World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Irving Brown (Consulting Bibliographer), Natasha Rappaport (Bibliographer), Don Rubin (General Editor), Rosabel Wang (Consulting Bibliographer), 2013-10-11 An annotated world theatre bibliography documenting significant theatre materials published world wide since 1945 plus an index to key names throughout the six volumes of the series General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Volume 5 NA NA, 2019-06-12 Volume 5 provides an account and interpretation of the historical development of the region from around 1930 to the end of the twentieth century Its wide ranging study of the economic political religious social and cultural history of this period brings the series to the authorial present Highlights include the turbulent thirties decolonization the turn to the left made in the 1970s by anglophone Caribbean countries the Castro Revolution and changes in social and demographic structures including ethnicity and race consciousness and the role and status of women Science Policies and Twentieth-Century Dictatorships Amparo Gómez, Antonio Fco. Canales, Brian Balmer, 2016-03-03 Making a fresh contribution to the political history of science this book explores the connections between the science policies of three countries that each experienced considerable political upheaval in the twentieth century Spain Italy and Argentina By focussing on these three countries the contributors are able to present case studies that highlight the characteristics and specificities of the democratic and dictatorial political processes involved in the production of science and technology The focus on dictatorship presents the opportunity to expand our knowledge beyond the more extensive literature about science in Nazi Germany and Stalinist USSR about the level of political involvement of scientists in non democratic contexts and to what extent they act as politicians in different contexts Key topics covered include the new forms of organization and institutionalization of science in the twentieth century the involvement of scientific communities in the governance of science and its institutions the role of ideology in scientific development the scientific practices adopted by scientific communities in different contexts and the characteristics of science and technology produced in these contexts Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Books in Print ,1991 Adapting Spanish Classics for the New Millennium Linda M. Willem,2022-08-30 The twenty first century's turn away from fidelity based adaptations toward more innovative approaches has allowed adapters from Spain Argentina and the United States to draw upon Spain's rich body of nineteenth century classics to address contemporary concerns about gender sexuality race class disability celebrity immigration identity social justice and domestic violence This book provides a snapshot of visual adaptations in the first two decades of the new millennium examining how novelistic material from the past has been remediated for today's viewers through film television theater opera and the graphic novel Its theoretical approach refines the binary view of adapters as either honoring or opposing their source texts by positing three types of adaptation strategies salvaging which preserves old stories by giving them renewed life for modern audiences utilizing which draws upon a pre-existing text for an alternative purpose building upon the story and creating a shift in emphasis without devaluing the source material and appropriation which involves a critique of the source text often with an attempt to dismantle its authority Special attention is given to how adapters address audiences that are familiar with the source novels and those that are not This examination of the vibrant afterlife of classic literature will be of interest to scholars and educators in the fields of adaptation media Spanish literature cultural studies performance and the graphic arts

Beyond Babel Larissa Brewer-García, 2020-08-06 In seventeenth century Spanish America black linguistic interpreters and spiritual intermediaries played key roles in the production of writings about black men and women Focusing on the African diaspora in Peru and the southern continental Caribbean Larissa Brewer García uncovers long ignored or lost archival materials describing the experiences of black Christians in the transatlantic slave trade and the colonial societies where they arrived Brewer García's analysis of these materials shows that black intermediaries bridged divisions among the populations implicated in the slave trade exerting influence over colonial Spanish American writings and emerging racial hierarchies in the Atlantic world The translated portrayals of blackness composed by these intermediaries stood in stark
