by Detective Joe Reyes who is later killed as he was only moments away from finding out the truth for Maria and Lavette. The two are at the illustrious Waldorf Astoria when Maria's dreams of finally seeing her mother come true. She has spoken to her mother and told her everything that is going on. Maria assures Lavette that all will be safe now and they have nothing to worry about. However, with the string of Maria's bad luck lately, she is soon to find out that is not even close to the truth. Maria's mother, Detective Carmen Paris, knocks on the door of the room and before Maria can open it, they receive a phone call telling her not to open the door. Maria's mother is being held at gun point and the plan was to shoot her the minute Maria opened the door. Once Maria received the news, she obeyed and watched through the peephole as her mother's life was taken right in front of her. Maria opened the door to watch the other detective, Cedric Hooker, flee behind the gunman. Carmen's last words to Maria were "I'm sorry I never told you." In order for Maria to cope with what is happening, she is assigned two guards to stand outside her room 24/7 and now has the current Chief of Police, Mrs. Gloria Reynolds, by her side every step of the way. Maria's aunt, Mirtha, is also by her side, explaining to Maria the secrets of why her mother got killed and who could have possibly been behind it. When Mirtha explains to Maria that her mother was a twin, the notion floors Maria, making her angry at the thought of her mother keeping a secret from her. Maria always thought the two of them were so close. Mirtha sees Maria's apprehension and quickly reassures her that her mother had nothing but the best intentions for her. Carmen's sister, Antonia, was a product of an adulterous relationship that their mother had and when their father found out, he banished Antonia from the family, forcing her into prostitution and drugs. Carmen found this out and went looking for her sister only to find her father, Luis Paris. The Detective's Garden Janyce Stefan-Cole, 2016-08-22. The Detective's Garden A Love Story and Meditation on Murder is set in Brooklyn in 1995. Originally from Slovenia, ex-NYPD Homicide Detective Emil Milosec, a man with a past poised to reclaim him, is perennially on the outside. Elena, his beauty of a wife, has died, but she has filled pages of letters to him which he has so far refused to read. Elena always remained elusive to him and she still is. An ugly discovery among the leafy haven of their backyard garden unsettles the uneasy truce Emil has managed since Elena's death. A lively cast of local characters, a dark history, and an international mystery all inform the story. Underpinning events are a heat wave, the Brooklyn housing bubble, a gun that goes off, and a smattering of science. A little bit Sophocles, a dash of Shakespeare, and tablespoons of Old Testament go into a brew that is both contemplative and neo-noirish. The Almost Moon Alice Sebold, 2007-10-16.
