Memoirs of an Indo Woman Marguérite Schenkhuizen, 1994 The memoirs of Margu rite Schenkhuizen provide an overview of practically the whole of the twentieth century as experienced by persons of mixed Dutch and Indonesian ancestry who lived in the former Dutch East Indies The memoirs provide vignettes of Indonesian life both rural and urban as seen through the eyes of the author first as a girl then as a wife separated from her husband during the Japanese occupation finally as an immigrant to the United States after World War II This self portrait gives glimpses of the life of Indos from inside their society glimpses that are valuable for their descendants as well as for outsiders Written with humor and a positive tone Schenkhuizen's story sets aside the myth that Indos were denied access to the upper layers of Dutch colonial society or were otherwise disadvantaged Instead her life story provides an authentic view of a vital Indo culture and experience that has been unavailable to the general reader of English

A Dutchman at Large, Memoirs Johan Fabricius, 1952 Fetish, Recognition, Revolution James T. Siegel, 2021-01-12 This book concerns the role of language in the Indonesian revolution James Siegel an anthropologist with long experience in various parts of that country traces the beginnings of the Indonesian revolution which occurred from 1945 through 1949 and which ended Dutch colonial rule to the last part of the nineteenth century At that time the peoples of the Dutch East Indies began to translate literature from most places in the world Siegel discovers in that moment a force within communication more important than the specific messages it conveyed The subsequent containment of this linguistic force he calls the fetish of modernity which like other fetishes was thought to be able to compel events Here the event is the recognition of the bearer of the fetish as a person of the modern world The taming of this force in Indonesian nationalism and the continuation of its wild form in the revolution are the major subjects of the book Its material is literature from Indonesian and Dutch as well as first person accounts of the revolution
