No Ceremony:

A Digest of International Law... John Bassett Moore, 1906 Paths and Rivers Rosana Waterson, 2009-01-01

Fieldwork extending over a thirty year period provided materials for this book Paths and Rivers offers an unusually deep and broad picture of the Sa dan Toraja as a society in dynamic transition over the course of the past century The Toraja inhabit the mountainous highlands of South Sulawesi Indonesia and are well known for their dramatic architecture their unusual cliff burials and their flamboyant ceremonial life which places extraordinary economic demands on individuals and families The analysis is informed firstly by a comparative perspective which sets Toraja social structure in the context of the Austronesian world Secondly the author delves deeply into Toraja social memory to show how people think about the past She examines the usefulness of history and myth in the present as a source of identity a template for action or a resource by means of which to claim precedence The book gives a clear picture of the structure and ethos of the indigenous Toraja religion the Aluk To Dolo or Way of the Ancestors with its complex cycle of rituals The book concludes with an analysis of the ceremonial economy which draws upon both domestic subsistence production and the global market economy Paths and Rivers draws together a fascinating picture of one society's journey into modernity Funerary Practices in the Czech Republic Olga Nešporová, 2020-12-04 Exploring the traditions customs and contemporary legal framework of Czech funerary practices this book analyses and interprets the high cremation rate predominance of secular funerals and increasing popularity of cremation with no funeral ceremony against the background of the country's historical development Introduction to the Science of Kinship Murray J. Leaf, Dwight Read, 2020-12-30 In Introduction to the Science of Kinship Murray J Leaf and Dwight Read show how humans use specific systems of social ideas to organize their kinship relations and illustrate what this implies for the science of human social organization Leaf and Read explain that every human society has multiple social organizations each of which is associated with a distinct vocabulary This vocabulary is associated with interrelated definitions of social roles and relations These roles and relations have four specific logical properties reciprocity transitivity boundedness and imaginary spatial dimensionality These properties allow individuals to use them in communication to create ongoing agreed upon organizations This book is recommended for scholars of anthropology sociology linguistics and mathematics Faulkner's Revision of Absalom, Absalom! Gerald Langford, 2015-01-15 Faulkner's Revision of Absalom

Absalom is a study of the creative process as exemplified in one of the major achievements in twentieth century fiction Portions of the original handwritten version of the story are collated line by line with corresponding sections of the published version In an introductory discussion the major changes are analyzed and evaluated It is particularly interesting to observe Faulkner revising not only his choice of words and the construction of his sentences but also the central design of the story Most notably he changed his mind about having it known from the beginning that Charles Bon was Sutpen's part Negro son and he developed Quentin Compson into the pivotal figure who finally supplies this missing piece of information In the process of revision Absalom Absalom became a kind of detective story and the reader is forced to join the quest and participate in the undertaking which is the basic subject of the book the human attempt to comprehend and deal with the past To trace the process of this revision is to experience a sharp focusing of theme and to witness a demonstration of how the meaning of a fictional work can shape its structure and in turn stand revealed by what has become the outward sign or form of that meaning
