The Widow's Mite and Other Psychic Phenomena Isaac Kaufman Funk,1911 Runaway Rose Epstein,2010-03-27 Much to Tom s surprise it was Gail who started a conversation he had been rehearsing all day Tom never expected this conversation so soon He figured maybe when they were back at home for a few days so he was taken aback and unready for such serious talk But Gail brought it up Tom I need to tell you how sorry I am for the way I acted the past few days I didn t know what hit me but I had a lot of time to think about it and realize I m jealous Remember how during the summer my dad and mother always took a week off on their boat by themselves Mom always said it was a great time for them It was as though they had run away That s the way I ve been feeling that we should run away once in a while Yes but you ruined that for them one year when they had their boat on Block Island You did get jealous and made believe it was just a day trip to surprise them We took the ferry from the mainland and joined them with the three kids I think it was a shock to them but they really made us feel comfortable and we stayed aboard with them for a few days Tom that was a long time ago and we only had the two boys at the time and my father was always glad to spend time with them Gail we ruined their runaways after that year They never went off without some of their kids relatives or friends with them Tom continued Somehow or other there were always people with them except when they took that cruise for their twenty fifth anniversary Mom was a little disappointed by the ship I think she had a more luxurious type in mind It was February and the weather was awful Just remember what a disaster that cruise turned out to be Yes they could have died when that rogue wave hit the ship they were really lucky But they had a good time anyway In a way I m still jealous We just had our twenty fifth and couldn t get away Too much paperwork to get the boys registered for college and it costs a ton of money Allison s parochial school tuition is not much but she will be graduating soon and we ll have another college kid to worry about I think we ll never be able to afford a real vacation We don t have a real life of our own anymore Remember when we used to go down to Second Beach in Newport spend the days on the rocks and run through the surf We sure didn t have a care in the world How did we get bogged down with all this responsibility Good question answered Gail We were teenagers and now we re grown ups We got married we both worked hard bought our house had kids bought cars made the house bigger the kids got sick from time to time I had an operation and we had to take care of all those animals And our circle of friends kept getting larger Then there are our families you know how close I am with my sisters and brother You only have your brother who we don t see too often his two children will probably be getting married soon and our extended family will just keep getting larger Gail we are still working hard maybe harder since the boys started college It s not family responsibility that comes between us You re forgetting that your high powered job not only keeps you away from home a lot and you really work more hours a day than I do Also you make so much more money than I do that you are the main breadwinner Not that I m complaining but sometimes it just seems as though it doesn t matter if I work or not Tom you re wrong It s your income that puts us over the top We seem to spend every cent I earn and it s your earnings that give us a really good life I realized how important your income was when you were sick last year and couldn t work for six months Sick I wasn t sick I had a little stroke That is worse than just being sick I don t know if or when it could happen again and it changes the way I think about things Life is so tenuous We never know what will come next Before we know it both our wi

Jud Jud Heathcote, Jack Ebling, 1995-10-01 With a career record of 420 273 and an MSU mark of 340 220 Jud Heathcote has more than stood the test of time upon his retirement he was the fifth winningest coach in Big Ten history He directed the Spartans to the 1979 NCAA championship three Big Ten titles and seven 20 win seasons He was named National Coach of the Year by his peers in 1990 and earned similar honors from national publications as the Jud Farewell Tour swept the Midwest For the 1994 95 campaign the Spartans finished 14 4 in the Big Ten and 22 6 overall quincy adams sawyor charles felton pidgin, 1900 Hazel Wolf Susan Starbuck, 2011-12-01 When Hazel Wolf died at the age of 101 more than nine hundred of her friends from the governor of Washington to union organizers from birdwatchers to hunters crowded Town Hall in Seattle to honor the feisty activist and tell the often outrageous Hazel stories that were their common currency In this book Hazel herself tells the stories From twenty years of taped conversations Susan Starbuck has fashioned both a biography and a historical document the tale of a century s forces and events as played out in one woman s extraordinary life Hazel Wolf earned a national reputation as an environmentalist and was awarded the National Audubon Society s Medal of Excellence an honor she shared with Rachel Carson and Jimmy Carter She laid the groundwork for a unique coalition of Native Americans and environmentalists who are now working together on issues related to nuclear energy fisheries and oil pipelines She lectured and taught at schools and universities all over the United States She lobbied Congress on irrigation labor rights nuclear energy and peace and she corresponded with a global network of environmental leaders But for all her influence she never held a political post higher than precinct committee officer in Seattle s 43rd legislative district and her highest office in the environmental movement was that of secretary in the Seattle Audubon Society where she served for thirty five years This book follows Hazel Wolf from childhood to old age a lifetime of burning with a fierce desire for justice She saw the quest for justice as a collective responsibility Time and again she met that challenge head on Whether organizing for labor rights or founding chapters of the Audubon Society battling to save old growth forests or fighting deportation to her native Canada as a communist over and over she put herself in the line of fire I was just there she said powerless and strong someone who wouldn't chicken out Surviving the
