International Relations in Latin America Andrea Oelsner, 2013-10-11 This work studies the development of bilateral relations in two pairs of states dyads Argentina Brazil and Argentina Chile It takes on a moderate constructivist approach that incorporates into the analysis of international relations the role of identities ideas and perceptions as well as of material forces and understands that the former are affected and changed during interaction It also uses securitization theory to explain how issues come or cease to be considered security matters through social constructions

Social Inequality & The Politics of Representation Celine-Marie Pascale, 2013 This anthology critically analyzes how cultures around the world make social categories of race class gender and sexuality meaningful in particular ways The collection uses a wide range of readings to examine how contemporary issues of race class gender and sexuality are constructed mobilized and transformed Unlike many books in this area the U S is not analytical center

international relations standard of theorizing by analyzing policy decisions made in non ideal conditions within a broader framework of practical choices emphasizing both historicity and contingency as exemplified by changing practices in the international arena

The Politics of Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Richard Wilson, 2001-05-02 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC was set up to deal with the human rights violations of apartheid during the years 1960-1994 However as Wilson shows the TRC's restorative justice approach to healing the nation did not always serve the needs of communities at a local level Based on extended anthropological fieldwork this book illustrates the impact of the TRC in urban African communities in Johannesburg While a religious constituency largely embraced the commission's religious redemptive language of reconciliation Wilson argues that the TRC had little effect on popular ideas of justice as retribution This provocative study deepens our understanding of post apartheid South Africa and the use of human rights discourse It ends on a call for more cautious and realistic expectations about what human rights institutions can achieve in democratizing countries

The Coming World Government: Tragedy & Hope? Adrian Salbuchi, 2017-10-20 This book describes the privatized power structures of the nascent World Government being engineered by deep state players

Faces of State Terrorism Laura Westra, 2012-05-16 This book examines the numerous illegal measures states use from unlawful imprisonment and curtailing of civil liberties to torture in the name of responding to terrorism At the same time it considers how trade and industrial activities terrorize people by depriving them of the natural resources they need to survive and by exposing communities to life threatening hazardous conditions

Human Rights and Statistics Thomas B. Jabine, Richard Pierre Claude, 1992 Violations Judith Dueck

Negotiating Gendered Discourses Jane L. Christie, 2015-11-25 It has been argued that the first presidential campaign of Michelle Bachelet in Chile and Cristina Fernandez de Kirchner in Argentina used a rhetoric of newness Some political observers have said that as the first women to successfully run for the highest office in these countries they were presented as the new faces of democracy These observers argued that gender was not a determining factor in their electoral success but the focus on this first women frame did generate heavily gendered criticisms of these two candidates Negotiating Gendered Discourses addresses these views by asking how the gender factor is negotiated when women from the Southern Cone of Latin America run for high political office In particular Jane L Christie examines how Bachelet and Fernández positioned themselves in relation to the numerous women led social movements and in doing so reveals points of intersection between these contemporary political discourses and existing sources of female authority when negotiating complicated ideological debates about human rights the economy and women's rights

National Identities and Socio-Political Changes in Latin America Antonio Gomez-Moriana, Mercedes Duran-Cogan, 2013-10-31 This study frames the social dynamics of Latin American in terms of two types of cultural momentum foundational momentum and the momentum of global order in contemporary Latin America Colombia: Peace with the FARC? United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on the Western Hemisphere, 2015 The People's Hotel Katherine Sobering, 2022-08-08 In 2001 Argentina experienced a massive economic crisis businesses went bankrupt unemployment spiked and nearly half the population fell below the poverty line In the midst of the crisis Buenos Aires's iconic twenty story Hotel Bauen quietly closed its doors forcing longtime hospitality workers out of their jobs Rather than leaving the luxury hotel vacant a group of former employees occupied the property and kept it open In The People's Hotel Katherine Sobering recounts the history of the Hotel Bauen detailing its transformation from a privately owned business into a worker cooperative one where decisions were made democratically jobs were rotated and all members were paid equally Combining ethnographic and archival research with her own experiences as a volunteer worker at the hotel Sobering examines how the Bauen Cooperative grew and against all odds successfully kept the hotel open for nearly two decades Highlighting successes and innovations alongside the many challenges that these workers faced Sobering presents a vivid portrait of efforts to address inequality and reorganize work in a capitalist economy

Responding to Human Rights Violations, 1946-1999 Katarina Tomaševski, 2021-10-05 This volume maps out the response of states to human rights violations It covers the period 1946-1999 and offers a complete and unmatched record for this period Its starting point is that such responses are not established and accepted state practice Traditional if unwritten norms of states behaviour developed through centuries of silence and inaction the prevalent reaction to human rights violations by another state remains the absence of any response Furthermore this book probes into evidence of active and passive complicity by reviewing aid to countries in which violations have been taking place and diplomatic initiatives undertaken to shield violators from public opprobrium Since international law is generated through state practice the book highlights the ongoing tussle between the pre-1946 heritage of silence and inaction and the 1946-1999 haphazard pattern of responses to violations The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies Oliver P. Richmond, Gözüm Visoka, 2022-06-21 This encyclopaedia provides a comprehensive overview of major theories and approaches to the study of peace and conflict across different humanities and social sciences disciplines Peace and conflict studies PCS is one of the major sub disciplines of international studies including political science and international relations and has emerged from a need to understand war related systems and concepts and how to respond to it afterward As a living reference work easily discoverable and searchable the Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies offers solid material for understanding the foundational historical and contemporary themes concepts theories events organisations and frameworks concerning peace conflict security rights institutions and development The Palgrave Encyclopaedia of Peace and Conflict Studies brings together leading and emerging scholars from different disciplines to provide the most comprehensive and up to date resource on peace and conflict studies ever produced
