Australian National Bibliography ,1988 No Other Help I Know Shirley Brantley, 2006-06-01 In a homespun vernacular all her own Shirley Brantley narrates this true tale of struggle and triumph Her debut novel No Other Help I Know is set in the early sixties in the rural south It centers on a family who is looking up and reaching out and holding on to the only thing that sustains them their faith in God and themselves Deeply rooted in the African American tradition the message transcends cultural and racial divides with a universal truth For every high there is a low and for every mountain top there is a valley experience We are always in pursuit of our higher selves Largely autobiographical the story begins with Jeane Brockton en route to her hometown of Pendelton South Carolina During this sentimental journey the scenes along the countryside cause intense memories to emerge evoking a telling of her childhood that lends itself to the heart of traditional fiction theory in the process drawing also on the relatively recent field of animal studies By focusing on multiple registers of Woolf's uses of nature the author paves the way for more extended research in modernist practices natural history garden and landscape studies and lesbian queer studies Gleanings in Bee Culture ,1915 The Garden ,1875 Botany Bulletin Queensland.
