Essentials of Universalism all published by O Books These 100 verse selections confirm that his Baroque vision is inspired by the 17th century by the Metaphysical poets Milton and Dryden but also by the 18th and 19th centuries by Pope Wordsworth and Tennyson

Visions of England Nicholas Hagger,2019-01-25 In 1999 while working as his Literary Secretary the Earl of Burford a descendant of the 3rd Earl of Southampton Shakespeare's patron and of the 17th Earl of Oxford and heir to the Dukedom of St Albans made a selection of Nicholas Hagger's poems that celebrates places in England conveys his mystical awareness of the unity of the universe and places him in the visionary tradition of William Blake the poet of Jerusalem and England's green and pleasant land Soon after Visions of England was completed the Earl of Burford came to international attention when he leapt onto the Woolsack of the House of Lords in a principled protest against the Blair Government's plan to abolish hereditary peers voting rights which led to 92 remaining in the Lords A few months later he left Nicholas Hagger's employ and the selection was buried under papers for nearly 20 years In 2018 Nicholas Hagger came across Visions of England while preparing papers to send to his archive It now seemed as if the selection had been made with Brexit in mind The places are full of English history and culture and the poems are prophetic in their anticipation of England's new spirit of independence These poems convey Englishness with a freshness and vividness that startle The Earl of Burford is a prominent lecturer and biographer and his selection is noteworthy for the metaphysical perspective he brings out in Nicholas Hagger's profound poems whose traditional qualities constantly surprise and delight

The Life of Robert Burns James Currie,1838

Reimagining Narrative Therapy Through Practice Stories and Autoethnography Travis Heath,Tom Stone Carlson,David Epston,2022-06-19 Reimagining Narrative Therapy Through Practice Stories and Autoethnography takes a new pedagogical approach to teaching and learning in contemporary narrative therapy based in autoethnography and storytelling The individual client stories aim to paint each therapeutic meeting in such detail that the reader will come to feel as though they actually know the two or more people in the room This approach moves beyond the standard narrative practice of teaching by transcripts and steps into teaching narrative therapy through autoethnography The intention of these teaching tales is to offer the reader an opportunity to enter into the very heart and soul of narrative therapy practice much like reading a novel has you enter into the lives of the characters that inhabit it This work has been used by the authors in MA and PhD level classrooms workshops week long intensive courses and conferences around the world where it has received commendations from both newcomer and veteran narrative therapists The aim of this book is to introduce narrative therapy and the value of integrating autoethnographic methods to students and new clinicians It can also serve as a useful tool for advanced teachers of narrative practices In addition it will appeal to established clinicians who are curious about narrative therapy who may be looking to add it to their practice as well as students and scholars of autoethnography and qualitative inquiry and methods

My Inner Whisper Dr. Santosh Kumar J. Mishra, Dear readers As we are aware that poetry is the expression of human life from times eternal I too pretend to be instrumental to express the truth and beauty of life in my surrounding I have perceived In fact our country has a long tradition of creating arts and poetry from ages I wish to reveal my reactions and responses to the things and the incidences happening around me in cosmopolitan city comprising of prismatic view of lives varying in language rituals and life styles but creating an amazing combination of diversity and unity Through My Inner Whisper I open my heart to sing to voice and represent the sentiments and ethos of our contemporary Indian societal cultural space It is very true that no true poet can escape from the tradition that haunts him to conceptualize the arising challenges and the sufferings the humanity goes through In the same way with the same vein I too am being haunted to encapsulate my experiences in words that I went through I too dream to seek beauty and order in my words to acquire the dreams of my nation and society The radical past stored in my deeper consciousness what the psychologist Jung calls the blocked off radical unconscious swells the poetic seed in me to germinate and develop the literary instinct that inspired me to come up with this poetry collection At the same time I as a poet cannot escape the present because I subsist in it and belong to it that forced me to come with certain poems reflecting the arising crisis of religion and the spirituality The best part of it is that I located myself at the place of a poet tried my level best to relate the immediate present to the living past and in possible intent to the future that is in the process of becoming We as a poet encounter the present experience the past and envision the future projecting all in our creative literary space My this English poem collection entitled as My Inner Whisper evolves from the contemporary experiences that I interfaced as the process of modernization comprising of mass migration urbanization industrialization mobility independence social changes and increased communication and emerging challenges of common people in metropolitan and cosmopolitan space It aims to express the contemporary issues with greater intensity and of certain attitudes and values believed by Indian society wholly urban of middle class I in my poetic spirit find myself very realistic and analytical in my expression and experiences that sometimes may turn individualized My past memories experiences and encounters with life pleasing and unpleasing sometimes succeeded while at almost of times failed are the sites of my poetic quest and exploration to understand the life with its best endeavor I within my poetic vein sincerely attempted to go in for precision at all my levels With the hope that this poetic volume would render delight and yield mental ease to my all the readers I look forward for your overwhelmed responses that definitely will encourage me for other piece of creative works I am confident enough to state that your appreciation would be a fresh source of energy for my poetic strength that will definitely find an expression in other of my creative space Dr Santosh Kumar J Mishra Mumbai Diary of a Newlywed Poet Juan Ramón Jiménez, 2004 The Diary is an innovative and complex work of both prose and poetry It stands among the first works of prose in the Spanish language to capture the images and urban landscapes of New York City revealing as well surprising degrees of modernity and social sensitivity It is equally innovative in its cultivation of free verse and historically important for introducing for the first time in Spanish literature a new mode of poetic composition Jacket Poems That Propel the Planet Paul Davis, 2007-06 This volume of prophetic poems focuses on the idea that the love of people must surpass the love of power Love liberation and reconciliation is what the world needs Motivation Vibrant Death Nina Lykke, 2021-12-16 Vibrant Death links philosophy and poetry based corpo affectively grounded knowledge seeking It offers a radically new materialist theory of death critically moving the philosophical argument beyond Christian and secular mechanistic understandings The book s ethico political figuration of vibrant death is shaped through a pluriversal conversation between Deleuzean philosophy neo vitalist materialism and the spiritual materialism of decolonial queerfeminist poet and scholar Gloria Anzaldua The book s posthuman deexceptionalizing of human death unfurls together with a collection of poetry and autobiographical stories They are analysed through the lens of a posthuman queerfeminist revision of the method of autophenomenography phenomenological analysis of autobiographical material Nina Lykke explores the speaking position of a mourning queerfeminine I who contemplates the relationship with her dead beloved lesbian life partner She reflects on her enactment of processes of co becoming with the phenomenal and material traces of the deceased body and the new assemblages with which it has merged through death s material metamorphoses becoming ashes through cremation and becoming mixed with algae sand when the ashes were scattered across a seabed made of fiftyfive million year old fossilized algae It is argued that the mourning I s intimate bodily empathizing theorized as symphysizing with her deceased queermasculine beloved life partner facilitates the processes of vitalist material and spiritual material co becoming and the rethinking of death from a new and different perspective than that of the sovereign philosophical subject
