My Life With The Headhunters:

My Life with the Headhunters Wyn Sargent, 1976 Everyday Life Among the Head-hunters Dorothy Cator, 1905

In the Land of the Head-hunters Edward S. Curtis, 1915 This semi documentary combines many accurate representations of aspects of Kwakwaka wakw culture art and technology from the era in which it was written with a melodramatic plot based on practices that either dated from long before the first contact of the Kwakwaka wakw with people of European descent or were entirely fictional Curtis appears never to have specifically presented the book as a documentary but he also never specifically called it a work of fiction They Lie, We Lie Peter Metcalf, 2003-09-02 They Lie We Lie is an attempt by an experienced fieldworker to engage recent critiques in ethnography that is the writing of culture made both from within anthropology and from such disciplines as cultural studies and post colonial theory This is necessary because there has been a polarization within anthropology between those who react dismissively to what Marshall Sahlins calls afterology and those who find the critiques so crippling as to make it hard to get on with anthropology at all Metcalf bridges this divide by analyzing the contradictions of fieldwork in connection with a particular informant a formidable old lady who tried for twenty years to control what he would and would not learn At each stage the author draws out the general implications of his predicament by making comparisons to the most famous of all fieldwork relationships that between Victor Turner and Muchona The result is an account that is accessible to those unfamiliar with the current critiques of ethnography and helpful to those who are only too familiar to them His discussion shows not how to evade the critiques but how in fact anthropologists have coped with the existential dilemmas of fieldwork The Head Hunters of Northern Luzon Cornélis De Witt Willcox, 2019-11-25 In The Head Hunters of Northern Luzon Cornélis De Witt Willcox traverses the complex tapestry of the Igorot tribes diving deep into their intricate social structures cultural practices and the historical context of head hunting Combining ethnographic detail with vivid narrative style Willcox weaves a compelling account that captures the essence of a society shaped by fierce traditions and colonial influences His writing transcends mere documentation aiming instead to foster a deep understanding of the indigenous peoples worldviews amid the encroaching modernity of the early 20th century Cornélis De Witt Willcox was an American anthropologist and historian whose field studies in the Philippines were influenced by his commitment to preserving the voices of marginalized cultures during a time of significant transformation His profound respect for the Igorot peoples and their customs is evident in his meticulous research and empathetic portrayal of their realities a reflection of his broader academic endeavors in ethnology and cross cultural analyses This work is highly recommended for readers interested in anthropology post colonial studies and the cultural dynamics of Southeast Asia Willcox's vivid storytelling and insightful observations encourage a greater appreciation of the complexities inherent in indigenous cultures making it an essential read for anyone seeking to understand the multifaceted narratives that define human history Women of Spirit Katherine Martin, 2010-10-06 These stories reveal the way the world has always been made better by individuals who courageously follow their heart's inner wisdom. At a moment in history when the tide of events seems determined by faceless governments and corporations, we need these examples of individual action more than ever.

With the Dyaks of Borneo: A Tale of the Head Hunters F. S. Brereton, 2023-10-22 F. S. Brereton's With the Dyaks of Borneo: A Tale of the Head Hunters is a thrilling adventure novel that is set in the mysterious and dangerous jungles of Borneo. The book follows the story of a group of explorers who find themselves entangled with the indigenous Dyak people, known for their head-hunting practices. Brereton's descriptive writing style brings the lush landscapes of Borneo to life, allowing readers to immerse themselves in the exotic setting of the story. The novel is filled with suspense, action, and cultural insights, making it a captivating read for those interested in adventure literature. Published in 1912, the book is a product of its time, when colonialism and exploration were popular themes in literature. Brereton's firsthand knowledge of the region and its inhabitants adds depth and authenticity to the narrative, providing a glimpse into a world that was largely unknown to Western audiences. With the Dyaks of Borneo is a must-read for fans of classic adventure fiction and those fascinated by the cultures of Southeast Asia.

The Head Hunters of Northern Luzon Cornélis De Witt Willcox, 1912 Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice Cara Krmpotich, Alice Stevenson, 2024-07-22 There is a common misconception that collections management in museums is a set of rote procedures or technical practices that follow universal standards of best practice. This volume recognises collections management as a political, critical, and social project involving considerable intellectual labour that often goes unacknowledged within institutions and in the fields of museum and heritage studies. Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice brings into focus the knowledges, value systems, ethics, and workplace pragmatics that are foundational for this work. Rather than engaging solely with cultural modifications such as Indigenous care practices, the book presents local knowledge of place and material which is relevant to how collections are managed and cared for worldwide. Through discussion of varied collection types, management activities, and professional roles, contributors develop a contextualised, reflexive practice for how core collections management standards are conceptualised, negotiated, and enacted. Chapters span national museums in Brazil and Uganda to community-led heritage work in Malaysia and Canada; they explore complexities of numbering, digitisation, and description alongside the realities of climate change, global pandemics, and natural disasters. The book offers a new definition of collections management, travelling from what is done to care for collections to what is done to care for collections and their users. Rather than use being an end goal, it emerges as a starting point to rethink collections work.

Cannibals and Head-hunters Charles H. Watson, 1926 Sylvia, Queen of the Headhunters Philip Eade, 2014-06-03 Documents the story of the world's first white Ranee, the controversial consort of Sir Vyner Brooke, covering her relationship with her family, her role as her husband's private secretary, her decadence, and her literary achievements.

Human Behavior, 1974 Go Now! Wendell Martin, 2023-08-01 Go Now! is the true story of Wendell Martin and the amazing adventure he found himself caught up in when he dared to answer God's call to Go to Hong Kong Now The book is filled with bold faith and miracle stories that take you among the wild head hunters in northern Philippines to Communist China where Wendell and his wife Daisy made over 1000 border crossings with suitcases loaded with Bibles It is the story of how God miraculously opened the way to deliver the gospel into every home in Hong Kong and the surprising miracle that launched a ministry among thousands of Vietnamese Boat People detained in refugee camps in Hong Kong However this book is more than just amazing missionary stories Wendell gives you an intimate inside look at how God worked deep in his heart the lessons learned in God s School of Hard Knocks and how the power of God rescued a discontented young man and crafted him into an effective tool for His service The Richard Deming Mystery

Divine Rite of Kings Land Race Same Sex and Empire in Mormonism and the Esoteric Tradition is a social historical political analysis of the religion of the Latter day Saints as deeply indebted to a variety of esoteric systems of belief It argues that the present campaign against gay marriage and other homophobic policies of the American religion targeting the LGBTQ community and indeed children of same sex parents are connected to erstwhile racial doctrines and practices which excluded persons from full fellowship on the basis of race alone Africans the supposed offspring of Cain and Canaan and thus cursed Narrow heterosexual notions of sexual purity merely replaced Anglo Saxon supremacist notions of racial purity in the imperial and the millennial understanding of Mormonism The new heterosexism this book suggests can be viewed as a form of boundary maintenance better suited to an emergent international church and world religion ironically which continues to make inroads in parts of Asia where its social conservatism and indeed virulent attacks against the gay and lesbian lifestyle continue to attract followers With the Dyaks of Borneo: A Tale of the Head Hunters Frederick Brereton,2017-05-02 Head
