homes but others were a nightmare     Conversations with

Christopher Isherwood Christopher Isherwood, 2001 To many readers Christopher Isherwood means Berlin The author of Goodbye to Berlin 1939 the British Isherwood found fame through the adaptation of that work into the stage play and film I Am a Camera and then into the stage musical and film Cabaret Throughout his career he was a keen observer always seemingly in the right place at the right time Whether in Berlin in the 1930s or in Los Angeles in the 1960s and 1970s Isherwood 1904-86 reflected on his life and his world and wrote perceptive commentary on contemporary European and American history and culture His ties to California made him more American than British I have spent half my life in the United States he said Los Angeles is a great place for feeling at home because everybody's from someplace else Isherwood can be credited for helping make L A an acceptable setting for serious fiction paving the way for John Rechy Joan Didion Paul Monette and Bernard Cooper among others The interviews in this volume two of which have never before been published stretch over a period of forty years They address a wide range of topics including the importance of diary keeping to his life and work the interplay between fiction and autobiography his turning from Christianity to Hinduism his circle of friends including W H Auden Aldous Huxley and E M Forster several important places in his life Berlin England and California and his homosexual identity These interviews are substantive smart and insightful allowing the author to discuss his approach to writing of both fiction and nonfiction More and more he explains writing is appearing to me as a kind of self analysis a finding out of something about myself and about the past and about what life is like as far as I'm concerned who I am who these people are what it's all about This emphasis on self discovery comes as no surprise from a writer who mined his own diaries and experiences for inspiration As an interviewee Isherwood is introspective thoughtful and humorous James J Berg is the program director for the Center for Teaching and Learning Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Chris Freeman is an assistant professor of English at St John's University Berg and Freeman are editors of The Isherwood Century Essays on the Life and Work of Christopher Isherwood which was a finalist for the 2001 Lambda Literary Award for Gay Studies

The Wide World Magazine, 1906      The Detour Robert Butterworth, 2005 The Detour is a fascinating journey through eight worlds in seven chapters Not strictly an autobiography it provides glimpses of a Lancashire childhood in pre war and wartime Leyland and the Roman Catholicism of that time and place There follows the wider world of grammar school and the author's first contact with the Jesuits and then that of the novitiate which he aptly calls Out of this World so surreal and strange does it now appear He then contrasts the liberating world of Oxford with its tutors and general openness with the rigid spiritual philosophical and theological worlds that belonged to what he calls Jesuitism After protracted studies he held responsible posts at Heythrop College for over ten years where he played a major role in its move to become part of the University of London After a further decade as Head of Theology and Religious Studies at the Roehampton Institute Robert Butterworth is now enjoying married life in domestic retirement cooking studying Greek classical writers and exploring his new world of personal reflection which has led him to propose some practical and challenging principles for the reinterpretation and revision of Roman Catholic tradition The whole story makes for a riveting read with a rare combination of elegance depth and contemporary relevance Is Tehran Burning? , Athenaeum ,1890 Get a Life John L. Werrill,2006-05-01 Autobiographical writing has a particular value as a literary form especially when as seems clear the written style is quite to the point lucid and communicates well The richly detailed and colorful account of the life loves and friendships built up around the most extraordinary life of John L Werrill The panorama of experience trials determination effort to succeed in a worldly competitive arena is richly textured well observed and not without more than the usual touch of spice and intrigue No matter what obstacle the writer seldom says no to anything especially on any or all challenges that he faces along the way compelling the reader to remain with him as each incident unravels Working up the chain of command in a ship's galley John's efforts are relentless imaginative creative inspiring and not without his inherent humor which carries him over many seemingly insurmountable issues and ongoing incidents Seldom he is boring and slow to think plus without a definitive plan of future life we can learn a good lesson of achievement and a sense of purpose as one reads From one arena to the other aboard cruise liner's of mammoth proportions the Chef de Cuisine is held in high regard as well he should and John continues on his helter skelter journey to the eventual pinnacle but not without stark reminders of daily life's realities unfazed by many who would prefer the home comforts he left behind To luxury spacious yachts with no limits on time demand and satisfaction for the very rich and some famous we get a very rare insight into the daily goings on both on shore in sumptuous homes around the globe Sailing to parts unknown on a whim Immaculate turn out undeniable hilarity to keep one guessing from the beginning to the end One might very well feel out of breath when you have read it Book Reviews I found this book to be quite delightful In all of Mr Werrill's travels and experiences given his writing style I felt I was right there with him In his colorful and careful descriptions of his life one was left with a feeling of what's next for this very adventurous gentleman He left me with a sense of my own personal longing to write of my adventures Who knows perhaps you'll have another interesting book to publish one day I thoroughly enjoyed this read and certainly would buy any future books written by Mr Werrill Marlene Cooper Williams Readers Comments 1 Uproarious antics and escapades with shipmates employers colleagues and lovers 2 Rivals and surpasses Benny Hill in being rather risqué and absolutely hilarious 3 Always the sense of family especially Mother Louise 4 Uncanny ability to think on his feet to avert nearly all matters of trouble virtually rendering himself unscathed nearly every time 5 Strong sense of faith and three true loves Beverly Kirsten and mother 6 One event after another stealing your breath one moment with an OMG then total laughter 7 Life onboard ship private yachts and in the servitude of some of San Francisco's wealthiest 8 Left with the feeling of having been that fly on the wall witnessing one man's life that goes beyond all others 9 When asked Is there anything you have not done anywhere you have not been and anyone you have not met the simple answer would be NO 10 John L Werrill should receive an honorary professorship and hit the lecture circuit especially at the commencement of universities he simply has so much to share of life experiences which most people could not possibly envision 11 An unbelievable sense of sadness upon Mr Werrill's admission of a deep depression as he searches for his true SELF 12 Having been there done that from top to bottom front to back and in between there is renewal 13 Yes there should be a movie but who would play this      The Infernal World of Branwell Brontë Daphne du Maurier, 2013-12-17 Pursued by the twin demons of drink and madness Branwell Bronte created a private world that was indeed infernal As a bold and gifted child his promise seemed boundless to the three adoring sisters over whom his rule was complete But as an adult the precocious flame of genius distorted and burned low With neither the strength nor the resources to counter rejection unable to sell his paintings or publish his books Branwell became a spectre in the Bronte story in pathetic contrast with the astonishing achievements of Charlotte Emily and Anne This is the biography of the shadowy figure of the unknown Bronte Miss du Maurier has brought to the art of the biography the narrative urgency which gives such animation to her storytelling New York Times Book Review      The Life of Lewis Barney as Written by Himself Lewis Barney, 1988 An autobiography of the life of Lewis Barney born 8 Sep 1808 in Cayuga or Chelagian Niagara County New York died 5 Nov 1984 in Mancos Colorado He married Elizabeth Turner 11 Apr 1832 in Ill

