My Sisters Love My Clothes:

My Sisters Love My Clothes Brendan Hanrahan,1992-06 Louie's five sisters are always borrowing his coolest of clothes but one day while searching for something to wear Louie realizes that his sisters are more important than cool clothes I Love My Sister Shemekia S. Samuels,2013-07-16 This book takes a journey through one young lady's life how she was years away from God and how a basic sense of hearing God's voice allowed her to free herself from what she was meant to be in this world Through allowing Christ to aid her in each stiletto step she was freed and was able to provide an environment for many ladies to be freed as well and walk with rewarding purpose Through the blessings and direction from God she writes with truth and biblical knowledge for you not only to be blessed but also to transform into His way for your life reaping everything that is meant for you Tapestry Jeanette Michelle,2011-11-22 Tapestry is a soap opera style drama based on realistic characters with a splash of fiction Tapestry details the lives of several people of various age groups as well as ethnicity culture religious beliefs and sexual preferences that meet by chance and becomes a part of a social gathering Members of this meet up group have secrets that they try not to reveal that are self evident to each member Each character has a story to share and explanations for their lifestyle and problems A turn of events is suddenly centered on one particular member which changes certain members lifestyle Tapestry also renders the importance of family extended family and close friends The message I'm trying to convey from Tapestry is that we may all be different personalities ethnicity culture religious and political beliefs and or sexual preferences but there shouldn't be a reason why we can't get along This world is a melting pot America is a melting pot and what make us unique are our differences We may not agree all the time but we still should agree to disagree and move on Stop dwelling on the personal lives of people and accept that person for who he or she are Everyone can't live your life but that doesn't mean that I can't like that person or be friends with that person Most often we isolate people or distance ourselves from people all because they're not what you want them to be We also need to understand that everyone is not meant to be the best of friends but that doesn't mean that I shouldn't respect that person This is a new dawn and a new world a world of advanced technology We can conquer countries but we can't live together in this world peacefully We should be more than that This is what this book Tapestry reveals Learning True Love Sister Chan Khong,2007-04-10 Learning True Love the autobiography of Sister Ch n Kh ng stands alongside the great spiritual autobiographies of our century It tells the story of her spiritual and personal odyssey both in her homeland and in exile Its anecdotal style presents an intensely personal portrait of a woman with astonishing courage offering us a perspective on the suffering of the Vietnamese people This unique autobiography tells the gripping story of a woman who not only lived but made history and whose life of single minded dedication to humanity can serve as an inspiration for us all From the foreword by Thich Nhat Hanh and Maxine Hong Kingston Learning True Love is a moving personal memoir an introduction to the mindfulness teachings and life of Thich Nhat Hanh and his community in exile an overview to the development of the European and American peace and human rights movement and an introduction to the engaged and practical style of Vietnamese Buddhism It documents the process that brought an end to the US Vietnam war and gives a lively summary of Vietnamese history from 1945 to the current political social and spiritual climate in Vietnam Learning True Love also portrays some of the many remarkable people that shared Sister Ch n Kh ng s path Foremost however it is the remarkable and impressive story of a very courageous woman whose journey from an accredited biologist at the University of Paris to a Buddhist nun gives her unique insight into life s central questions and the ability to address them in an unflinching and straightforward manner
