My Neighbor My Enemy:

My Neighbor, My Enemy Eric Stover,Harvey M. Weinstein,2004-12-02 My Neighbour My Enemy tackles a crucial and highly topical issue how do countries rebuild after ethnic cleansing and genocide And what role do trials and tribunals play in social reconstruction and reconciliation By talking with people in Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia and carrying out extensive surveys the authors explore what people think about their past and the future Their conclusions controversially suggest that international or local trials have little relevance to reconciliation Communities understand justice far more broadly than it is defined by the international community and the relationship of trauma to a desire for trials is not clear cut The authors offer an ecological model of social reconstruction and conclude that coordinated multi systemic strategies must be implemented if social repair is to occur Finally the authors suggest that while trials are essential to combat impunity and punish the guilty their strengths and limitations must be acknowledged , Dietrich Bonhoeffer Larry L.

the importance of political judgment and investigations that examine complicity in and resistance to systematic atrocities