Lancashire and Cheshire Historical and Genealogical Notes Josiah Rose, 1879      Maggs Brothers Catalogues Maggs Bros, 1915      Noisy at the Wrong Times Michael Volpe, 2015-09-17 Hugely entertaining and inspiring The Sunday Times One of The Sunday Times 100 biographies to love The inspirational and colourful memoir of Michael Volpe the general manager of Opera Holland Park The son of Italian immigrants he and his brothers were raised by his mother on a council estate in West London before he attended Woolverstone Hall a prestigious state boarding school designed to give bright inner city boys the opportunity of a public school education Set against a backdrop of nuns hit men ice cream vans rugby gangsters strict school masters and music Noisy at the Wrong Times is the vibrant funny inspiring story of a boy who was given a chance though whether he took it or not is another question AS SEEN ON BBC ARTS HIP HOP 2 OPERA      We are Australian (B/W) Linda Brooks, Gail Hennessy, Jo Tregellis, Victoria Norton, 2011-05-17 You know us We are your cousin Alice who tells the story of Nanna's funeral of how all the cars followed Uncle George in the wrong direction while a priest stood by the grave waiting to conduct the burial We are your dad who you visit on warm summer nights and he talks about the old days when he met mum when he worked in the cane fields We are the migrant family next door who laugh till they cry telling of how when they arrived in the fifties they went to the milk bar for a gelati The owner just kept saying Gilletti and offering them razor blades We are the Vietnamese mother who tells you one day how she came to Australia She quietly talks of three weeks at sea in a small boat crammed in with twenty others knees to chest cold wet and hungry We are anyone who has lived in Australia Often our stories will be your stories but some will be strange different some will be funny and others will bring tears We are the story tellers who started with memories that turned into stories We wrote them down and learned the frustration when the words wouldn't come and experienced that magical moment when the words took over and the story wrote itself We became authors Now here we are These are our stories our country s living history     Jobs and Bodies Arthur McIvor, 2023-11-02 In the early 21st century radically changing work locations and patterns have jolted society to reflect more on the ways that employment affects the body and the mind This book provides historical context and insights to aid our understanding of this contemporary crisis critically examining the history of a neglected area In this oral history based study Arthur McIvor explores the history of health and safety from Second World War to the present drawing extensively upon workers own personal stories of occupational accidents disasters injury disease overwork and disability It covers a wide range of workplace issues from stories of TNT poisoning and overwork in wartime through to the asbestos and black lung disasters and the modern day epidemics of stress burn out and Covid 19 Opening conversations surrounding the harms caused by work this book analyses how people have lived with occupational illness and disability critiquing risk and work health cultures and the structural violence characteristic of industrial capitalism and neoliberal economics in addition to discussing the agency of big business and advocacy of workers and victims Focusing on class gender disability and race this book uses an impressive range of secondary and primary sources including government reports and enquiries drawing upon workers testimonies Mine and Factory Inspectors Reports HSE papers newspapers Mass Observation responses and oral history interviews
